J. IRA AND NICKI HARRIS FAMILY HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

JIM HARBAUGH

Jim Harbaugh has led the University of Michigan football program to three 10-win seasons in his first four years in Ann Arbor, becoming one of just four Big Ten coaches to accomplish the feat in the history of the conference.

The J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach, Harbaugh was named the 20th coach in Michigan football history on Dec. 30, 2014. He became the sixth Michigan football player selected to lead college football's winningest program.

Harbaugh is the second fastest coach to 20 wins at Michigan, trailing only Yost; Harbaugh accomplished the feat in 24 games and Yost won the first 29 games of his U-M career before tying Minnesota (6-6) in 1903.

In his first two seasons as the Michigan head coach, Harbaugh guided the Wolverines to 10-win seasons. U-M has appeared in a bowl game in all four seasons with Harbaugh at the helm of the program, including two New Year's Six Bowl games (2016 Orange Bowl and 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl) and two other New Year's Day bowls (2016 Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl and 2018 Outback Bowl).

Seven Wolverines have secured 11 All-America honors under Harbaugh: Devin Bush (first team, 2018; third team, 2017), Jake Butt (first team, 2015-16), Maurice Hurst (first team, 2017), Jourdan Lewis (first team, 2015-16), Jabrill Peppers (second team, 2015; first team, 2016), Chase Winovich (second team, 2018) and Chris Wormley (second team, 2016). Four of them were consensus All-Americans: Butt, Hurst, Lewis and Peppers.

Additionally, Butt won the Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end in 2016, while Peppers received the Lott IMPACT Trophy and Paul Hornung Award and was a fifth-place finisher in the Heisman Trophy race. Several other athletes have been national award finalists under Harbaugh, including Lewis (Jim Thorpe Award, 2016) and Bush (Butkus Award, 2017-18; Nagurski Award, 2018).

A total of 21 student-athletes have earned All-Big Ten first team recognition in Harbaugh's four seasons (four in 2015, six in 2016, three in 2017, eight in 2018). Those accolades have extended to the classroom as well, with Wolverines accruing 137 Academic All-Big Ten honors during his tenure, including a program- record 48 in 2017.

Michigan finished with a 10-3 record in 2015, including a 41-7 win over No. 19 Florida in the 2016 Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl. The Wolverines finished in the top 12 of the national polls for the first time since 2011, ranking 11th in the Amway Coaches poll and 12th in the Associated Press media poll.

In 2016, the Wolverines took another step forward, coming within inches of claiming their first Big Ten East Division title and a spot in the conference championship game. U-M finished 10-3 and listed 10th in both polls at year's end.

Harbaugh came to Ann Arbor after an impressive four-year run in the National Football League with the San Francisco 49ers. He led the franchise to the NFC Championship Game in each of his first three seasons, winning the George Halas Trophy as NFC champions in 2012. Harbaugh tallied a 49-22-1 overall record that included a 5-3 mark in the postseason as 49ers head coach.

Harbaugh led the Niners to a 13-3 regular-season record and to the NFC Championship Game during his first season in 2011, earning the AP NFL Coach of the Year award. He followed up with an 11-4-1 regular-season mark in 2012, culminating with an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII. Harbaugh's 49ers lost a back-and-forth affair, 34-31, to the Baltimore Ravens and his brother, John, in the only matchup of brothers as head coaches in NFL history. He helped guide San Francisco back to the NFC title game after a 12-4 regular-season record in 2013 and posted an 8-8 mark during the 2014 season.

Prior to making the jump to the 49ers, Harbaugh established himself as a leader of young men at the college level. He turned around a Stanford program that went 1-11 prior to his arrival. The Cardinal improved in each of Harbaugh's four seasons, culminating with a 12-1 campaign and FedEx Orange Bowl victory over Virginia Tech in 2010. Harbaugh finished his tenure at Stanford with a 29-21 overall record (.580) and 21-15 mark in Pac-10 Conference play.

After 4-8 and 5-7 records his first two seasons at the helm, Harbaugh led the Cardinal to an 8-5 record and a tie for second place in the Pac-10. The appearance in the Sun Bowl following the season was Stanford's first bowl game since the 2001 season. The program continued its ascension in 2010, posting a 12-1 overall record and 8-1 mark in the Pac-10. Stanford was selected for a BCS bowl game and proceeded to defeat Virginia Tech, 40-12, in the FedEx Orange Bowl in Harbaugh's final game with the program. The Cardinal finished the 2010 season ranked fifth in the national polls, and Harbaugh was named the Woody Hayes Award as the nation's top coach by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. He accepted the 49ers head coaching position on Jan. 7, 2011.

In his first head coaching experience, Harbaugh led the University of San Diego to a 29-6 record during his three seasons directing the program (2004-06). In his first year, the Toreros posted a 7-4 record after winning their final five games of the season. The team proceeded to post 11-1 marks during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, claiming the Pioneer Football League championship each season.

Harbaugh spent the 2002 and 2003 NFL seasons as the quarterbacks coach with the Oakland Raiders. He worked with the quarterbacks, helping quarterback Rich Gannon lead the organization to Super Bowl XXXVII after posting an 11-5 regular-season record and the AFC Western Division title. Gannon won the 2002 AP NFL MVP award and was selected to the 2003 Pro Bowl.

Harbaugh began preparing for a career as a coach during his professional playing days. He spent eight years as an NCAA-certified unpaid assistant coach for his father, Jack, at Western Kentucky (1994-2001). He worked as an offensive consultant and recruited for the Hilltoppers during that time. Harbaugh's effort helped his father's team capture the 2002 Division I-AA national championship.

Harbaugh played for five different organizations during his 15-year NFL career (1987-2001). He completed 2,305-of-3,918 passes for 26,288 yards and 129 touchdowns in 177 games. Harbaugh made 140 career starts. He was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Year, the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and a Pro Bowl selection after leading the Indianapolis Colts to the AFC Championship Game in 1995. He was inducted into the Colts Ring of Honor in 2005.

As a collegiate player, Harbaugh was one of the most efficient passers in NCAA history. In 1985, he led the nation in pass efficiency and finished as the runner-up in 1986. His career pass efficiency rating was the NCAA's top mark for more than 12 years. Harbaugh won the Chicago Tribune Big Ten Most Valuable Player award, earned first team All-America honors and finished third in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy following the 1986 season.

He completed 387-of-620 passes for 5,449 yards and 31 touchdowns during his career, with all four statistical categories still listing among the top 12 in school history. He also added 12 rushing touchdowns during his career, including eight scores as a senior. Harbaugh became the first Michigan quarterback to ever throw for more than 300 yards in a single game (310 vs. Wisconsin) and eclipsed the 200-yard passing mark 12 times. He led the Wolverines to a 21-3-1 record as a full-time starter during his final two seasons, including a pair of victories against rivals Michigan State and Ohio State.

Harbaugh and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters, Addison and Katherine, and two sons, Jack and John. He also has three children, Jay, James Jr., and Grace.

He is the son of Jack and Jackie Harbaugh. Jack was an assistant coach at Michigan from 1973-79. Harbaugh's brother, John, is head coach of the Baltimore Ravens and his sister, Joani, is married to University of Georgia men's basketball coach Tom Crean.

Don Brown is in his fourth season as Michigan's Matthew and Nicole Lester Family Football Defensive Coordinator. Regarded as one of the top defensive minds in the country, his units are known for their attacking style and stingy run defense, with a fierce commitment to a heavy blitz scheme.

In each of Brown's three seasons leading the defense, Michigan's unit has listed among the top four in the NCAA in total defense. U-M has led the nation or ranked second in passing defense on two occasions and has twice posted an NCAA-leading third down conversion percentage allowed.

Brown has coached seven All-Americans at Michigan: Devin Bush (2018), Lavert Hill (2018), Chase Winovich (2018), Chris Wormley (2016), and consensus picks Maurice Hurst (2017), Jourdan Lewis (2016), and Jabrill Peppers (2016). He has also coached Bush (Butkus Award twice; Bronko Nagurski Award), Peppers (Heisman Trophy, Bronko Nagurski Award, Chuck Bednarik Award, Paul Hornung Award, Rotary Lombardi Award, Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year, Lott IMPACT Trophy) and Lewis (Jim Thorpe Award) to wins or finalist bids for major national honors.

Under Brown's leadership, an incredible 32 of 33 defensive starters have earned All-Big Ten recognition (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018); 10 individuals have totaled 13 first-team honors. The Michigan defense led the Big Ten in eight categories in 2016, five categories in 2017, and five categories in 2018. Brown has coached three players to five major Big Ten honors: two Nagurski-Woodson Defensive Players of the Year (Bush, 2018; Peppers, 2016), two Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebackers of the Year (Bush, 2018; Peppers, 2016) and one Tatum-Woodson Defensive Back of the Year (Jourdan Lewis, 2016).

A native of Spencer, Mass., Brown has 39 years of coaching experience, including 25 as a defensive coordinator. He has spent time all over New England, including 12 seasons as a head coach, compiling a 94-45 record at three different institutions with five conference titles and six playoff appearances.

Brown has been part of a number of championship teams at all levels of college football. He helped Dartmouth (1982, co-) and Yale (1989) to Ivy League titles as an assistant and defensive coordinator, and was also a part of staffs that earned conference titles at Plymouth State (Division III; two), Massachusetts (four) and Northeastern (one).

Michigan ranked first or second nationally in seven categories in 2016, listed top-three in five categories in 2017, and ranked top-seven nationally in five major defensive categories in 2018. In the span of Brown's tenure, U-M has the top cumulative national ranks in the following categories: total defense, pass defense, third down defense, opponent completion percentage, sack rate, tackle for loss rate, and three-and-outs forced.

Opposing offenses have been forced into three-and-outs at a high rate against Michigan over the last three seasons; 33.3 percent of opponents' drives fail to move the chains. Michigan's defensive mayhem rate, which measures the percentage of plays ending in a sack, tackle for loss, or turnover, is 15.8 percent, which leads the nation over the same span.

In Brown's first year leading the defense, Michigan's unit ranked first or second in the NCAA in seven categories. Nearly 45 percent of opponents' possessions ended in a three-and-outs and U-M allowed just 28 red zone trips all season, fewest in the nation. On the turnover front, the U-M defense allowed just 11 passing touchdowns all season while generating 13 interceptions and 19 total turnovers. Brown was a finalist for the 2016 Broyles Award, U-M led the Big Ten in eight defensive categories and all 11 defensive starters earned All-Big Ten accolades.

In his final season with Boston College, he guided the Eagles' defense to a banner year, with the unit leading the nation in eight defensive categories. The team surrendered just seven rush yards in the first two contests and held seven opponents to sub-100-yard rushing performances overall. They played their best football in their biggest games, suffocating the No. 9 Florida State offense to its lowest total yardage figure since 2011 (217 yards) and forcing five turnovers against No. 4 Notre Dame.

The Eagles averaged more than 34 sacks and 90 tackles for loss in Brown's three seasons leading the defense after registering just six sacks (last in the nation) and 45 tackles for loss the year before his arrival.

Brown was nominated three times at BC for the Broyles Award (2013-15), given to the top assistant in college football, and collected AFCA 2015 Assistant Coach of the Year accolades for the FBS.

Prior to joining Steve Addazzio's staff at BC, Brown served two years as the defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach at Connecticut. The Huskies ranked among the nation's top 25 in five major categories and five defensive players were selected in the NFL Draft, including 2012 first-round selection Kendall Reyes (31st overall), in his two years on the staff.

He spent two years at Maryland (2009-10) in the same role, improving the Terps' defense to top-40 ranks in total defense and scoring defense, top-25 rankings in rushing defense and turnovers gained, and a top-10 ranking in pass efficiency defense.

In his first stop at Massachusetts, Brown was defensive coordinator during a two-year stretch that culminated in an appearance in the 1998 Division I-AA national championship. He returned and was head coach from 2004-08, leading the winningest five-year stretch in school history. The Minutemen tallied a program-best 43-19 record during that span (.694 winning percentage), highlighted by a two-year stretch (2006-07) during which the team went 23-5 overall, with a school-record 12-game win streak capped by a 13-2 record and national championship game appearance in 2006. Brown earned AFCA Region I Coach of the Year honors and collected Atlantic 10 and New England Coach of the Year honors as well.

In the four seasons prior, Brown was head coach at Northeastern during a turnaround effort, taking a team that went 2-9 in 1999 to a 10-3 record in 2002, leading the Huskies to the school's lone NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearance. Brown's tenure culminated in a 27-20 overall record, including an 18-7 record over the last two seasons. That season brought Brown the Atlantic and New England Coach of the Year honors as well as New England Football Writers Coach of the Year recognition.

He spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator at Brown prior to his first stop in Amherst (1996-97). His final year saw the team post its best record in 20 years at 7-3. Brown coached the defense to a school-record 28 interceptions and 36 total takeaways, the second-highest total in program history.

As a head coach, Brown led Plymouth State to two Division III playoff appearances in three seasons (1993-95), collecting AFCA District I Coach of the Year honors in all three years.

He spent time as a defensive coordinator at Dartmouth (1984-86) and Yale (1987-92), where he also served as the interim baseball coach in 1992, leading the team to a 26-10 season and an NCAA Tournament bid. He was an assistant at Mansfield University in Pennsylvania (1983) before that, and he began his coaching career as an assistant at Dartmouth in 1982 after coaching and teaching at Hartford High School in White River Junction, Vermont, in the years earlier.

Brown graduated from Norwich University in 1977 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and later earned his master's degree from Plymouth State in 1996. He was a star running back and four-year letter-winner at NU, from 1973-76 and earned another two varsity letters playing basketball. Brown was elected into the Vermont Military academy's Hall of Fame in 2007, 30 years after his graduation.

Brown graduated from David Prouty High School in Spencer, Mass. He and his wife, Deborah, have four children and 11 grandchildren.

SANFORD ROBERTSON OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

JOSH GATTIS

Josh Gattis was hired as the Sanford Robertson Offensive Coordinator for the University of Michigan football team on Jan. 10, 2019. He oversees the play calling and organization of the offense and works with the team's wide receivers on a daily basis.

Gattis, 34, was the co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at the University of Alabama in 2018. He helped the Crimson Tide reach the College Football Playoff National Championship Game and mentored All-American receiver Jerry Jeudy, the 2018 Biletnikoff Award winner, who caught 68 passes for 1,315 yards (19.3 avg.) and 14 touchdowns. In addition, Gattis developed true freshman Jaylen Waddle, who earned first-team All-American honors by Pro Football Focus. The Crimson Tide had four receivers and a tight end surpass 500 yards receiving on the year.

Prior to his position with the Crimson Tide, Gattis spent four seasons as the wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator at Penn State (2014-17). He also led the program's offensive recruiting efforts, helping the Nittany Lions ink four straight top-25 recruiting classes, including a pair of top-15 classes. Gattis was selected as the 2015 Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com for his efforts. On the field, he tutored All-Big Ten receivers DaeSean Hamilton (2014, '17) and Chris Godwin (2015-16).

Gattis spent two years as wide receivers coach at the University of Vanderbilt staff (2012-13) before migrating north to the Big Ten Conference. During his time with the Commodores, Gattis coached Jordan Matthews to All-America honors twice. Ed Warinner brings to Ann Arbor more than 30 years of college coaching experience, including the last 20 seasons working on the offensive side of the ball. He has worked especially closely with the offensive line, spending 16 of his last 20 seasons mentoring that position group.

Warinner spent the 2017 season as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at the University of Minnesota, where he worked with a rushing attack that saw five backs combine for 2,153 yards, led by Rodney Smith's 977. Three of the backs averaged better than 4.5 yards per carry and more than 60 percent of the team's first downs came on the ground.

Prior to his season with the Golden Gophers, Warinner coached five years at Ohio State (2012-16). His first two seasons were spent as offensive line coach and co-offensive coordinator before he was elevated to offensive coordinator in 2015. Warinner was part of the Buckeye staffs that led the team to the 2014 national championship and 2015 Fiesta Bowl.

Warinner helped the Ohio State offense set single-season program records in 11 categories during his tenure. Several of the single-season marks also rank as Big Ten records, and several others rank second or third-best all-time at OSU.

Warinner's offensive lines at Ohio State, which sent numerous player to the NFL, helped the Buckeyes consistently have one of the most potent rushing attacks in the nation.

Before working in Columbus, Warinner spent two seasons at Notre Dame as the offensive line coach (2010) and offensive line coach/run game coordinator (2011), helping the team reach the Hyundai Sun Bowl in his first season and the Champs Sports Bowl in his second year.

Warinner held multiple titles in two separate stints at Kansas (2003-04 and 2007-09), including offensive coordinator in his final three seasons and associate head coach in 2009. He helped lead three record-setting offensive units, including the 2007 squad that averaged 479.8 yards and 42.8 points per game en route to a 12-1 record and a FedEx Orange Bowl victory over Virginia Tech. The program posted three of its seven top-scoring seasons in school history, and the No. 1 season in terms of points per game (2007) and passing yards per game (310.3, 2009).

Warinner had a pair of earlier Big Ten stints when he spent two seasons as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at Illinois (2005-06) and two seasons as a linebackers and secondary coach at Michigan State (1985-86).

Before coaching at Illinois, Warriner spent three seasons at Air Force (2000-02) as the offensive line coach, and helped the Falcons lead the nation in rushing his final season with the program, averaging 307.8 yards per game.

Warinner got his coaching start at Akron in 1984, working with the running backs beforing accepting the position in East Lansing. His longest coaching stint was at Army, where he spent 13 seasons (1987-99), coaching three different position groups – defensive line, offensive line and quarterbacks – and serving as offensive coordinator during his final two years.

Warinner was a finalist for the American Football Coaches Association's National Assistant Coach of the Year award following the 2009 season at Kansas. He has been recognized by FootballScoop as the offensive line coach of the year on two occasions (2012, 2014). He is the first coach to earn that honor twice as an offensive line coach and joined Mark Helfrich, Kliff Kingsbury and Philip Montgomery as the only four coaches to earn positional coach honors of the year twice. He was also named a finalist in 2011.

His accolades include being named one of the Top 20 'hottest assistant coaches' by Rivals.com in 2012 and one of the Top 25 recruiters by the same site in 2014.

Warinner attended Franklin High School in Strasburg, Ohio, and went on to earn varsity letters in football and baseball at Mount Union (1979-83). He earned his bachelor's degree in secondary education in 1984 and earned a master's in sports management in 2005 from Akron.

Warinner and his wife, Mary Beth, have three children: daughters Madisyn and Merideth, and a son, Edward.

Michael Zordich is in his fifth season as a secondary coach for U-M, where he focuses on the cornerbacks. Since joining the Michigan staff, Zordich has helped the Wolverines boast one of the stingiest pass defenses in the nation. U-M has been a top-ranked pass defense in each of the last three years with first-place rankings in 2016 and 2017 and a second-place listing in 2018.

Michigan is the first team since 2001-03 to allow fewer than 2,000 yards passing in three consecutive seasons (2016-18). U-M also led the nation in third-down percentage in 2016 and 2017. As a result, all four starting defensive backs earned All-Big Ten recognition in three straight years.

Zordich coached Jourdan Lewis to the 2016 Big Ten Tatum-Woodson Defensive Back of the Year honor. He also saw Lewis earn All-America honors in 2015 and 2016 (consensus), and Lavert Hill earn third-team honors in 2018. Zordich helped Lewis set the program's single-season pass breakup (22 in 2015) and career breakup (45) records in 2017.

Zordich has coached two of the four players in Michigan history to have multiple pick-sixes in their careers (Lavert Hill, Brandon Watson). Between Lewis (semifinalist, 2015; finalist, 2016) and Hill (semifinalist, 2018), U-M has had three players up for the Jim Thorpe Award under Zordich.

The 2018 season saw seven different U-M defenders intercept 11 passes while surrendering 14 passing touchdowns. Four of U-M's 11 picks were returned for touchdowns. Opposing quarterbacks were limited to a completion percentage of 49.5 percent, averaging just 147.8 yards per game passing.

Hill earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from coaches and media and fellow cornerback David Long earned All-Big Ten recognition as a first (coaches) and third-team (media) honoree.

A Youngstown, Ohio, native, Zordich worked with the safeties at Youngstown State in the spring of 2009 before accepting a position with the Philadelphia Eagles where he spent four seasons working with the defense. He also coached on the high school level as an assistant at Chaney High School and Cardinal Mooney High School in Youngstown.

A 12-year NFL veteran, Zordich played five seasons each with the Eagles (1994-98) and Arizona Cardinals (1989-93) and two seasons with the New York Jets (1987-88). He retired from the NFL following the 1998 season, having posted 125 starts in 185 games, including a 135-game playing streak. Zordich was named All-Madden in 1995 and 1996. He collected nearly 600 tackles, 20 interceptions and scored four defensive touchdowns in his career. Zordich was drafted in the ninth round of the 1986 draft by the San Diego Chargers.

Zordich was an All-American safety and team captain for Penn State. He met his wife, Cynthia, while playing for the Nittany Lions. She was a Penn State cheerleader. Zordich and Cynthia have two sons, Michael and Alex, and a daughter, Aidan.

Among the highlights were Final Four runs in field hockey, men's basketball and ice hockey as the Wolverines led the Big Ten with a sixth-place finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup. A record 91 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars were recognized along with 359 Academic All-Big Ten honorees. Nearly 60 percent of Michigan's student-athletes achieved a 3.0 grade-point average or better and 120 of U-M's 158 graduates did so with at least a 3.0 GPA.

The first full year of Manuel's tenure, the 2016-17 academic year, saw many highlights for the Wolverines: three individual NCAA national champions in men's gymnastics, women's tennis and women's outdoor track and field; three Academic All-Americans; 290 Academic All-Big Ten selections; 58 All-Americans; five conference championships; and three conference tournament titles.

Additionally, 11 of U-M's varsity athletic teams were recognized by the NCAA with the Academic Performance Program Public Recognition Award for ranking among the top 10 percent of their respective sports in the most recent multiyear APR report. The 11 awards set an institutional record and led all Big Ten schools.

In 2017-18, Manuel hired Michigan hockey's head coach for the first time in 34 years, introducing Mel Pearson in April 2017. The department also announced the hiring of men's and women's lacrosse head coaches, Kevin Conry and Hannah Nielsen, as well as women's soccer coach Jennifer Klein. This past spring, Manuel also hired Juwan Howard (men's basketball) and Zach Barlow (men's golf).

Manuel's return to Ann Arbor brings him full-circle as a student-athlete, three-time degree-holder and athletic administrator at U-M, to a distinguished career as an athletic director, and back again. He returns to U-M following a nearly four-year run as director of athletics at the University of Connecticut, highlighted by being recognized as the 2015 NACDA Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year.

UConn teams won six NCAA national championships under Manuel's leadership -- the most ever by Husky teams in a three-year period. In 2014, UConn's three national champion teams (field hockey, men's, women's basketball) all posted perfect 1,000 single-year scores in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR). In 2015, 13 UConn teams posted perfect single-year scores, marking a dramatic academic improvement.

Prior to arriving in Connecticut, Manuel was the Vice President and Director of Athletics at the University of Buffalo (SUNY). During his tenure, the Bulls experienced an unparalleled period of success from an athletic, academic and community service perspective.

Manuel was honored by Sports Business Journal as a 2008 national "40-Under-40" honoree after receiving the same honor from Business First of Buffalo in the fall of 2007.

In 2007, he accepted the Opportunity Award by all-time tennis great Billie Jean King, when the University at Buffalo was recognized by the Women's Sports Foundation as one of four "standout" colleges and universities in the nation for outstanding achievement in providing equitable athletic opportunities for its female student-athletes.

Born May 22, 1968, Manuel is a native of New Orleans, Louisiana. He was a high school All-American in football and played for U-M under Bo Schembechler. He lettered in 1987 and '88, starting at defensive end his sophomore year. His football career was cut short by a neck injury, and he subsequently lettered as a member of the Wolverines' track and field team. Manuel earned his bachelor of general studies with a focus in psychology in 1990, his master's degree in social work from U-M in 1993, and an MBA from U-M's Stephen M. Ross School of Business in 2005.

Upon graduating from U-M, he served as coordinator of U-M's Wade H. McCree Jr. Incentive Scholarship Program from 1990-93, a partnership with the Michigan Association of State Universities and Detroit Public Schools that helps students prepare for higher education at public universities in Michigan.

He subsequently worked as an academic advisor with the Georgia Tech Athletic Association before being named assistant athletic director of academic affairs. Manuel served Michigan Athletics in several roles from 1996-2005. In 2000 he was named associate athletic director overseeing operational facets as well as Michigan's football and men's basketball programs.

Manuel, and his wife, Chrislan, a U-M alumna who earned a master's of health services administration degree in 1993, have two children, Emma and Evan. Emma is a fourth-year medical student at Michigan and Evan is a senior, also at U-M.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. -- The No. 14-ranked Michigan football team fell to No. 12-ranked Notre Dame, 24-17, in the opening contest of the 2018 campaign at Notre Dame Stadium. The defense held the Irish to 69 yards on 29 plays in the second half but it wasn't enough to overcome a 21-10 halftime deficit.

Trailing by seven with 1:48 to play, Michigan regained possession at its own 25-yard line with no timeouts remaining. Shea Patterson hit senior Grant Perry with back-to-back strikes for 20-yards to move the ball to its 45 yard line. Then, on second-and-10 Patterson was flushed from the pocket and sacked from behind, fumbling on the play as Notre Dame took over possession to secure the victory.

Making his Michigan debut, Patterson went 20-of-30 for 227 yards, while tailback Karan Higdon led the ground game with 72 yards on 21 carries and a touchdown. Nico Collins hauled in a trio of receptions for 68 yards and Donovan Peoples-Joes had a game-high six receptions for 38 yards.

Defensively, senior Tyree Kinnel led the overall effort with eight tackles, while senior defensive end Chase Winovich had 3.5 tackles for loss and a pair of quarterback hurries.

After falling behind 14-0, Michigan forced a three-and-out, resulting in a punt that saw U-M take control in plus-territory at the Notre Dame 41-yard line with 1:02 to go in the opening quarter. Higdon ran five times for 22 yards on the drive capped off by a 28-yard field goal from junior kicker Quinn Nordin to cut the deficit to 14-3 with 11:32 to play in the second quarter.

On the ensuing drive, Notre Dame converted a 4th-and-short, and the Michigan defense forced an incompletion from quarterback Brandon Wimbush on third down, but a roughing the passer penalty extended the drive. On the ensuing play, Armstrong rushed for his second score of the evening the bring the tally to 21-3 with 3:55 to play in the second quarter.

U-M fired back on the following kick-off as Ambry Thomas fielded the kick at the 1-yard line. He went on to break a pair of tackles at the U-M 35-yard line, and then took it to the house for the third 99-yard kickoff touchdown return in U-M history, bringing the score to 21-10 with 3:41 left in the quarter.

That score held until halftime, but U-M got off to a faster start in the second half, with Patterson finding receiver Nico Collins for a 52-yard reception that set up a 12-yard connection with Peoples-Jones. But the drive was stalled and resulted in a 33-yard field goal attempt from Nordin. The snap was bobbled, and the Fighting Irish took over on downs at their own 16.

Two plays later, Winovich got pressure on Wimbush, who heaved up a pass that was picked off at the Michigan side of the 49-yard line by cornerback Brandon Watson on the far sideline for his first-career interception.

The Wolverines took over possession pinned deep in their own territory early in the fourth quarter trailing 21-10, with sophomore Dylan McCaffrey taking over the offense in relief of an injured Patterson. McCaffrey started his relief appearance 3-of-3 for 21 yards on the drive, converting a trio of first downs and guiding the offense into Notre Dame territory, but turned the ball over on downs at the Fighting Irish 44.

Trailing 24-10 with 5:07 to play, Patterson re-entered the game and guided a Wolverine drive that was highlighted by a pair of receptions by junior Chris Evans - one for 13 yards and the latter for 24, as well as a 21-yard reception by sophomore Oliver Martin that brought the ball to the Notre Dame five. With 2:18 remaining Higdon finished off the drive with a 3-yard rush up the gut to bring the score to the eventual final score of 24-17.

Following a three-and-out for Notre Dame, Michigan took over with one last effort to tie the game but Khalid Kareem forced the decisive fumble.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Junior quarterback Shea Patterson threw three touchdowns in his Michigan Stadium debut to lead the No. 21-ranked University of Michigan football team to a resounding 49-3 victory over Western Michigan.

Patterson was extremely effective, going 12-of-17 for 125 yards and touchdown passes to junior Sean McKeon and sophomores Donovan Peoples-Jones and Nico Collins. Despite running 21 fewer plays, the Wolverines racked up 451 yards of total offense -- an average of 8.5 yards per play -- including 308 yards on the ground. Senior tailback Karan Higdon, who celebrated his 22nd birthday on Saturday, ran 13 times for 156 yards and a touchdown, while junior Chris Evans added 10 rushes for 86 yards and a pair of scores.

The Michigan defense was outstanding, with only a field goal allowed in the game's final minutes ruining the shutout attempt. The Wolverines held the Broncos to just 2.8 yards per play and were stingy on both third downs (4-of-17) and fourth down (2-of-5) against WMU. Junior Josh Metellus led the way with seven tackles, and classmates Rashan Gary and Khaleke Hudson each added six.

After each team exchanged scoreless possessions to begin the game, Michigan stepped on the accelerator and did not let up. Higdon was the catalyst and came up with the game's first big play, getting to the second level and breaking two tackles for a 43-yard rush to the Western Michigan 16-yard line. Two players later, Patterson rolled out to the right and found McKeon, who tiptoed down the sideline and dove into the end zone for a 17-yard touchdown.

Higdon struck again on the team's next possession. After another Western Michigan punt, the senior tailback needed only one play to score, putting the Wolverines up 14-0 off a 67-yard run.

The defense forced a turnover on the ensuing Western Michigan possession. Pressure up the middle forced Broncos quarterback Jon Wassink out of the pocket right, where his throw back across to the middle of the field was intercepted by graduate student linebacker Noah Furbush. Two plays later, Evans went untouched on 27-yard touchdown run, extending the lead to 21-0.

Western Michigan was driving and crossed midfield into Michigan territory before it was forced to punt. But on the attempt, Hudsonburst through the line and blocked it, with fifth-year senior Joe Hewlett recovering at the Bronco 24-yard line. With great field position -- and following a successful fourth-and-one conversion from Higdon -- Evans added his second touchdown, this time from two yards out.

Facing an uphill climb, Western Michigan elected to go for it on fourth-and-1 at midfield, but Wassink was stopped short by Hudson and junior Carlo Kemp on the keeper attempt, turning the ball back over to the offense. After an illegal substitution penalty on the visitors moved Michigan up five more yards, Patterson dropped in a deep ball to Collins for a 44-yard touchdown, grabbing a 35-0 halftime led.

The Michigan defense remained strong, as junior Devin Bush made a stop on a fourth-and-one to give the ball back to the offense. Two possessions later, Patterson drove the offense down the field for another score, a nine-yard touchdown pass to Peoples-Jones in the back corner of the end zone. Patterson soon exited and made way for sophomore Dylan McCaffrey, who threw an 18-yard touchdown pass -- the first of his career, and his only one of the game -- to sophomore Jake McCurry during his only drive.

Western Michigan broke the shutout with 2:42 left on a 35-yard field goal from Josh Grant, capping the scoring at 49-3.

#19 MICHIGAN 45, SMU 20

What You Need to Know
» Sophomore WR Donovan Peoples-Jones had three receiving touchdowns, the first multi-touchdown game of his career
» Michigan scored on every offensive possession from the second quarter onward
» Josh Metellus' returned his first career interception 73 yards for a touchdown as time expired in the first half to give U-M a 21-7 lead at the break.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- A three-touchdown afternoon from Donovan Peoples-Jones propelled Michigan past SMU by a score of 45-20 at Michigan Stadium.

Michigan scored on every offensive possession from the second quarter onward - six drives in all - and ended the game with 434 yards of total offense.

Junior quarterback Shea Patterson completed 14-of-18 attempts for a season-best 237 passing yards and three touchdowns. Peoples-Jones was the beneficiary of all three TD passes with catches of 35, seven and 41 yards. It was the most touchdowns scored by a Wolverine receiver since Jehu Chesson scored three against Indiana in 2015. Peoples-Jones finished with four receptions for 90 yards. Patterson posted three touchdown passes for the second straight game.

Following a scoreless first quarter, Michigan went on its scoring binge with the opening drive of the second quarter. Starting on its own 43-yard line, the Wolverines extended a drive thanks to an impressive pass completion under duress from Patterson, who on 3rd-and-4, threaded a 24-yard pass to Zach Gentry for 24 yards to SMU's 27 yard line. It took eight plays from there but, on fourth-and-goal from the one, Ben Mason plunged into the end zone with 6:56 left in the half.

SMU immediately answered as Ben Hicks found James Proche wide open down the Mustangs' sideline for a 50-yard touchdown pass to cap a five play, 75-yard drive at the 5:16 mark of the quarter.

Michigan reclaimed the lead on its next drive with another fourth down conversion playing a large roll. Chris Evans converted a one-yard carry to midfield and SMU coach Sonny Dykes disagreed with the call, eventually earning himself an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty. On the very next play, Patterson went play-action before finding Peoples-Jones on an out pattern with the sophomore receiver hurtling into the end zone for the 14-7 lead with 2:34 to play in the half.

Josh Metellus put an exclamation point on the first half when he picked off Hicks on U-M's 27-yard line and raced up the SMU sideline, waiting patiently for key blocks while cutting back to the middle of the field, and diving into the end zone. The interception, the first of Metellus' career, occurred as time expired and gave the Wolverines a commanding 21-7 lead.

Michigan started the second half by driving 62 yards on eight plays for a 28-7 lead. Patterson again exploited the seam route, this time finding Gentry for 28 yards on the right hash to set-up a back-shoulder scoring strike to Peoples-Jones from seven yards out.

SMU remained in contention thanks to a 16-play, 81-yard drive that covered 7:31 of the third quarter. William Brown found Ryan Becker on a rollout pass from two yards out and, following a missed extra point, U-M's lead was down to 28-13.

Dykes' squad tried an onside kick but Josh Ross covered the effort, giving U-M field position at SMU's 46-yard line. Two plays later, the play-action worked to perfection as Patterson lofted a 46-yard strike to Peoples-Jones on a post pattern for a 35-13 lead.

SMU embarked on another lengthy scoring drive, going 80 yards on 12 plays as Brown found Proche on a two-yard scoring pass to make it a 35-20 contest.

Michigan scored on its next two drives, thanks to a 45-yard field goal from Quinn Nordin and a punishing nine-yard rushing touchdown from tailback Tru Wilson. Wilson's first collegiate touchdown gave U-M a 45-20 lead with 1:05 to play and completed an 11-carry, 53-yard day for the walk-on.

Proche was the catalyst behind an SMU offense that kept in contention until the latter part of the game. The Mustangs' wideout was targeted almost exclusively in the passing game and ended his day with 11 catches for 166 yards and two touchdowns.

Michigan amassed 491 yards of total offense, gashing the Nebraska defense for nearly seven yards a play. Karan Higdon was the prime beneficiary of some massive running lanes, rushing 12 times for 136 yards and a touchdown. Ben Mason ran six times and scored TDs on three of those carries.

Shea Patterson was equally as effective through the air, going 15-of-22 for 120 yards and a touchdown.

The defense, particularly the defensive line, was in Nebraska's backfield all afternoon. The Wolverines limited Nebraska to just 132 yards of total offense. They compiled 14 tackles for loss, four sacks, and forced two turnovers. Devin Bush led the way with six tackles.

Nebraska received to start the game and picked up 32 yards on its first 3rd-and-10 of the game. But on the next play, Lawrence Marshall batted Martinez's pass at the line, which was intercepted by Josh Metellus. Higdon picked up 46 yards on the offense's second play from scrimmage, carrying the Wolverines into the red zone. Mason took it from there, running three straight plays and scoring the game's first touchdown.

The Cornhuskers faced a 3rd-and-9 on the ensuing possession before Jordan Glasgow sacked Martinez to stop the drive. After Peoples-Jones was interfered with on the punt return, drawing a 15-yard penalty, Higdon needed one play to score, dashing down the sidelines for a 44-yard touchdown. The Wolverines led 14-0.

After another three-and-out, Patterson made a big play on 3rd-and-12, finding Zach Gentry for a 21-yard gain, a play not possible without a big blitz pickup in the backfield from Higdon. The Wolverines found themselves in another third-and-long situation, but converted that, too, on a 26-yard gain from Wilson. Mason scored on the next play, making the score 20-0 after Nordin missed the extra point.

Michigan's next offensive possession ended in a 57-yard punt from Hart, but Nebraska's Tyjon Lindsey muffed the return, recovered by Ambry Thomas at the Nebraska 35-yard line. Nordin made up for his missed extra point by connecting on a 50-yard field goal, extending the lead to 23-0.

The Wolverines added two more touchdowns before halftime: a five-yard pass from Patterson to Gentry and another one-yard run from Mason. Then with 4:03 left, Michigan added two more via a safety when Martinez was called for throwing an illegal forward pass in the end zone, which came off catching his own deflection at the line of scrimmage. Michigan led 39-0 at halftime.

Peoples-Jones brought the Big House to its feet in the third quarter with an electric 60-yard punt return for a touchdown. The sophomore fielded the punt at his own 40, put a spin move on a would-be tackler and dove for the pylon, making the score 46-0.

A 35-yard field goal from Barret Pickering ended the shutout. Sophomore Dylan McCaffrey entered the game and kept the offense moving as Nordin capped the drive with a 38-yard field goal. Two drives later, McCaffrey threw a perfectly-lobbed deep ball to freshman Ronnie Bell down the sideline, who juked a defender on his way to a 56-yard touchdown.

Nebraska got its only touchdown of the game late in the fourth quarter on a three-yard run from Wyatt Mazour, capping the game's scoring at 56-10.

What You Need to Know
» Karan Higdon scored the go-ahead touchdown with 4:06 to play.
» Michigan trailed, 17-0, in the first quarter but held Northwestern to just 97 yards over the final 45 minutes.
» Josh Uche's second sack on the final play ended Northwestern's Hail Mary attempt.

EVANSTON, Ill. -- A defiant defensive effort and a series of critical offensive conversions lifted No. 14-ranked Michigan football team to a 20-17 victory over Northwestern at Ryan Field.

Michigan trailed, 17-0, in the first quarter and surrendered 105 yards in the opening period before stifling the Wildcats in allowing them just 97 yards the rest of the game.

U-M's offense racked up over 350 yards after the opening quarter and chipped away at the deficit before scoring the go-ahead touchdown with 4:06 to play.

Trailing by four with 10 minutes to play, Michigan took over on its 33-yard line. Quarterback Shea Patterson converted a 3rd-and-6 with an athletic, scrambling nine-yard keeper to get U-M to Northwestern's 28-yard line. He then threaded a perfect 22-yard pass to Zach Gentry down to Northwestern's six-yard line. Two plays later Karan Higdon breezed in for the go-ahead touchdown from five yards out to give the Wolverines a 20-17 lead.

On Northwestern's ensuing possession, Kwity Paye came up with a big sack on third down to force a Wildcat punt and the Wolverines regained possession at its own 34-yard line with 3:02 to play. On 3rd-and-6, Patterson again answered the call, keeping the ball on an option play and faking out a defender to convert a key first down with 2:25 left. Michigan did have to punt the ball to Northwestern, which took over on its 15-yard line with 34 seconds remining in regulation.

The Wildcats got near midfield but Josh Uche ended the game with a sack. It was the sixth sack of the game for the Wolverines, who tormented Northwestern's offense with 10 tackles for loss and allowed just 28 rushing yards on 34 carries.

Uche and Paye had two sacks each while Chase Winovich had a huge game with nine tackles, eight solo, one sack and three tackles for loss.

While the defense dazzled during the final three quarters, Patterson starred in key moments, constantly breaking down a tough Northwestern defense with his scrambling ability and accuracy outside of the pocket. He finished 15-of-24 for 196 yards through the air and added 31 rushing yards on seven carries.

Higdon added 115 yards on 30 carries while Nico Collins led the receivers with 73 yards on six receptions.

Northwestern scored on its opening possession, driving 56 yards in six plays, capped by a one-yard keeper from Thorson. Following a three-and-out for U-M, the Wildcats again drove deep into Wolverine territory before settling for a career-long 45-yard field goal from Charlie Kuhbander.

On the opening drive of the second quarter, Northwestern benefitted from a timely pass interference call to move inside the Wolverines' 10-yard line. On 2nd-and-goal, John Moton eased into the end zone and U-M faced its largest deficit of the season at 17-0.

Michigan got on track on the ensuing possession, which started at its 29-yard line. Three plays after converting a 3rd-and-1 near midfield, Higdon bullied his way into the end zone from four yards out to make it a 17-7 game with 9:14 to play in the half.

Michigan used that momentum at the outset of the second half to drive 69 yards on 11 plays, capped by a 23-yard field goal from Quinn Nordin. Patterson converted a 3rd-and-6 with his scrambling ability, scampering 12 yards into Northwestern territory. He then found a streaking Collins for a 36-yard pass completion to get inside the NU 10-yard line before U-M settled for the field goal to make the score, 17-10.

Another defensive stop gave the ball back to the U-M offense and put it in position to attempt a game-tying drive. On a difficult third-down rollout, Patterson completed an 11-yard pass to Gentry at Northwestern's 36-yard line. On the next play, Patterson found Nick Eubanks for a 24-yard gain to the Wildcat 12. The Wolverines drive stalled, but a 24-yard field goal from Nordin made it a 17-13 game as the third quarter came to an end.

» Quarterback Shea Patterson had his best day as a Michigan Wolverine, going 19-of-27 for 282 yards and three touchdowns.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Quarterback Shea Patterson threw for 282 yards and three touchdowns and engineered a brilliant offensive performance to lead 15th-ranked Michigan to a 42-21 win over Maryland on Homecoming. The offense racked up 465 yards, had 24 first downs and went 9-of-13 on third down.

Patterson was the catalyst, throwing touchdown passes to three different receivers (Ronnie Bell, Donovan Peoples-Jones, Jared Wangler). Tailback Karan Higdon tallied his fourth consecutive game with 100 rushing yards -- 103 yards -- and became the 23rd player in Michigan history to eclipse 2,000 career rushing yards. Tight end Zach Gentry was the leading receiver, hauling in seven passes for 112 yards.

Defensively, Michigan limited Maryland to just 42 yards of total offense in the first half and allowed only 11 first downs for the game. Tyree Kinnel led the team with seven tackles, while Brandon Watson had the defense's lone turnover -- a 46-yard pick-six in the fourth quarter to put the game away.

The two teams had to wait an additional hour due to weather, not kicking off officially until 1:10 p.m. The Wolverines had little trouble moving the ball, but were stuffed on a 4th-and-1 from the Maryland 24-yard line. The defense held and Michigan turned it into points, leading 3-0 on a 34-yard field goal from Quinn Nordin.

The Terrapins took the lead on the ensuing kickoff, as Ty Johnson returned it 98 yards for a touchdown. Momentum stayed with the visitors as Patterson was intercepted two plays later, allowing Maryland to start their drive at the 50-yard line. The Michigan defense once again held strong, forcing a punt.

Starting from their own five-yard line, Patterson engineered an 11-play drive that led to a Michigan touchdown. The key play was a 51-yard bomb to Nico Collins, as the sophomore made an adjustment to come back to the ball and make the catch while simultaneously drawing a defensive pass interference penalty. After a bit of trickery -- in which Grant Perry threw to Sean McKeon off a reverse -- it was a steady dose of Higdon, who ran it four consecutive times down to the one-yard line. Mason cashed in on the next play, allowing Michigan to retake the lead at 10-7.

Facing a third-and-three with 16 seconds left in the first half, Patterson rolled out left and threw a precise 22-yard touchdown pass to Bell, all while taking a roughing the passer penalty. The Wolverines led, 17-7, at halftime, holding a 291-42 edge in total offense.

Michigan came out of the locker room in the second half and appeared to score on a pass from Patterson to Peoples-Jones, but it was negated due to a holding call. The drive ended with a 31-yard field goal from Nordin to make the score 20-7.

A Maryland gaffe on the kickoff and a quick three-and-out gave Michigan great field position at the Terrapins' 43-yard line. On the fifth play of the drive, Patterson was pressured out of the pocket left and threw across his body to Peoples-Jones, who raced up the sideline and broke two would-be tackles for the 34-yard touchdown, increasing the lead to 27-7.

Maryland cut the lead to 27-14 on a three-yard end-around from Javon Leake.

Patterson remained accurate in leading Michigan's response, taking the offense on a nine-play, 81-yard drive that ended with a seven-yard touchdown pass to Wangler. Mason was successful on a run up the middle on the two-point conversion to make it 35-14, Michigan. On the next drive, Watson jumped a route and picked off Maryland quarterback Kasim Hill, taking it back 46 yards for the touchdown.

The Terrapins added a late touchdown, capping the scoring at 42-21 on a five-yard run from Tyrone Pigrome.

What You Need to Know
» Michigan recorded its second 300-yard rushing performance of 2018.
» Karan Higdon has rushed for more than 100 yards in his last five games, leading the team with 105 yards against Wisconsin.
» The Wolverines held Wisconsin to season lows of 283 total yards, 100 passing yards and 183 rushing yards.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- A 320-yard rushing performance and a dominant pass defense helped lead the No. 12-ranked University of Michigan football team to a 38-13 victory over No. 15 Wisconsin on Saturday (Oct. 13) under the lights at Michigan Stadium.

Running back Karan Higdon and quarterback Shea Patterson combined to rush for 195 of MIchigan's 320 yards. Patterson did the bulk of his damage in the first half, collecting 81 yards on a run down the left sideline to set up the Wolverine's first touchdown. He finished 14-of-21 passing for 124 yards and had 90 rushing yards on nine carries. Higdon shouldered the rushing load in the second half, gaining 94 of his 105 yards over the final 30 minutes.

The U-M defense did not allow a pass completion on the Badgers' first eight attempts in the second half as Wisconsin quarterback Alex Hornibrook finished just 7-of-20 for 100 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. Josh Metellus intercepted Hornibrook off a tipped pass by David Long and set up a 33-yard field goal by Quinn Nordin. The second interception was a 21-yard return for a touchdown by Lavert Hill.

Hornibrook suffered just his second career road loss, falling to 11-2. Both of his losses have come at Michigan Stadium. He is a combined 16-for-45 for 188 yards and five interceptions in those two losses.

Michigan held Wisconsin to 283 yards of total offense, more than 100 yards short of its previous season low (394 in a loss to BYU). The 100 passing yards are also a season low. Jonathan Taylor, the nation's leading rusher, was held to 101 yards on 17 carries -- 68 yards below his season average.

The opening drive of the second half was a key drive in the game. Michigan led, 13-7, at halftime and was able to extend the lead to 21-7 after two penalties by the Badgers helped extend the drive. A defensive holding penalty and roughing the snapper penalty on a punt allowed U-M to keep its drive alive. Patterson finished off the drive with a seven-yard rushing touchdown, then completed a crossing pass to Nico Collins in the back of the end zone for the two-point conversion.

From that point on, the Wolverines added a field goal and two touchdowns to build a 38-7 lead. The touchdowns were the 21-yard pick-six by Hill and a 44-yard touchdown run by backup quarterback Dylan McCaffrey, the first of his career. Wisconsin scored a touchdown with 3:47 remaining in the game to make the final score 38-13.

Patterson's 81-yard run in the first quarter helped set up the first score of the game and is the second longest by a quarterback in Michigan's history. Only Denard Robinson's 87-yard run against Notre Dame in 2010 was longer. Higdon punched it in from two yards out for his sixth rushing touchdown of the season as U-M took a 7-0 advantage.

Wisconsin answered on the following drive, marching the ball down the field with four consecutive rushes totaling 71 yards. The drive took 2:07 off the clock and was capped by a 33-yard touchdown run by wide receiver Kendric Pryor.

Outside of the one Badgers scoring drive, Michigan's top-ranked defense held Wisconsin to 56 yards on 20 plays in the first half, including just 25 passing yards. Devin Bush and Josh Uche each came through with third-down sacks.

The Wolverines built a six-point lead by halftime with two consecutive field goals by Nordin, who finished with three made field goals in the game.

What You Need to Know
» Michigan limited Michigan State to 94 yards of offense on 51 plays.
» Michigan improved to 10-0 when Karan Higdon runs for 100 yards (144 yards on Saturday).
» Shea Patterson's 79-yard touchdown pass to Donovan Peoples-Jones in the third quarter broke a 7-7 tie.

EAST LANSING, Mich. -- In the 66th meeting for the Paul Bunyan Trophy, a dominant defensive effort led No. 6 Michigan to a 21-7 rain-soaked victory at No. 24-ranked Michigan State in Spartan Stadium.

Michigan's vaunted defense limited MSU to 94 yards of offense on 51 plays, and a trio of impressive scoring drives gave the Wolverines what was necessary in a game that featured a 75-minute weather delay.

Michigan did not allow a third- or fourth-down conversion to MSU (0-for-13 combined) while limiting the Spartans to 15 rushing yards on 23 carries (0.7 yards per carry). Michigan State's longest rush of the day was supplied by backup QB Rocky Lombardi, a 10-yard scamper late in the fourth quarter. Starting QB Brian Lewerke completed his first two passes of the day but finished just 5-of-25 for 66 yards.

The seven points scored by MSU are the fewest for the Spartans in this rivalry since 2002, when U-M won, 49-3. The 28 total points in the game are the fewest since 2000, when U-M won a 14-0 matchup. Michigan possessed the ball for 41:03 of the game.

Michigan was in the midst of its second offensive possession when play was halted for a weather delay. Upon return, the Wolverines converted a trio of third downs, including an 6-yard strike from Shea Patterson to Nico Collins for a touchdown to cap a 14-play, 84-yard drive covering 7:56 of game time. Patterson's throw was crisp and placed where only Collins had a play on the ball, as he streaked across the back of the end zone.

Just before the end of the half, Michigan missed an opportunity to exted its lead as Quinn Nordin missed a 36-yard field goal attempt.

The 7-0 halftime score belied how lopsided the opening half was, with Michigan out-gaining the Spartans, 170-49, in total yards. It was MSU's worst half offensively since Oct. 14, 2006, against Ohio State. It only got worse for the home team in the second half as they would gain just four yards on the ground.

The second half did not start well for Michigan, which committed personal fouls on each of the first two plays to allow MSU to drive the ball inside the 30-yard line. U-M held fast and kept Michigan State off the scoreboard, but four plays later a fumble gave the Spartans the ball at the Wolverines' 7-yard line as rain returned to the region. MSU used a reverse option pass play from receiver Darrell Stewart Jr. to Lewerke from four yards out to tie the game, 7-7, in the third quarter.

The rain continued to wreak havoc. U-M was forced to punt on its next possession, and Will Hart pumped out another gem. His 50-yarder bounced up nicely for MSU's Shakur Brown, but Jordan Glasgow put his helmet right on the ball, forcing a fumble that was recovered by Joe Hewlett at MSU's 46-yard line.

Michigan converted a third down, and a run from Karan Higdon moved the ball to MSU's 22, where the Wolverines faced 2nd-and-2. Higdon stumbled into the next handoff, and MSU fell on the fumbled ball on its own 23-yard line to regain possession.

After a defensive stop, momentum swung in U-M's favor. On first down from the U-M 21-yard line, Patterson targeted Donovan Peoples-Jones and lofted a perfect pass that the sophomore caught in stride before jumping out of an arm tackle and streaking down the sideline for a 79-yard touchdown and a 14-7 lead with 2:24 left in the third quarter.

After forcing its 10th punt of the day, Michigan reclaimed possession and scored again on another 84-yard drive capped by a bruising five-yard run from Ben Mason to make the score 21-7 with 10:21 to play. Patterson again keyed the drive when he kept the ball on a 4th-and-2 read-option play, scampering 11 yards for a first down before another 11-yard keeper several snaps later to set up Mason.

Higdon paced the ground game with his sixth consecutive 100-yard rushing effort, finishing with 144 yards on career-high 33 carries. Patterson was 14-of-25 through the air for 212 yards and two touchdowns while finding eight different receivers.

What You Need to Know
» Michigan, top-ranked in total defense, stymied Penn State's potent offense, holding the Nittany Lions to fewer than 100 yards until midway through the fourth quarter and 186 total by game's end.
» The Wolverines intercepted two passes -- one returned for a touchdown -- and had five sacks.
» Michigan's offense posted 400 yards for the sixth time this season, and the Wolverines produced 40 points for the fifth time this year.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- The nation's leader in total defense lived up to its billing as No. 5 Michigan routed No.14 Penn State, 42-7, in front of the Big House's biggest crowd of the year, 111,747 fans. The Wolverines allowed the 11th-ranked Nittany Lions scoring offense just 186 yards of total offense and a single fourth-quarter touchdown on Penn State's final drive.

In the final two quarters, the Wolverines twice intercepted the Nittany Lions -- one interception was returned 62 yards for a touchdown by Brandon Watson.

Shea Patterson competed 11-of-17 passes for 144 yards and two touchdowns to Donovan Peoples-Jones and Zach Gentry, while Karan Higdon spearheaded the rushing attack with 132 yards and a touchdown -- one of three on the ground for Michigan, with Patterson and Chris Evans also finding the end zone.

After allowing a 25-yard completion on the first play of the game, the Michigan defense clamped down with back-to-back sacks on second- and third-downs by Chase Winovich and Uche to force a punt.

Michigan put seven points on the board behind the strength of its ground game. Higdon ripped off 61 yards on the Wolverines' first three plays of the drive -- including a 50-yard dash deep into Penn State territory at the 16-yard line. Facing a third down, Patterson faked a handoff to Higdon and kept it for a run around the left edge to set up 1st-and-goal on the 4-yard line. Two plays later, Patterson again executed a fake to perfection and strode into the end zone for an early 7-0 advantage.

Two series later, a fumble by Trace McSorley on a handoff was recovered by Winovich at the PSU 49-yard line. Fullback Ben Mason converted on 4th-and-2 with a three-yard rumble to put Michigan just outside the 20-yard line. Patterson capitalized on the ensuing third down, when he found Peoples-Jones along the right sideline with a 23-yard strike to put the Wolverines up, 14-0, with 6:52 remaining in the first half.

The U-M defense became the first team this year to keep the Penn State offense off the scoreboard for two consecutive quarters. Entering the contest, the Nittany Lions had scored in nine consecutive quarters and had previously only failed to score in two quarters all season.

The Wolverines and Nittany Lions traded punts early in the third quarter. With rushes of seven and 19 yards, Higdon crossed the 100-yard mark for the 12th time in his career. That set up Patterson for a connection with Chris Evans for a 24-yard gain to the Penn State 11-yard line. Patterson then hit Gentry on a crossing route to extend the Wolverine advantage to 21-0 with 56 seconds remaining in the third quarter.

Just when it looked like the Nittany Lions might jumpstart their struggling offense when quarterback Tommy Stevens -- who came in for McSorley -- scampered 18 yards before the Michigan defense once again put out the spark. On the next play, Watson intercepted Stevens at the Michigan 38-yard and tiptoed along the right sideline for 62 yards en route to his second career interception return for a touchdown with nine seconds remaining in the third quarter.

A three-and-out to start the fourth quarter put the ball back in the hands of Patterson and the offense. A 32-yard rush by Evans put Michigan at the Penn State 19-yard line, followed by a 13-yard rush by Patterson to give the Wolverines 1st-and-goal at the six. After Mason pushed the Wolverines to within four yards of the goal line, Higdon powered his way into the end zone to extend the lead to 35-0 at 9:49 of the fourth quarter.

Less than 15 seconds later, on Penn State's first play of the following drive, the newly re-entered McSorley was picked off by Long -- his first interception of the season -- at the Nittany Lion 27-yard line and returned 15 yards to the Penn State 12-yard line. Evans capped the four-play drive with a one-yard rush to extend the lead to 42-0 with 7:44 remaining in the game.

Penn State's offense finished its night with an 11-play, 75-yard drive that culminated in an eight-yard touchdown rush by Stevens to bring the score to 42-7.

What You Need to Know
» Shea Patterson threw three touchdown passes in three quarters
» Karan Higdon ran for two touchdowns and logged Michigan's first 1,000-yard rushing mark since the 2012 season (Denard Robinson).
» The nation's No. 1 pass defense held Rutgers to 59 yards passing, the lowest by any team against U-M this year (previous low: 73, Maryland).

PISCATAWAY, New Jersey -- Shea Patterson threw three touchdown passes and Karan Higdon ran for two more as the No. 4-ranked University of Michigan football team soundly defeated Rutgers by a score of 35-7 Saturday at HighPoint.com Stadium.

Patterson was the story on Saturday against a Rutgers defense that stacked the box in an attempt to thwart the run game amidst blustery wind conditions. Thanks to impressive pass protection, Patterson was impressive in his three quarters of action, finishing 18-of-27 for 260 yards and three touchdowns.

Michigan chalked up 500 yards of offense while its defense limited Rutgers to 252 yards., including just 59 through the air to mark the lowest total against U-M this season.

Michigan started the scoring with under a minute to play as Karan Higdon bullied his way into the end zone on first-and-goal from the one yard line to cap an eight-play, 59-yard drive and covering 4:28 on the clock.

Rutgers answered immediately as Isaih Pacheco recorded Rutgers' longest offensive play of the season with an 80-yard run up the middle. It was also the program's longest rush since joining the Big Ten Conference.

Michigan again put forward a bruising drive; this time a 12-play, 65-yard drive with another one-yard TD run from Higdon putting the visitors ahead, 14-7.

The lead was soon extended to 21-7 when Shea Patterson found Nico Collins wide open on a go-route for a 36-yard touchdown with five minutes to play in the half.

Towards the end of the half Michigan's defense again came up with another stop, denying Rutgers on fourth-and-two from midfield with 2:32 to play. The half ended with Michigan outgaining RU 256-135 with the Scarlet Knights being credited for zero passing yards (2-of-6).

In the second half, Michigan started off where it left off as the Wolverines drove 73 yards on eight plays as Patterson found Oliver Martin for a 16-yard touchdown pass and a 28-7 lead. Martin's first collegiate touchdown came following some impressive poise from Patterson, who went through multiple progressions in the pocket before rolling out of the pocket to the strong side and lofting a perfectly-placed ball to the front corer of the end zone.

Patterson and Collins hooked up again at the end of the quarter when, on second-and-seven, Patterson lofted a perfect back-shoulder pass for a 10-yard scoring strike and a 35-7 lead - coming on his final play of the night.

Chris Evans broke through the line on the first play of the fourth quarter for a 61-yard touchdown run and a 42-7 lead to account for the final margin.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Freshman kicker Jake Moody connected for a school-record six field goals and the defense limited Indiana to three second half points as No. 4 Michigan defeated Indiana, 31-20, in front of a crowd of 110,118 at Michigan Stadium.

Trailing by two points at halftime, Michigan's defense forced Indiana to go three-and-out on its opening drive and then marched 67 yards on 11 plays before Karan Higdon plunged into the end zone from two yards out to give Michigan a 22-17 lead at the 9:44 mark. It was the seventh lead change of the game.

The teams traded turnovers before Moody connected for his fourth field goal of the game, a 33-yarder, to give U-M a 25-17 lead with 2:08 to play in the third quarter.

On the opening play of the fourth quarter, IU attempted a fake punt near midfield, only to see Devin Bush run the width of the field to cut down Marcelino Ball well short of the line to gain. U-M again drove deep into IU territory before Moody booted his fifth field goal of the game from 23 yards out, extending the lead to 28-17 with 9:55 to play.

Indiana responded with a field goal of its own, a 36-yarder from Logan Justice, to make the score, 28-20, with 6:10 to play. Following a lengthy injury delay, Michigan drove 36 yards to the Indiana 11-yard line to set up Moody's sixth field goal of the game, a 29-yarder enabled by the steady hold of punter Will Hart, who corralled a slightly wayward snap and snuck it down just in time to meet Moody's foot.

With 2:37 to play, U-M held a 31-20 lead and the defense stopped the Hoosiers on 4th-and-12 from their 38-yard line to end the game.

Patterson connected with 11 different receivers in the game, finishing 16-of-28 for 250 yards through the air to go with 68 rushing yards. Higdon finished with 101 yards on 21 carries.

Moody kicked a trio of field goals in the opening half, from distances of 32, 30 and 31 yards, respectively, as Michigan built a 9-7 lead midway through the second quarter. Indiana led the game three times in the first half; first at 7-3, following a 13-yard touchdown run by Scott and again at 10-9, thanks to a Justice 41-yard field goal with 7:39 to go in the second quarter.

Michigan responded to each Indiana score, with the Wolverines taking a 15-10 lead on a 41-yard play-action touchdown pass from Patterson to Nick Eubanks with less than five minutes remaining in the half. U-M was unsuccessful on a two-point conversion and Indiana put forth an impressive drive of its own to take a 17-15 lead with 1:33 to play in the half. Ramsey was 3-of-3 on the drive, including a 41-yard completion and a seven-yard scoring pass to Ty Fryfogle.

On its last possession of the half, Michigan drove deep into Indiana territory only to see the game clock expire with the ball at the Hoosiers' two-yard line. The play-action pass again helped U-M move the ball with Patterson finding Zach Gentry for 41 yards down to Indiana's 15-yard line. Following a trio of run plays and a pass completion to Sean McKeon to the two-yard line, the official in charge of spotting the ball dropped it, an Indiana player kicked it, and the game clock ran out before the Wolverines could run a final play.

Michigan outgained Indiana in the opening half, 276-249, but IU's two touchdowns proved to be the difference in allowing the Hoosiers a two-point halftime margin.

What You Need to Know
» Ohio State scored 17 points in a span of 5:15 of the third quarter to take control of a close game
» Nico Collins caught four passes for 91 yards and two scores
» Michigan's defense managed four tackles for a loss with no sacks

COLUMBUS, Ohio -- The No. 10-ranked Ohio State Buckeyes gained over 500 yards of offense and led wire to wire in a 62-39 victory over No. 4-ranked Michigan at Ohio Stadium.

The Buckeyes scored 17 points in a span of 5:15 of the third quarter to take control of a tense game. A 19-yard field goal at the 8:25 mark preceded a blocked punt with OSU's Sevyn Banks returning the block 33 yards for a critical touchdown to make it a 34-19 game with 4:41 left in the third. Jordan Fuller then intercepted a pass at U-M's 22-yard line, setting up Mike Weber for a decisive touchdown and a 41-19 lead with 3:10 to play in the third.

Michigan tried to mount a comeback at the start of the fourth quarter. As he did earlier in the game, Shea Patterson looked for Nico Collins on a corner route in the end zone on a 12-yard touchdown pass. Originally ruled an incompletion, the official review overturned the call, giving Collins his second score of the day. The two-point conversion was no good, making the score 41-25 with 14:11 to play.

OSU immediately responded on its first play from scrimmage as Paris Campbell went 78 yards on a jet sweep pass from Haskins for a 48-25 lead. The score effectively ended any comeback effort for the Wolverines, although each team scored two more touchdowns. Ben Mason earned a one-yard score and freshman Joe Milton scampered into the end zone from four yards out for his first collegiate touchdown.

Using a steady diet of wide receiver crossing and running back wheel routes, Haskins completed 20-of-31 passes for 396 yards and six touchdowns to lead the Buckeyes offensively. Campbell had six receptions for 192 yards while Weber added 96 yards on 13 carries.

Patterson carried the load offensively, completing 20-of-34 passes for 187 yards and three touchdowns before leaving the game with a lower body in the fourth. Donovan Peoples-Jones led the receiving corps with seven catches for 64 yards. Collins had a big day with four catches for 91 yards and two scores.

Ohio State struck first in the opening quarter. After forcing a three-and-out, OSU marched 57 yards on just six plays, relying heavily on wide receiver crossing routes with Haskins finding Chris Olave for a 24-yard scoring pass with 11:29 to play in the first.

Michigan used a pair of methodical drives to edge to within 7-6 following field goals of 39 and 31 yards, respectively, from Jake Moody.

Michigan controlled the ball for 12:13 of the opening quarter but OSU responded with its own sustained drive, taking a 14-6 lead on a 24-yard TD pass from Haskins to Chris Olave with 9:08 to play.

OSU got a key defensive stop of its own and then scored again to take a 21-6 lead on a 31-yard hookup from Haskins to Johnnie Dixon. The 79-yard drive was enabled thanks to a huge pass interference call against U-M on a third-and-17 play early in the series. With its back against the wall, Michigan responded.

With 47 seconds remaining in the half, Collins pulled down a big-time back-shoulder pass from Patterson from OSU's 23-yard line to keep Michigan within shouting distance at 21-13. Momentum then came crashing Michigan's way as OSU's Demario McCall fumbled the kickoff at the one-yard line and Nate Schoenle pounced on it, giving U-M possession at the nine-yard line. One play later, Patterson eased a wheel route pass to Chris Evans out of the backfield for an easy touchdown to make it 21-19.

U-M's two-point attempt was no good and, with just 41 seconds left in the half, OSU again answered, driving the length of the field before settling for a 19-yard field goal to make it a 24-19 game at the break.

What You Need to Know
» Florida earned its first victory against Michigan (1-4)
» Florida scored touchdowns on three of four drives spanning the second and third quarters to turn a 10-6 deficit into a 27-10 lead
» Josh Ross led the U-M defense with 10 tackles

ATLANTA, Georgia -- The No. 10-ranked Florida Gators ran for 257 yards to spoil No. 7-ranked Michigan's first-ever Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl game in a 41-15 final from Atlanta, Ga. It marked Florida's first victory against the Wolverines in five tries.

Trailing 10-6, Florida scored touchdowns on three of four possessions spanning the second and third quarters to claim a 27-10 lead.

Florida averaged 6.4 yards per carry with a trio of runners logging more than 50 yards apiece.

Florida got on the board on its second drive of the game, utilizing a variety of quick pass completions to get inside the five-yard line before stalling and settling for a 21-yard field goal from Evan McPherson. Michigan quickly answered.

The Wolverines drove 75 yards on nine plays to claim a 7-3 lead on a nine-yard strike from Shea Patterson to Donovan Peoples-Jones with 2:03 left in the first quarter. The drive was led by a of impressive first down receptions from Nico Collins, including a 41-yard gain to Florida's 21 yard line.

Florida edged closer with another field goal (26 yards) at the start of the second quarter as Michigan once again held off the Gators deep in its defensive territory.

Michigan's J'Marick Woods then blocked a Tommy Townsend punt and Jordan Glasgow recovered the ball on UF's 30-yard line, leading to a Jake Moody 48-yard field goal and a 10-6 lead with 5:56 left in the half.

Florida answered and reclaimed a 13-10 lead thanks to the running ability of QB Felipe Franks. Franks led the Gators on an eight-play, 75-yard drive, finishing with a 20-yard TD QB keeper up the middle for a margin they would take into halftime after Michigan missed a 52-yard field goal at the end of the half.

Franks accumulated 70 rushing yards on nine carries in the opening half, many of them on designed QB runs, to go with 7-of-13 passing for 100 yards.

In the second half, Florida scored on two of its three possessions; first the Gators used a timely fourth down conversion before scoring on a five-yard slant. Following a three-and-out for U-M, Florida again drove deep into Wolverine's territory to set up a one-yard option touchdown run from Jordan Scarlett and a 27-10 lead with 2:34 remaining.

On its next drive, Michigan got back on the board with a 26-yard field goal from Moody with 12:16 left to play. The field goal came after a Tarik Black touchdown catch was overruled on review, the second Michigan TD to get taken off the board on the day.

Florida delivered a dagger, however, on a third-and-20 when Lamical Perine broke through for a 53-yard touchdown for a 34-13 lead with 9:21 remaining.

Khaleke Hudson earned Michigan's second blocked punt late in the game with the ball rolling out of the back of the end zone for a safety and a 34-15 score. U-M got the ball back but a deflected pass was returned for a touchdown by Chauncy Gardner-Johnson to cap the scoring.

Patterson completed 22 of 36 passes for 236 yards while Peoples-Jones and Collins led the receivers with eight and five catches, respectively.

THE HEISMAN TROPHY

The John W. Heisman Trophy has been given to college football's most outstanding player each season since 1935 by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York. The trophy, first known as the D.A.C. trophy was renamed in 1936 for Heisman, the first athletic director for the Downtown Athletic Club. Heisman played football at Penn and Brown and coached for 36 years.

Three Michigan players -- TOM HARMON (1940), DESMOND HOWARD (1991) and CHARLES WOODSON (1997) -- have won the award. Wolverines have placed in the top 12 of the Heisman voting in 25 of the 84 years the trophy has been presented. Two Wolverines (Harmon in 1939, Bob Chappuis in 1947) have finished second in the voting, while three (Rob Lytle in 1976, Rick Leach in 1978, Jim Harbaugh in 1986) have finished third. Three others (Bob Timberlake in 1964, Anthony Carter in 1982, Chris Perry in 2003) have placed fourth. Carter placed among the top 10 in his sophomore, junior and senior seasons, while Harmon, Ron Kramer (1955, '56) and Leach (1977, '78) placed in the top 10 twice in their U-M careers.

DR. ARTHUR D. ROBINSON SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The death of Dr. Arthur D. Robinson in 1966 stirred his many friends to contribute to a fund which annually rewards the leading senior-scholar on the University of Michigan football team.

Dr. Robinson served the U of M Club of Greater Detroit and his beloved University in just about every capacity imaginable. He was especially interested in "The Club's" scholarship program.

Between 1947 and 1966, the leading athlete-scholar on the Michigan team was given the George Cornell "Bubbles" Patterson Award.

ROBERT P. UFER BEQUEST

This award is presented on behalf of Bob Ufer, the Voice of "Meechigan" football for 37 years. In a U-M career that spanned five decades, Bob broadcast 362 straight games.

During his college career, Bob set eight Michigan track records, including a world record quarter-mile. Bob was also famous for his annual OSU-Michigan pep rallies at the Mud Bowl and was the keynote speaker for President Ford's presidential kickoff rally in 1976.

In fond memory of Bob, this scholarship is awarded to the senior football player who demonstrates the most enthusiasm and love for U-M.

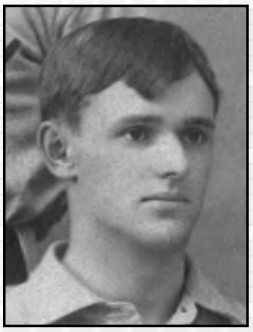
HEAD COACHES' BIOS



MIKE MURPHY and FRANK CRAWFORD

4-5-0 overall

In 1891, Murphy and Crawford became the first official football coaches in the history of the University. Prior to their appointment, the Michigan football program operated for 11 seasons without a coach. An experienced and popular trainer for the Detroit Athletic Club, Murphy was named the actual head coach of the 1891 team. However, midway through the season, Crawford was established as co-coach, doing most of the coaching while Murphy settled into the more appropriate role as the squad's trainer. A graduate student from Yale, Crawford learned football while attending school in the East. Crawford's efforts in contacting other institutions about the possibilities of competing on the gridiron led to the first advance schedule in Michigan history. Prior to this, the school's games were somewhat sudden and occurred with little or no planning.

After his stint at Michigan, Crawford went on to coach the University of Nebraska to a 9-4-1 overall record in 1893 and 1894, and led the University of Texas to a perfect 5-0 record in 1895.

FRANK E. BARBOUR

14-8-0 overall

Michigan's second head coach was an 1892 graduate of Yale University, the national champions during the 1891 season. During his two seasons at the helm, he led Michigan on a then-ambitious 12 and 10 game schedule. Ward's teams scored over 60 points four times and shutout the opponent on eight occasions, including five times during the 1893 season.

WILLIAM L. MCCAULEY

17-2-1 overall

Attending the University as a medical student, McCauley was named Michigan's third head coach prior to the 1894 season. In contrast to today's modern football players, McCauley's first club weighed an average of 170 pounds. In his two seasons at the helm, the Wolverines only lost two contests, falling to eastern powers Cornell and Harvard. Michigan's 12-4 victory over Cornell in 1894 marked the first time in collegiate football history that a western school defeated an established power from the east.

Before coming to Ann Arbor to continue his medical studies, McCauley graduated from Princeton in 1894 and played tackle on the Tigers' championship football team. Before his departure in November of 1896, McCauley assisted William Ward in coaching the 1896 team.

9-1 Overall

Ward led Michigan into its first season in conference play, and the Wolverines emerged with a successful 2-1 record in the league. Like his predecessor, Ward had also graduated from Princeton and came out to Michigan after receiving his diploma in 1895. During the season, Ward's team only allowed 11 points and dropped only a 7-6 game to Chicago in the season finale in the Chicago Coliseum.

GUSTAVE H. FERBERT

24-3-1 overall

Due to a move by the student-alumni advisory board (of which he was a member) to have only former students as coaches of the football team, Ferbert replaced William Ward in 1897. Ferbert was an 1897 Michigan graduate and would lead the team to its first Big Ten title in 1898.

LANGDON "BIFF" LEA

7-2-1 overall

A Princeton graduate, Lea coached a successful season at Michigan in 1900, and then returned to assist his alma mater. Lea established a set of strict rules for his team at Michigan, which he posted on the wall of the gymnasium before tryouts. One such stipulation was, "The word 'can't' is not in the football vocabulary. Any man feeling that way about any part of the game in detail is not wanted on the field and will please stay away. Only those wanted who say 'I will' with teeth together and who never stop fighting. Otherwise they go off the field."

Lea was also head coach at Princeton from 1938-42. He later went to Maine and served as head of the AFCA in 1947.

FIELDING H. YOST

1901-23, 1925-'26
165-29-10 overall

In his 25 years as head coach of the Wolverines, Yost's accomplishments rank among the most legendary in collegiate football history. Beginning with his inaugural club of 1901, Yost led the Michigan football program on an unprecedented victory run over a five-year period. Known as the "Point-a-Minute" teams, those Yost-led squads played 56 consecutive games without a loss from 1901-05, including winning streaks of 29 and 26 games, which remain today as the longest in school history. In those five seasons, the Wolverines outscored their opponents 2,821 to 42—an average Michigan victory of 50-1. In his first season of 1901, Yost led the Wolverines to a perfect 10-0 record, a Big Ten Championship, a 49-0 victory over Stanford in the first Rose Bowl game and the school's first national championship. The Wolverines went on to win the national title again in 1902, 1903 and 1904. Under Yost, the Maize and Blue won 10 Big Ten championships and 20 of his players earned All-America recognition.

Along with his accomplishments as the head football coach, Yost served as Michigan's Director of Athletics from 1921-41. For his leadership of the athletic department, Yost is viewed by many as the consummate pioneer and visionary of the field. As athletic director, Yost continued Michigan's tradition of accepting only the highest personal, academic and athletic standards, while spreading that ideal to the facilities that support Michigan's athletic pursuits. Yost conceived and engineered today's modern athletic campus in Ann Arbor. Among the projects constructed under Yost's direction were Michigan Stadium, the university's 18-hole golf course, the nation's first Intramural Sports Building and the nation's first multi-purpose field house, now known as Yost Ice Arena.

Yost received a law degree from the University of West Virginia, yet also attended school at Ohio Northern University and Lafayette. He began his coaching career at Ohio Wesleyan University and led them to the school's only victory over Ohio State. After leaving Ohio Wesleyan, Yost held brief coaching positions at the University of Kansas and the University of Nebraska. In 1900, he continued his move to the west coast and took over as the head coach at Stanford University, where he remained for a year before Stanford enacted a rule allowing only graduates to coach its football teams.

6-2-0 overall

After serving primarily as Yost's top assistant for two seasons, Little was named head coach for the 1924 season. In his three years at Michigan, the Wolverine football program suffered only two losses. In the 1924 campaign, Little's defensive-minded clubs shut-out their opponents in five of the six victories. Upon his arrival in Ann Arbor, he helped restore Michigan's prominence on the gridiron after three straight finishes in the Big Ten's lower tier.

Little left Michigan following his lone season as head coach to accept the Athletic Director position at the University of Wisconsin. At the time of his appointment, Little was the youngest A.D. in the Big Ten Conference. He later served as Director of Athletics at Rutgers and as the Executive Secretary of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

Little graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1912 and began his successful coaching career at the University of Cincinnati in 1914-15. He then moved to Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where he guided the Redskins to their first conference title in 1916. Little served in World War I in 1917-18 before returning to Miami in 1920-22.

ELTON E. "TAD" WIEMAN

9-6-1 overall

Considered one of the top offensive line coaches in the nation, Wieman succeeded Fielding H. Yost as Michigan's head man in 1927. In Wieman's first four games, the Wolverines won by an amazing 89-0 margin. Upon being appointed head coach, Wieman incorporated many of his own techniques into a system he fundamentally held over from the Yost years.

Known for his quiet, yet strong demeanor, Wieman came to Ann Arbor from Los Angeles to join the Michigan football team in 1916. He starred at a variety of positions, particularly tackle and fullback, and received all-conference honors at each position. In addition to his accolades on the field, Wieman earned Phi Beta Kappa honors for his achievement in the classroom.

46-26-4 overall

In a four-year span between 1930 and 1933, Kipke's teams experienced unparalleled success by winning four Big Ten and two national titles (1932 and 1933). During this stretch, the Wolverines compiled an astounding 34-1-3 record. Kipke stands as one of only three Michigan coaches ever to direct teams to four consecutive conference championships along with Fielding Yost and Bo Schembechler.

In his playing days, Kipke distinguished himself as one of the nation's greatest kickers and was named an All-American halfback by the Walter Camp Foundation. He holds the honor of being Michigan's first nine-time letterman, participating in football, basketball and baseball.

Following his graduation in 1925, Kipke became assistant football and head baseball coach at the University of Missouri, but returned to Ann Arbor the next fall to fill similar positions at Michigan. In 1928 he was named the head coach at Michigan State College (currently Michigan State University) where he remained for one season. Kipke's Spartans lost a tough 3-0 contest to Michigan in his only season in East Lansing. Kipke took over the Wolverine program in 1929 after a 3-4-1 season at Michigan State.

HERBERT O. "FRITZ" CRISLER

71-16-3 overall

In the 10 seasons Crisler was coach, Michigan's fate on the football field was in good hands. Crisler's teams consistently excelled in conference play, finishing lower than second only twice. His style of coaching was offensive-oriented, using innovative formations to pile up yardage. In 1943, the Wolverines won their first Big Ten title in 10 years with an 8-1 record. His .805 winning percentage ranks him second in school history behind only Fielding Yost (minimum 50 games coached). He climaxed his career by directing Michigan to a 49-0 rout of Southern California in the 1948 Rose Bowl. At the culmination of the 1947 season, members of the Associated Press voted the Wolverines as the mythical national champions and Crisler the National Coach of the Year.

Crisler graduated as an honor student from the University of Chicago where he played football under legendary coach Amos Alonzo Stagg. He is one of two men in Chicago history ever to earn nine letters in three sports (football, basketball, baseball).

Upon receiving his diploma in 1922, Crisler became an assistant coach to Stagg, remaining there eight years. In 1930 Crisler was named the athletic director and head football coach at the University of Minnesota, where he remained for two seasons before accepting the head coaching position at Princeton University. In his six years at Princeton, the Tigers compiled a 35-9-1 record.

Perhaps Crisler's greatest contribution to the history of Wolverine football was the implementation of the Michigan winged helmet in 1938. Initially designed to aid quarterbacks in distinguishing receivers, the winged design has become a longstanding symbol of the University.

BENNIE G. OOSTERBAAN

63-33-4 overall

One of the greatest athletes ever to wear a Michigan uniform, Bennie Oosterbaan dedicated a great part of his life to the Michigan football program. After taking over as head coach in 1948, he guided the Wolverines to a 9-0 mark, the Big Ten title and the national championship. For his efforts in that first season, Oosterbaan was named National Coach of the Year. Oosterbaan utilized the traditional single-wing and T-formations on offense to capture the Big Ten title three times. His intelligent approach to the defensive side of the ball enabled the Wolverines to lead the league in total defense in five of his 11 seasons as head coach.

During his playing days, Oosterbaan became the first player in school history to earn All-America honors three times. He won nine varsity letters at Michigan in football, basketball and baseball—one of the few student-athletes ever to achieve this honor. Following his graduation in 1928, he turned down contracts from professional baseball and football organizations in order to join the Michigan coaching staff. Under Fritz Crisler, Oosterbaan tutored the Michigan backfield, ends, and eventually was promoted to first assistant.

CHALMERS W. "BUMP" ELLIOTT

51-42-2 overall

Named Michigan's 13th head coach in 1959, Elliott holds the rare distinction of both coaching and playing for Big Ten and Rose Bowl championship teams during his football career as a Wolverine. He directed the 1964 Michigan team to a 9-1 record and a Rose Bowl victory over Oregon State, 34-7. During Elliott's 10 seasons as head coach, Michigan produced five All-American performers: Bob Timberlake 1964; Bill Yearby 1964-'65; Jack Clancy 1966; Rick Volk 1966; and Ron Johnson 1968.

As an All-American player at Michigan, coach Fritz Crisler called Elliott the greatest right halfback he had ever seen. In the Wolverines' national championship season of 1947, Elliott was selected as the Big Ten Most Valuable Player. He began his coaching career at Oregon State in 1948, remaining there until he was named the offensive backfield coach at Iowa in 1952. While at Iowa, he helped the Hawkeyes to the Big Ten and Rose Bowl titles in 1956. Elliott returned to Ann Arbor in 1957 to coach the Maize and Blue backfield under coach Bennie Oosterbaan.

GLENN E. "BO" SCHEMBECHLER

194-48-5 overall

As the winningest head coach in Michigan football history, Bo Schembechler's teams won or tied for an impressive 13 Big Ten championships during his 21-year tenure. Under Schembechler's guidance, Michigan's 96-10-3 regular season record through the decade of the 1970s was the nation's best. He guided 17 teams to post-season bowl games (10 Rose Bowls) and another 17 to top 10 finishes in the final wire service polls (AP and/or UPI). In his 27 years of coaching, Schembechler's teams never had a losing season. Upon stepping down after the 1989 season, Bo retired as the winningest active coach in the nation (234-65-8) and fifth on the all-time list, only behind coaching legends Paul 'Bear' Bryant, Amos Alonzo Stagg, Glen 'Pop' Warner, and Woody Hayes. In addition to his coaching responsibilities, Schembechler served as Michigan's Director of Athletics between 1988-90.

After earning his diploma from Miami University (Ohio) in 1951, Schembechler received his master's degree from Ohio State in 1952 while serving as a graduate assistant coach. He continued his coaching career with brief stints as an assistant at Presbyterian College (1954), Bowling Green (1955) and Northwestern (1958) before spending five seasons as an assistant at Ohio State. In 1963, Schembechler was named head coach at Miami of Ohio, a position he held until taking over the Michigan program prior to the 1969 campaign.

44-13-3 overall

Moeller guided the Wolverines to four bowl victories in his five years, including a 1993 Rose Bowl triumph over Pac-10 champion Washington. Moeller's list of accolades include directing teams to three Big Ten championships, two outright Big Ten titles, five bowl appearances (1991 Gator, 1992 and 1993 Rose, 1994 Hall of Fame, and 1994 Holiday), and five straight finishes in the nation's top 20. Moeller's Wolverines set a Big Ten record by winning 19 consecutive conference games from 1990-92. By winning the Big Ten title in his first season as head coach, he joined Fielding Yost, Bennie Oosterbaan and Bo Schembechler as the only coaches to accomplish this feat in school history.

After graduating from Ohio State in 1963, Moeller began his coaching career at Bellefontaine High School in Ohio. He joined Schembechler's staff at Miami (Ohio) for the 1967 and 1968 seasons and made the move to Michigan with Bo in 1969. Moeller served as the defensive ends coach until being promoted to defensive coordinator in 1973. His Wolverine defensive units of 1974 and 1976 led the nation in scoring defense.

In 1976 Moeller took over as head coach at the University of Illinois, a position he would hold for three years before returning to Ann Arbor in 1980 as the Wolverines' quarterback coach. Moeller resumed duties as defensive coordinator from 1982-87. As his units did twice in the mid-1970s, the 1985 Michigan "D" led the nation in scoring defense. Before being named Michigan's head coach in 1990, Moeller served as the team's offensive coordinator for three seasons (1987-89).

LLOYD CARR

122-40 overall

Lloyd Carr completed his 13-year career as Michigan's head coach with a thrilling 41-35 victory over No. 9 Florida in the 2008 Capital One Bowl. Carr compiled a 122-40 overall record during his career and led the Wolverines to six 10-win seasons. He guided U-M to the 1997 national championship and five Big Ten Conference crowns.

Carr's 120 victories trail only Fielding H. Yost (165-29-10) and his mentor, Bo Schembechler (194-48-5), at Michigan. Carr was even more impressive in Big Ten play, compiling an 81-23 mark, and is the eighth coach in Big Ten history and third in Michigan history, joining Yost and Schembechler, to claim five or more Big Ten titles (1997, 1998, 2000, 2003, 2004). Carr's teams finished in the top three of the conference standings each of his final 11 seasons.

Carr was a member of the Wolverine football staff for 28 years. Prior to being elevated to the head coaching position, Carr said he thought he held the greatest assistant coaching job in the country, serving 15 years under Schembechler (1980-89) and Gary Moeller (1990-94). Carr joined Schembechler's staff in 1980 as defensive secondary coach, was the defensive coordinator for eight seasons, and then moved into the position of assistant head coach for five years before becoming head coach in 1995.

Carr guided the school to a bowl game in each of his 13 seasons, with 11 of those appearances coming on New Year's Day. He became the first Wolverine coach to win four straight bowl games, doing so with victories in the 2001 Citrus Bowl, 2000 Orange Bowl, 1999 Citrus Bowl and 1998 Rose Bowl games. Michigan was ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 for all but 14 of Carr's 162 career games, including 65 appearances in the Top 10.

Carr was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame on Dec. 6, 2011.

RICH RODRIGUEZ

15-22 overall

Rich Rodriguez brought his famous spread offense to Ann Arbor when he was named Michigan's 18th head coach on Dec. 17, 2007. He concluded his tenure with an overall record of 15-22 and an appearance in the 2011 Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla.

In three years, Rodriguez's players combined for two "Chicago Tribune" Big Ten MVP awards in 2009 co-recipient Brandon Graham and 2010 recipient Denard Robinson who was also named the 2010 Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year. Ten of his players were named to All-Big Ten teams. Additionally, 18 players combined for 27 Academic All-Big Ten honors during Rodriguez's tenure.

Rodriguez arrived at Michigan after spending seven years as head coach at West Virginia University, his alma mater, where he led the Mountaineers to a 60-26 record, four Big East titles and six consecutive bowl game bids. He was the 2003 and 2007 AFCA Region I Coach of the Year, sharing the award in 2007.

A member of West Virginia's 1981-84 teams, Rodriguez was a three-year letterwinner (1982-84) as a defensive back for Don Nehlen who served as an assistant coach at U-M for Bo Schembechler. Rodriguez earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and safety from West Virginia in 1986, and added a master's degree in physical education from Salem in 1987.

31-20 overall

Brady Hoke was named the 19th head coach in University of Michigan football history on Jan. 11, 2011. A former assistant coach at U-M (1995-2002), Hoke guided the Wolverines to a 31-20 record (15-9 Big Ten) in his four seasons as head coach. Hoke led the Wolverines to an 11-2 record (6-2 Big Ten) and Allstate Sugar Bowl victory in his first season at the helm, while U-M finished the 2012 season with an 8-5 (6-2 Big Ten) mark following a bid to the Outback Bowl and 7-6 record (3-5 Big Ten) in 2013 after an appearance in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

Hoke had previous head coaching stints at San Diego State from 2009-10, where he earned a 13-12 record, and his alma mater, Ball State, where he went 34-38 from 2003-08. Collectively, Hoke is 73-63 in 11 seasons as a head coach.

Hoke's first-season success in Ann Arbor was acknowledged across the country. He was named the Maxwell Football Club Collegiate Coach of the Year and was named a finalist for three other national Coach of the Year honors: Bear Bryant, Eddie Robinson and Liberty Mutual. The Big Ten Conference's coaches voted Hoke as the inaugural recipient of the Hayes-Schembechler Coach of the Year award, while the Big Ten media named him the Dave McClain Coach of the Year.

With four wins more than the 2010 squad (7-6), Hoke and the Wolverines tied Fielding Yost's 1901 team as the only two teams with a four-win improvement from the previous season. Yost's 1901 team went 11-0 following a 7-2-1 1900 season.

Only the legendary Yost precedes Hoke as a Michigan head coach to win 10 games in his first season. Hoke also became the fifth Big Ten coach to win at least 10 games in his first season as head coach, and became the third U-M coach to win his first six games (Fielding Yost-1901, Bennie Oosterbaan-1948). Nationally, Hoke became one of eight coaches to direct a team to a BCS bowl in his first season, while he became the third coach to direct a team to a BCS bowl victory in his first season.

In 2012, Hoke became the first Michigan head coach to go undefeated at home in his first two seasons since Fielding Yost in 1901-02. The Wolverines were a perfect 8-0 at Michigan Stadium in 2011 and 6-0 at the Big House in 2012.

38-14 overall

Jim Harbaugh was named the 20th coach in University of Michigan football history on Tuesday, Dec. 30, 2014. He became the sixth former Michigan football player to be named the leader of college football's winningest program.

Harbaugh came to Ann Arbor after an impressive four-year run in the National Football League with the San Francisco 49ers. He led the franchise to the NFC Championship Game in each of his first three seasons, winning the George Halas Trophy as NFC champions in 2012. Harbaugh tallied a 49-22-1 overall record that included a 5-3 mark in the postseason as 49ers head coach.

Prior to making the jump to the 49ers, Harbaugh established himself as a leader of young men at the college level. He turned around a Stanford program that went 1-11 prior to his arrival. The Cardinal improved each of his four seasons, culminating with a 12-1 campaign and FedEx Orange Bowl victory over Virginia Tech in 2010. Harbaugh finished his tenure at Stanford with a 29-21 overall record (.580) and 21-15 mark in Pac-10 Conference play.

In his first head coaching experience, Harbaugh led the University of San Diego to a 29-6 record during his three seasons directing the program (2004-06). In his first year, the Toreros posted a 7-4 record after winning their final five games of the season. The team proceeded to post 11-1 marks during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, claiming the Pioneer Football League championship each season.

Harbaugh played for five different organizations during his 15-year NFL career (1987-2001). He completed 2,305-of-3,918 passes for 26,288 yards and 129 touchdowns in 177 games. Harbaugh made 140 career starts.

As a collegiate player, Harbaugh was one of the most efficient passers in NCAA history. In 1985, he led the nation in pass efficiency and finished as the runner-up in 1986. His career pass efficiency rating was the NCAA's top mark for more than 12 years.

He is the son of Jack and Jackie Harbaugh. Jack was an assistant coach at Michigan from 1973-79.

A DIFFERENT GAME

The brand of football played in the game's infant years differed greatly from that played today. At the first Rose Bowl ...

- The playing field was 110 yards long.
- Touchdowns and field goals counted five points and conversions one point.
- The game was divided into two 35-minute halves, not quarters.
- A team had to advance five yards in three downs for a first down.
- Forward passes were not allowed.

YOST'S POINT-A-MINUTE TEAMS

From 1901-05, Michigan compiled a 56-game unbeaten streak, a string that still ranks second in the NCAA record books. During this stretch of 50 months when the Wolverines compiled a record of 55-0-1, Michigan outscored its opponents, 2,821-40, beating four teams by triple digit margins. Often forgotten is the fact that Michigan played excellent competition over those years. The winning percentage of its 56 opponents was a combined .695 when their games against U-M are excluded. Of the teams Michigan played from 1901-05, 44 of the 56 finished with winning records on the season, while six teams would have compiled undefeated seasons without the loss to the Wolverines.

CONSECUTIVE 100,000+ CROWDS

When Michigan defeated Indiana 55-7 on Oct. 25, 1975, not much note was taken of the attendance figure of 93,857. However, 43 years later this game against the Hoosiers is still noted as the last time that U-M failed to draw a crowd of 100,000 to a Wolverine home game. Three decades and 286 games have passed since the streak began, as the Wolverines drew a capacity crowd of 102,415 to the Nov. 8, 1975 game vs. Purdue.

Michigan's Big Ten Champions

With 42 Big Ten Conference titles to their credit under nine different head coaches, the Wolverines claim more league championships than any other school, and the most of any athletic team in the Big Ten. In fact, no other Big Ten football team can boast winning at least one Big Ten championship in every decade.

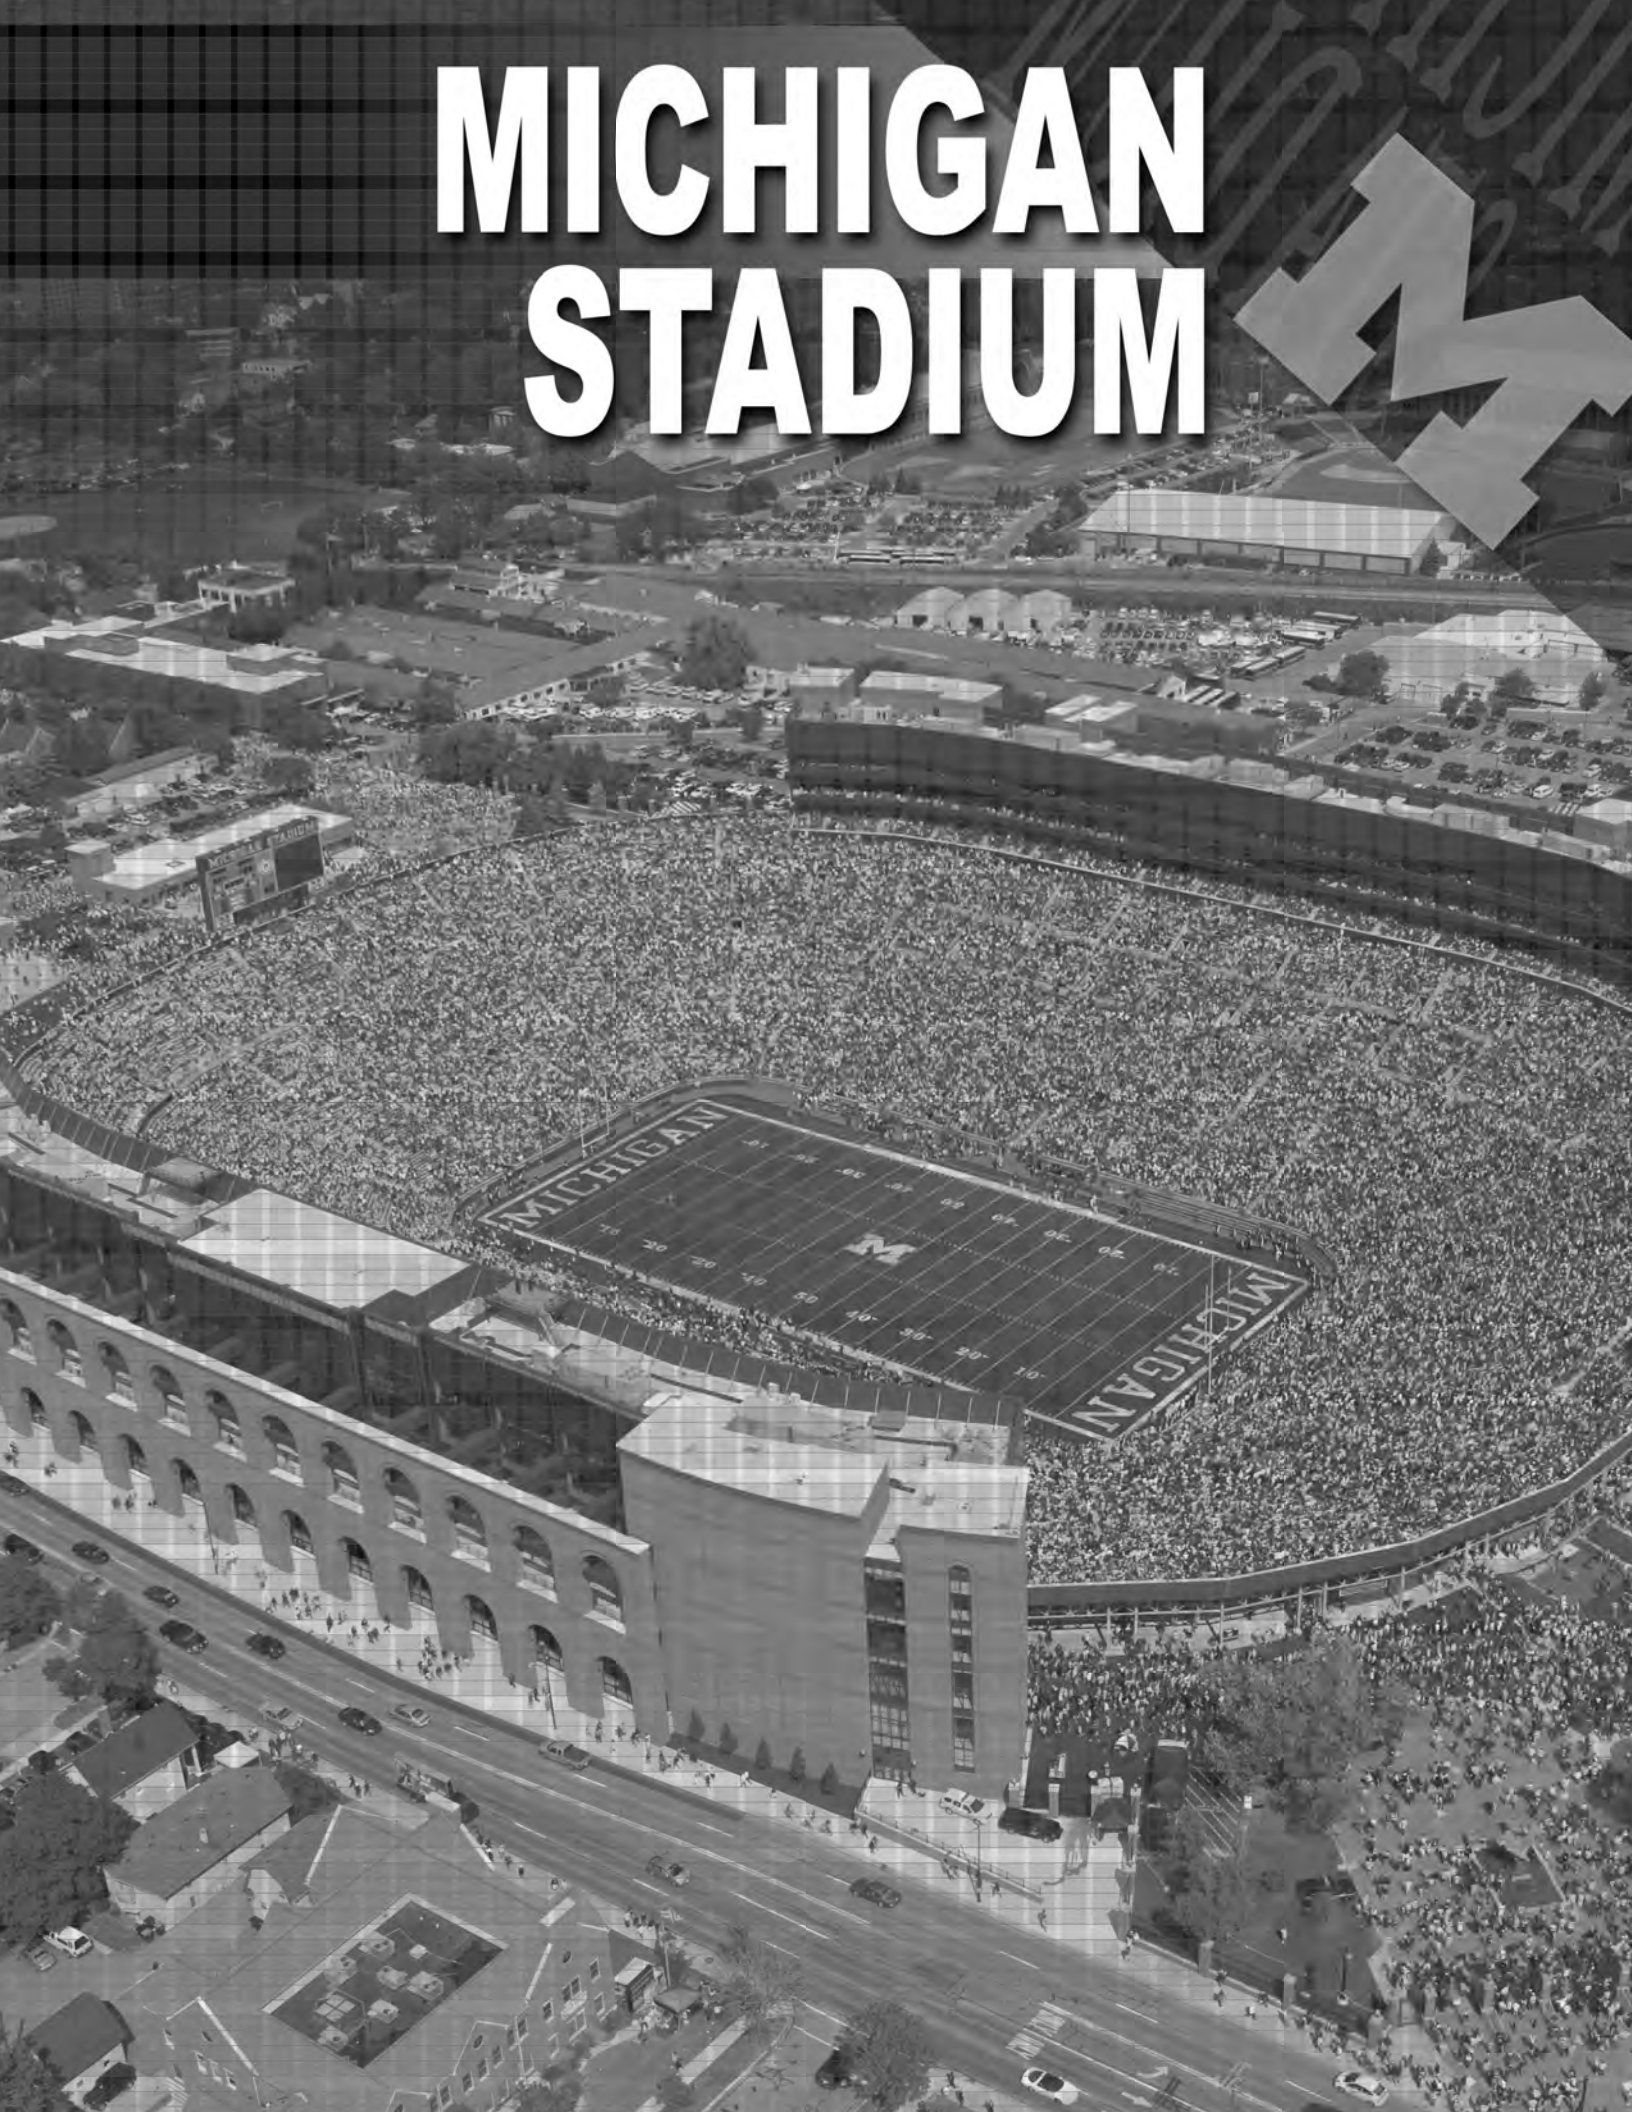
MICHIGAN STADIUM



MICHIGAN STADIUM HISTORY

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN FOOTBALL FIELD HISTORY

1883 / First home game played on May 12.

1890 / The Regents of the University of Michigan authorize $3,000 for the purchase of 10 acres of land for a football field.

1891 / The Regents approve $5,000 to "put the field in shape."

1893 / "The Athletic Field," later known as Regents Field, opens with a capacity of 400.

October 7 / Michigan defeats the Detroit Athletic Club, 6-0, in the opening game at Regents Field.

1895 / The original stands at Regents Field burn down.

1896 / The Regents order the construction of another covered stand in order to offer seating to 800 people.

1902 / Due to the donation of 21 acres by Detroit native Dexter Ferry, the Regents change the name of the complex to Ferry Field.

1906 / The home field of the Wolverines moves to a new site on the land that Dexter Ferry donated the year before. The new field - Ferry Field - is located where the outdoor track now stands.

1914 / Concrete stands are erected at Ferry Field, increasing capacity to 25,000.

1921 / The stands around Ferry Field are completed, increasing capacity to 40,000.

1925 / The land where Michigan Stadium now stands is purchased for $240,000. This land is located where a spring had been, a source that had served the University of Michigan's water needs in its earlier days.

1926 / The Athletic Association increases the capacity of Ferry Field by adding wooden structures to both ends.

The Board of Athletics offers bonds at a price of $500 each to pay for the construction of Michigan Stadium. The bond-holder was offered the REGENTS FIELD served as Michigan's first permanent home field. Originally accommodating just 400 fans, temporary bleachers were erected to seat up to 17,000. The Wolverines compiled an 87-2-3 record at Regents Field.

The first University of Michigan football game played on a home field occurred on May 12, 1883, when Michigan took on the Detroit Industrial Team in Ann Arbor. For the next 10 years, Michigan players would call two sites in Ann Arbor, as well as several fields in Detroit, home turf. The Wolverines fared well in Detroit, recording a 12-4-1 mark in games played there, but had an even better record in Ann Arbor, going 18-1 at the locations where Waterman Gym was later built and where Burns Park stands today.

Following a successful Michigan football season in 1890, the Michigan Board of Regents authorized $3,000 for the purchase of land so a permanent home football field for the Wolverines could be built. Twelve months later, the Regents voted to add $5,000 more to this allotment to improve drainage and put the field into shape. By the fall of 1893, this new facility was ready, and on Oct. 7th, Michigan played on a permanent home field site for the first time, defeating the Detroit Athletic Club, 6-0.

The new home of Michigan Football, named Regents Field, was located along South State Street, where Schembechler Hall stands today. Though Regents Field had a single wooden bleacher section that seated 400 people, many more would show up for the Michigan home games. The original seating area burned down in 1895. The following year, the Regents ordered construction of another covered stand. This stand doubled the seating capacity to 800 but still fell far short of demand. Often times, temporary seats were erected to accommodate the throngs of Wolverine faithful. Crowds of 5,000 were not uncommon in the early part of the 20th Century.

In 1902, Detroit native Dexter M. Ferry donated 21 acres of land to the University, stretching from South State Street to the railroad tracks. This donation united the land which now comprises the athletics campus of the University of Michigan. In honor of this gift, the University Regents renamed the entire complex as Ferry Field. Despite the name change, the stadium still only had room for a small number of fans. As Fielding Yost's "Point-A-Minute" teams continued to win games, Ann Arborites, Michiganders and people from around the nation came to see the "Champions of the West."

One fact that remains unknown about Michigan Stadium is the location of Fritz Crisler's seat - the single seat indicated at the end of the stadium's capacity. Despite this anonymity, the legacies of Crisler and Yost live on as Michigan continues to pack the stadium full of 100,000-plus fans, game after game.

Realizing the need to accommodate more people, the Regents approved the building of a new football field. The new complex was to continue under the name Ferry Field and would be located closer to campus at the site where the Michigan outdoor track now lies. But while the name stayed the same, much else about the new field was different. Unlike the old field, which was home to the football, baseball and track teams, the grass on Ferry Field was for football use only. Michigan had built separate practice fields so that use of Ferry Field could be restricted to game days only. In addition, Ferry Field had the capacity to seat 18,000 fans. To facilitate media coverage, Ferry Field included a press box on the Hoover Street side, where the Intramural Sports Building now stands.

After compiling a record of 87-2-3 at Regents Field, many wondered whether the new field could offer such great success. Michigan quickly answered that question in its new setting. On Oct. 6, 1906, Johnny Garrels scored the first touchdown en route to a 28-0 victory over Case.

As Michigan continued to win at home and fans lined up to pay $1 to see a Michigan home football game (conference rules required that students pay no more than 50 cents), Fielding Yost saw the need to increase the seating capacity of Ferry Field. In 1921, Yost's wish was granted as temporary wooden bleachers were added to both ends of the stadium to almost double capacity from 21,000 to 40,000. This substantial increase in stadium capacity was not enough and Yost soon asked the Regents for approval to build a new stadium.

The "Roaring '20s" were a great time for stadium building. In the previous five years, Michigan had already played in the dedication game of the home stadiums for Vanderbilt, Ohio State, Michigan State and Illinois. In addition, conference foes Minnesota, Northwestern and Purdue had each erected new facilities.

Fielding H. Yost envisioned a stadium that would seat between

MICHIGAN STADIUM HISTORY

100,000 and 150,000 people for each Michigan home game. Because of the recent expansion of Ferry Field, the Regents were reticent to approve Yost's request. Once word of Yost's idea reached the public, the debate raged in the Ann Arbor community. Some contended a new stadium with twice the capacity would create no serious evils and would provide greater convenience to the students, alumni and general public. However, others believed the new stadium would injure the University academically, socially and intellectually. Furthermore, it was stated that the large stadium would inevitably increase student attention to football in conversation, publications and in attendance at practice. The increased interest would become a detriment to the community as it would overshadow academic and scholastic honors. The building of a new stadium would be a permanent and undeniable concession - set in concrete for years to come - to the notion that "college is nothing more than a Roman holiday."

Through Yost's dogged perseverance, the Regents approved the new stadium on April 22, 1926. Although Yost originally wanted to build the new stadium where the Michigan Golf Course is now located, that plan was denied. Instead, this new structure was to be built on land the University had purchased in 1925, land that at one time had been home to a barn, a strawberry patch and an underground spring. This underground spring had been capable of delivering 300 gallons of water per minute, which had served the University's water needs in the early years. The water posed a problem to the construction, as the land had to be lowered to take care of a large underground lake. The underground lake also led to a surface which nearly resembled quicksand. It was this moist ground that during construction, engulfed a crane which, according to legend, remains under the stadium today. The high water table also led to nearly three-quarters of the stadium being built below ground level.

After much debate, the Regents, the University of Michigan and Fielding Yost reached an agreement by which the stadium would seat 72,000. However, Yost was able to influence the plans so the stadium could be expanded to seat more than 100,000. The construction would be financed not by the taxpayers of the State of Michigan, but by the sale of 3,000 $500 bonds. These bonds would entitle the bondholder to buy season tickets (guaranteed to be between the 30-yard lines) for every season from 1927 until the bonds would be retired in 1936 (due to the Great Depression, not a penny was paid on these bonds between 1931 and 1936, and they were not completely retired until October 15, 1947).

With Yost's successful promotion, the bonds sold and construction began. Fashioned after the Yale Bowl, 440 tons of reinforcing steel and 31,000 square feet of wire mesh went into the building of the 44-section, 72-row, 72,000-seat stadium at a cost of $950,000. The original seats consisted of 22 miles of California Redwood and the 360 x 160 foot grass playing field included the planting of one four leaf clover.

Despite the grandeur of the new home, doubt still existed, as it was written in an article on the last game at Ferry Field, "Ferry Field passed on as the home of Michigan Football Saturday to give place to a larger, possibly better field…" Again the question of home field success arose, as Michigan had gone 88-14-2 in games played on Ferry Field.

As the stadium neared completion, Yost requested an addition of 10,000 temporary seats for the concourse at the top of the stadium. These seats would be the right to purchase tickets from the 1927 through 1936 seasons, when the bonds were scheduled to be retired. The seats offered to these bondholders were guaranteed to be between the 30-yard lines.

1927 / Michigan Stadium is constructed at a cost of $950,000. It contains 70 rows and is designed to seat 72,000 fans. Capacity was increased to 84,401 with the addition of wooden bleachers.

October 1 / The first game in Michigan Stadium is played. The Wolverines defeat Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0.

October 22 / In the dedication game of Michigan Stadium, Michigan blanks Ohio State behind a then-record crowd of 84,401.

1928 Stadium capacity is increased to 85,753.

1930 / Michigan installs electronic scoreboards at both ends of the stadium, becoming the first stadium to use electronic scoreboards as official time.

1946 / Michigan breaks the half million mark in a season for the first time with 514,598 fans.

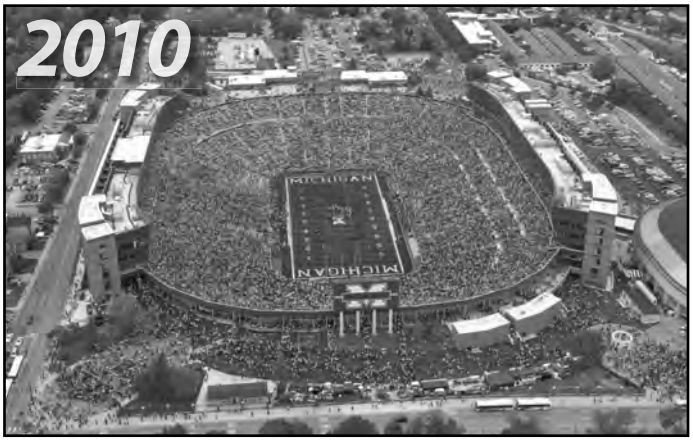
1949 / Permanent steel stands replace the wooden bleachers, raising capacity of Michigan Stadium to 97,239.

1949 / In the first year that NCAA attendance records are kept, Michigan leads the nation with an average of 93,894 for each of its six home games. Michigan's nearest competitor, Ohio State, averages 76,429.

1956 / The capacity of Michigan Stadium is increased once again, and the "Big House" now holds 101,001 people.

As Fielding Yost's "Point-A-Minute" teams gained fame and popularity, Michigan's regents approved a new football complex on the corner of State and Hoover. FERRY FIELD, completed in 1906, could seat 18,000 fans and offered a press box to facilitate growing media coverage.

MICHIGAN STADIUM HISTORY



A state-of-the-art press box is added at a cost of $700,000. Dedicated on Sept. 22, 1956, it includes a press area, photo deck and dark rooms.

October 6 / Michigan Stadium hosts over 100,000 people for the first time, as 101,001 see Michigan and Michigan State square off.

1968 August / The scoreboards at each end of the stadium are replaced at a cost of $75,000.

November 16 / Michigan crushes Wisconsin, 34-9, in the last Michigan Stadium game on grass for the next 22 seasons.

1969 June / Evidence that turf requires less maintenance than grass and could withstand any type of weather led the U-M Regents to approve installation of artificial turf. At a cost of $250,000, 88,285 feet of Tartan Turf is installed in July.

September 20 / The Wolverines break-in the newly installed Tartan Turf with a 42-14 defeat over Vanderbilt.

October 4 / The Wolverines lose at home to Missouri, 40-17. Michigan would not lose another game at home until Nov. 22, 1975, a streak of 41 games.

1972 / The University of Michigan leads the nation in attendance as 513,398 (85,566 average) fans watch Michigan go 6-0 at home.

1973 / Michigan Stadium capacity increases to 101,701. The box seats and railing are removed from the first few rows and replaced with bleachers.

1974 / Michigan leads the nation in attendance, as it has done every season since except 1997.

1975 The playing area is resurfaced with Tartan Turf.

November 8 / 102,415 fans are on hand as Michigan shuts out Purdue, 28-0. This begins a streak of consecutive crowds over 100,000 at Michigan Stadium that is still alive today.

1976 / Stadium seats are repainted and workers discover 19 new seats, 15 where the old box seats and rails were eliminated and four new ones above the tunnel. The painting of the seats is part of a $250,000 face-lift of the stadium.

1982 / The playing area is resurfaced, this time with All-Pro Turf.

November 17, 1990 / Michigan defeats Minnesota, 35-18, in its last Michigan Stadium game on artificial turf. From 1969, when the turf was installed, Michigan compiled a 119-18-3 record while playing on artificial turf in the stadium.

dium. This request was passed, and Michigan Stadium opened at the corner of Main Street and Stadium Boulevard with a capacity of 84,401 – the largest college owned stadium of any team in the nation.

On Oct. 1, 1927, Michigan played Ohio Wesleyan in the first game at Michigan Stadium. The game was a success as Michigan started the scoring on a 28-yard pass from Louis Gilbert to tight end Kip Taylor, and prevailed easily, 33-0. Dedication of the new stadium came three weeks later, Oct. 22, 1927, against Ohio State. The Buckeyes came into Michigan Stadium seeking revenge for a game five years earlier, when the Wolverines spoiled the dedication of Ohio Stadium with a 19-0 victory. However, Michigan was not to be denied on its big day, and the Wolverines blanked the Buckeyes 21-0 before a capacity crowd of 84,401. Before the 1927 season ended, Michigan shattered its own attendance mark again, drawing 84,423 to a game against Minnesota.

After a successful season in which the Wolverines drew nearly 300,000 fans, the capacity of Michigan Stadium was upped to 85,753 prior to the start of the 1928 season. In 1930, the University took advantage of new technology and installed electronic scoreboards at both ends of the stadium. In doing so, Michigan Stadium became the first to use electronic scoreboards for official game time.

With the end of World War II in 1945, Michigan Stadium was dedicated to all the men and women who gave their lives for the United States. In their honor, a bronze eagle was placed at the southwest entrance of the stadium where it remains today.

The Wolverines continued to draw crowds in the 80,000 range for 20 years, and in 1949, plans were drawn up to increase the size of the stadium. The most ambitious of the plans called for the addition of a top deck entirely around the stadium, increasing capacity to 125,300. Permanent steel stands around the stadium complex were finally settled upon, allowing for seating of 97,239 fans. Michigan also replaced the temporary wooden bleachers erected in 1927 with permanent steel ones. In its first game in the enlarged stadium, Michigan drew a then-record capacity crowd to the game against Michigan State. In the first season of official NCAA attendance records (1949), the final tally showed Michigan leading the nation in average home attendance with 93,894.

Seven years would pass before the capacity of Michigan Stadium was raised again with the building of the Michigan Sports Communications Center (press box). Built at a cost of $700,000, the structure provided a host of resources, including a press area, a photo deck, darkrooms and various other amenities. Dedicated on Sept. 22, 1956, the press box and the additional seating constructed along with it increased the capacity of Michigan Stadium to 101,001. This began a tradition of ending all Michigan Stadium capacity numbers with the digit "1", the extra seat being in honor of Fritz Crisler, the director of athletics at the time. On Oct. 6, 1956, Michigan Stadium hosted over 100,000 people for the first time as a capacity crowd saw Michigan State defeat Michigan, 9-0.

Though the Michigan football team suffered some lean years in the 1960s, the Ann Arbor faithful still packed the stadium to the point where between 1959 and 1971, Michigan finished no lower than fifth in the nation in average attendance.

During this period, major changes continued. In 1965, the benches were redone in blue fiberglass to prevent weathering and discoloration of the seats. It was then that the yellow "Block M" was created on the east bleachers of the stadium, a design done by former U-M player Dan Dworsky. In August of 1968, at a cost of $75,000, both scoreboards were replaced after 38 years of service. The new scoreboards added the number of time outs left for each team as well as the spot the ball was on, in addition to the features given on the old boards. These scoreboards, measuring 41 feet by 16 feet, were in use at the north and south ends of the stadium until 1998.

Based on evidence that artificial turf could withstand any type of weather and required less maintenance than grass, the Regents of the University of Michigan approved the installation of artificial turf at Michigan Stadium. In July 1969, a total of 88,285 feet of Tartan Turf were installed at a cost of $250,000. In its first game on the new surface, Michigan defeated Vanderbilt, 42-14. However, the Wolverines would drop their next home contest, 40-17 to Missouri on Oct. 4, 1969. After this defeat, Michigan would not lose at home again until Nov. 22, 1975 – a span of 41 games.

In the summer of 1973, renovations called for the removal of many of the rails in the stadium and replacement of the box seats in the first three rows with bleacher seats. This change allowed for 600 more seats in the stadium, raising capacity to 101,701. In 1974, Michigan led the nation in average attendance, as it has done every season since, except 1997.

Another game of note in the 1970s was U-M's shutout of Purdue on Nov. 8, 1975. That day, 102,415 fans witnessed the beginning of a streak in which Michigan has played every home game in front of more than 100,000 fans, a streak that continues into the 2016 season.

Michigan resurfaced the field with artificial turf in 1975 and 1982. When the time to do so arose again in 1990, a decision was made to return to a natural surface in time for the 1991 season. Michigan played its last home game on artificial surface against Minnesota on Nov. 17, 1990, winning, 35-18. The Wolverines' artificial turf home record was an impressive 119-18-3 over 22 seasons.

In May of 1991, 87,000 feet of prescription athletic turf were installed in a comprehensive renovation of Michigan Stadium. In addition to returning to natural grass, the field was lowered by three and a half feet to facilitate sightlines in the lower rows. The bill for these improvements came to $2.25 million. Included was the addition of two rows to the lower seating area of the stadium, raising capacity to 102,501.

As Michigan closed out the 1993 season against Ohio State, 106,867 fans filled the stadium, breaking both the Michigan Stadium and NCAA single-game attendance records. The number of people in Michigan Stadium exceeded the population of all but 185 cities in the United States and increased the Wolverine season tally to 739,560, a then-NCAA record.

The stadium continues to undergo changes. Prior to the 1996 season, the surface was torn up and the field crowned to allow for better drainage. Prior to Michigan's 1997 game against Ohio State, the University of Michigan Board of Regents approved the expansion of Michigan Stadium that added seats around the stadium and video scoreboards in each end zone.

During the 1997 national championship season, the schedule was highlighted by the 17th seven-game home slate in Michigan Football history. A single-game Michigan Stadium record crowd of 106,867 fans witnessed the Wolverines' 20-14 victory over Ohio State that clinched the Big Ten title and subsequent Rose Bowl berth. That game closed out a 7-0 home slate that saw Michigan draw another NCAA record of 745,139 fans (106,448 per game average.)

Michigan continued to rewrite the NCAA record books in 1998, setting single-game and season attendance marks. Construction was completed on the stadium prior to the season-opener that increased capacity to

Eight thousand square yards of sod were brought in for the playing surface which is lowered 3 1/2 feet to facilitate better sightlines for those seated in lower rows. NOTES ON THE BUILDING OF MICHIGAN STADIUM

- The number of tons of reinforcing steel used in the construction was estimated at 440 (880,000 pounds).
- The 31,000 square feet of wire mesh used in building the stadium could, at that time, imprison all the inmates of Sing Sing, and the federal prisons of Atlanta and Leavenworth.
- "Nature" Magazine estimated that it would take 14,000 woodchucks, working eight hour days, 11 1/2 months to move an amount of dirt equal to the 240,000 square yards that were excavated out of the Michigan Stadium site before the cement was poured.
- 45,000,000 words were typed before the stadium was even authorized, and 4,500 yards of type were devoted to the construction process. Of these 4,500 yards of type, 3,000 were made up of adjectives.
- It was estimated that there were 106,000,000 blades of grass making up the field at Michigan Stadium at the dedication game in 1927.

WOLVERINES IN THE DRAFT

With its outstanding football heritage, the University of Michigan has long been a source for the National Football League draft. Since the NFL's inaugural draft on Feb. 8, 1936, at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in Philadelphia, 389 Michigan football players have been selected.

Michigan has had 47 NFL first-round draft picks, beginning with former All-American Tom Harmon, who was the first overall selection in 1941 after winning the Heisman Trophy. Three Wolverines were chosen in the first round during the 1995 (Tyrone Wheatley, Ty Law and Trezelle Jenkins) and 2001 drafts (David Terrell, Steve Hutchinson and Jeff Backus).

The Rose Bowl

Each year, the Big Ten champion earns the right to represent the conference against the Pacific-12 champion in the oldest bowl game in college football, the Rose Bowl. The 2013 contest will mark the 99th Rose Bowl game. However, starting in 1998, due to the Bowl Championship Series, the Big Ten or Pac-12 representative may or may not be committed to the Rose Bowl if they are ranked either first or second nationally in the BCS Poll. The Big Ten and Pac-12 champions will meet if neither is playing for the national championship. In 2002, the Rose Bowl hosted the national title game featuring No. 1 Miami and No. 2 Nebraska, with the Hurricanes winning the national title. The 2006 game was also the national title game, with Texas upsetting the top-ranked USC Trojans for the national title.

The Rose Bowl game had featured Big Ten and Pac-12 teams since 1946, with the 55-year tradition being the longest of any conference bowl association.

The Rose Bowl arose out of quiet beginnings in Pasadena, Calif., a growing Southern California city of fewer than 5,000 people. Most of those who inhabited Pasadena at that time were transplants from the East and Midwest, where the winters were filled with cold temperatures and snow. In late 1889, one of the town's leading citizens proposed to a group of fellow Valley Hunt Club members that it would be nice to have a small parade and display of athletic competitions on New Year's Day. Remembering their times back East, the natives were anxious to show off the warm climate and draw tourists.

The original parade was a line of flower-adorned carriages, and the games consisted of foot races, a tug of war, jousts and a greased pig catching contest. The citizenry was pleased with the events, but the major problem of the next decade were a shortage of roses in 1892 and, a rule allowing women to wear split skirts (thereby allowing them to sit astride a horse when riding) in 1893.

By 1900, the Tournament of Roses committee began looking into securing a sports attraction that would grab national interest. In 1901, the suggestion was made to invite two college football teams to compete in the postseason celebration. Michigan, "The Champion of the West" at 10-0, was selected to take on Pacific champion Stanford. For Michigan coach Fielding Yost, it was a dose of revenge, as he had been ousted from the Stanford coaching ranks in 1900 by a new rule that allowed only Stanford graduates to coach the team. Yost's men blasted Stanford on Jan. 1, 1902, 49-0, in a game that was stopped with nine minutes remaining because of the immense score.

The University of Michigan has made 20 trips to Pasadena to play in the Rose Bowl, beginning with the first one in 1902.

Rose Bowl Stadium — Site of the "Granddaddy" of all bowl games. The University of Michigan and the University of Southern California played in the 75th Rose Bowl on Jan. 2, 1989.

The final score led tournament officials to discontinue the football portion of the Tournament of Roses after that game, and settled on various other events to entertain the crowd. Polo took the game's place in 1903, and after the committee's president read "Ben-Hur" was replaced by chariot racing in 1904. After a chariot accident the previous year, two new events were introduced in 1913. A race between a camel and elephant headlined the tournament, followed by an ostrich race. The ostrich race was discontinued after 1913 as one of the jockeys in the race was thrown from his mount, and in an effort to capture the stray bird, was kicked across the track.

In 1915, Tournament of Roses Committee President Lewis Turner stated, "We better go back to football so we can give newspapermen from coast to coast something to write about." Washington State defeated Brown, 14-0 on Jan. 1, 1916 and the game has been going strong ever since.

Until 1923, the Tournament of Roses Committee selected the two teams that would compete in the New Year's Day classic. From 1923-46, the West Coast representative was allowed to choose its Eastern opponent. The Big Ten sent a representative in 1921, when Ohio State lost to California, 28-0. However, following the season, the Big Ten established a ban on postseason football games — a rule that lasted 26 years.

The Big Ten lifted the post-season ban Sept. 1, 1946, and a five-year pact was signed between the Big Ten and Pac-12 allowing Illinois to play UCLA in the 1947 Rose Bowl. The agreement has been renewed several times since, including Big Ten decisions in 1951 and 1974 to allow a team to go to the Rose Bowl more than once every three years and two years, respectively.

The national and international awareness and attention given to the Rose Bowl is unequalled. Approximately 425 million television viewers worldwide watch the Rose Parade each year and more than 164 million people around the world view the game.

Michigan has participated in 20 Rose Bowl games and has won eight times, both numbers being the highest of any Big Ten school.

1902 Rose Bowl

vs. Stanford

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1902
Attendance: 8,000

Michigan	17	32	— 49
Stanford	0	0	— 0

A polo match as the sporting highlight of the Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena had been satisfactory, but something more dramatic was needed in 1902. "Why not a football game?" offered one member of the committee, and immediately Tournament President James Wagner started a series of correspondence with the "best team in the West"—Fielding H. Yost's Michigan team.

Michigan was invited to play on January 1, 1902, against Stanford, champion of the "Pacific Coast Universities." The Wolverines left Ann Arbor on Dec. 17 with temperatures below freezing and six inches of snow on the ground. Eight days later, Michigan arrived in Los Angeles and was greeted by 80-plus degrees and newspaper reports listing several reasons why Stanford should win.

New Year's morning found the Michigan team outfitted in new uniforms with colorful Michigan banners, riding a large carriage in the Rose Parade. Thousands jammed the parade route, and following the parade Pasadena experienced its largest traffic snarl ever as fans headed for the football grounds.

The city was a riot of color—mostly blue and gold, for by a strange coincidence, blue and gold were adopted as the year's official colors of the Tournament. The color combination so closely resembled Michigan's colors that some of the Stanford faithful, a bit miffed by what they thought was a show of support for their opponents, began to tear down the banners and streamers.

The crowd of 8,000 stormed Tournament Park, and the first 2,500 who arrived ran for the highest priced reserved seats. The rest, even those holding tickets to the reserved section, were forced to stand on the dusty sidelines throughout the contest.

The game opened with a blistering sun moving the temperatures into the mid-80's. The teams lined up at 2:57 p.m., and with Michigan defending the south goal, the Wolverines' Everett Sweeley kicked off to open the first bowl game.

Stanford appeared every bit as capable as the papers reported, turning back the powerful Michigan offense, time and again, early in the contest. In fact, the game's first score did not come until 23 minutes into the first half. After a series of short gains moved the ball to the Stanford 30, halfback Willie Heston broke loose on a naked bootleg and picked up 21 yards on the first "big" play in Rose Bowl history. Three plays later, fullback Neil Snow bulled through the tiring Stanford line from the six. Bruce Shorts added the PAT to give Michigan a 6-0 lead.

Soon after Sweeley booted a 20-yard field goal, Michigan's Chris Redden returned a weak Stanford punt 25 yards for a TD, giving the Wolverines a 17-0 halftime lead.

Under the sheer power of the Michigan 11, Stanford's valiant defense began to crumble in the second half. The Wolverines proved relentless, scoring on nearly every possession.

With eight minutes remaining in the game, Stanford captain Ralph Fisher approached the Wolverine bench and offered to concede; Michigan consented.

The 49-0 victory capped one of the most unbelievable seasons in college football history, Michigan had outscored its opponents, 550-0, winning 11 straight games. Willie Heston, too, made believers out of his West Coast critics. He gained 170 yards on 18 carries as the Wolverines recorded 527 yards on the ground.

The tournament association, though realizing a profit of $3,161.86, thought the wide difference in the score would make an annual game unappealing to spectators. The following year they replaced the football game with a chariot race, and it would be 14 years before the Rose Bowl would again feature a post-parade football game.

vs. Southern California

Attendance: 87,516

Led by All-Americans Bob Chappuis and Bump Elliott, Michigan led the nation in total offense (412.7 yards/game) and passing average (173.9 yards/game). Chappuis, runner-up in the Heisman Trophy balloting, was the Big Ten leader in total offense for the second straight year. Elliott, the team's only two-way player, was named Most Valuable Player for Michigan and the Big Ten after leading the league in scoring.

When the Wolverines arrived in Pasadena, they were 15-point favorites and Crisler felt it was necessary to call a team meeting to stifle overconfidence. Ten minutes into the game, on Michigan's second possession, Jack Weisenburger spun across the line from the one to cap an 11-play, 64-yard drive and initiate the day's scoring. In the second quarter, Weisenburger gained another one-yard touchdown, and Chappuis jump-passed to Elliott from the 11-yard line to give the Maize and Blue a 21-0 halftime lead.

In the second half, Weisenburger collected his third touchdown of the game and the Wolverines recorded three TD passes from three different passers, including tosses of 18 yards from Chappuis, 45 yards from Hank Fonde, and 29 yards from Howard Yerges as Michigan rolled to a 49-0 victory. The score stood as USC's largest margin of defeat until 1966. In the game, Michigan shattered nine Rose Bowl records and accumulated 491 yards to the Trojans' 133. Jim Brieske's record of seven PATs remains unbroken.

In a special Associated Press poll following the game, Michigan replaced Notre Dame as the 1947 National Champion by a 226-119 margin.

1951 Rose Bowl

vs. California

Pasadena, California

Attendance: 98,939

Michigan	0	0	0	14-14
California	0	6	0	0- 6

In 1950, the Wolverines struggled through the regular season, but won the final game at Ohio State to earn the right to travel to Pasadena. Michigan's 5-3-1 squad was slated to face the California Golden Bears, a 9-0-1 club rated fourth in the nation and making its third consecutive Rose Bowl appearance. The Bears were favored to win, and many of the 98,393 fans who filled the stadium had hopes of watching the Pacific Conference end its four-game losing streak.

On the second play of the game, California's Pete Schabarum ran around the left end 73 yards into the end zone, only to see it nullified on an illegal motion penalty. Cal pounded on the Michigan defense until early in the second quarter when QB Jim Marinos threw a 39-yard scoring strike to Bob Cummings. Les Richter missed the extra point, and California led 6-0. Late in the half, the Bears had moved to the Michigan 11-yard line and appeared ready to bring one more score into the locker-room, but the Wolverines had other plans, stopping Schabarum three yards short of the goal on fourth down.

At halftime, California held a 192-65 advantage in offensive yardage and a 10-2 edge in first downs, but the Wolverines instigated a new defensive formation during the intermission. Head coach Bennie Oosterbaan told his troops that "victory is still ours," renewing the team's faith in Michigan tradition and spirit, and the Wolverines returned to the field primed for victory.

Michigan was held scoreless until the fourth quarter when team MVP Don Dufek ran four identical plays starting from the four-yard line, finally scoring on fourth-and-one. The Wolverines extended their lead later in the quarter as Dufek again scored, this time from seven yards out. Michigan completely reversed Cal's first half domination by out-distancing the Bears 15-2 in first downs and 226-52 in total yardage during the half as the Wolverines won their third Rose Bowl in as many tries, 14-6.

After finishing no higher than fifth in the Big Ten during the previous seven years, all the pieces finally fell into place for the 1964 Wolverines. Air Force and Navy were forced to the air in the first two games, throwing a combined total of 75 passes. Michigan then ran off six victories in seven Big Ten games, dropping a one-point contest to Purdue, and shutting out Northwestern and Ohio State. The Wolverines' 8-1 record earned them the conference championship, and the team headed to Pasadena, breaking a drought of 14 years.

After USC upset top-ranked Notre Dame in the regular-season finale, it appeared that the Trojans would be Michigan's New Year's Day opponent. However, the Pac Eight Conference instead ruled in favor of the Oregon State Beavers, who had tied Southern Cal for the conference lead. The fourth-ranked Wolverines were installed as 11-point favorites over the eighth-ranked Beavers as Oregon State brought an 8-2 mark into the game.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Beavers broke open the scoring with a five-yard pass from Paul Brothers to Doug McDougal early in the second period. Steve Clark kicked the extra point for Oregon State's 7-0 start on its upset bid. Three possessions later, Wolverine tailback Mel Anthony broke free virtually untouched for 84 yards and the score. On the Wolverines' next possession, Carl Ward rambled 43 yards around the right end to put Michigan in the lead for good. Bob Timberlake's pass to Ben Farabee was broken up in the end zone, but the Wolverines still held a 12-7 advantage going into the locker room.

Anthony paced the third quarter attack after recovering a blocked Beaver punt, and extending the Wolverine lead with one- and seven-yard scores. Timberlake added a 24-yard TD run down the sideline in the fourth quarter to close the scoring and give Michigan a 34-7 triumph.

Anthony earned Player of the Game kudos for his efforts, and the Wolverines raised their postseason record to four victories against no losses.

1970 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

January 1, 1970

Michigan	0	3	0	0- 3
USC	3	0	7	0-10

In Bo Schembechler's debut at Michigan Stadium, the Wolverines outrushed Vanderbilt 367-55 en route to a 42-14 triumph, beginning a new era in Michigan football. Heading into the season's final game, the 7-2 Wolverines were slated to meet the top-ranked and undefeated Ohio State Buckeyes. Michigan responded by pounding out 266 yards on the ground and 108 through the air, while intercepting six Buckeye passes before the largest crowd ever to see a college football game up to that date. It also snapped OSU's 22-game winning streak, and earned U-M the Big Ten's Rose Bowl berth.

Facing the Wolverines in Pasadena was the University of Southern California. The Trojans compiled a 9-0-1 record and were ranked fourth in the polls. USC, coached by John McKay, was led by Pac Eight rushing leader Clarence Davis. The 1970 game marked the fourth consecutive Rose Bowl appearance for the Trojans.

Fate was not with the Wolverines from the beginning of their California trip. While running in practice out on the coast, Glenn Doughty, Michigan's second-leading rusher, injured his knee and was forced to undergo surgery. Then, the night before the game, Schembechler suffered a heart attack which kept him off the sideline and in the hospital during the contest. Defensive coordinator Jim Young assumed the coaching responsibilities for the game, but the players were unable to shake off their discouragement by kickoff time.

Southern Cal opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 25-yard field goal by Ron Ayala. Michigan added a field goal of its own two possessions later as Tim Killian nailed one from 20 yards out, giving the teams a 3-3 deadlock at halftime.

On third down with six yards to go late in the third quarter, Trojan quarterback Jimmy Jones hit Bob Chandler 13 yards downfield. Chandler broke several Wolverine tackles, scampered another 20 yards, and gave USC its margin of victory. Michigan saw fourth quarter drives stall at the Trojan 13, nine, and finally the 38 as time ran out, and returned to Ann Arbor with its first post- season defeat ever.

1972 Rose Bowl

vs. Stanford

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1972
Attendance: 103,154

Michigan	0	3	0	9-12
Stanford	0	0	3	10-13

By 1971, Bo had the foundation in place for a Big Ten dynasty. After stopping the Buckeyes, 10-7, in the regular season finale Michigan completed its first undefeated and untied season since 1948 and prepared to meet Stanford in Pasadena.

Stanford entered the contest with an impressive 8-3 record despite the loss of Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett to graduation the previous spring. John Ralston's Indians thrived on the talents of quarterback Don Bunce and running back Jackie Brown.

Dana Coin made a 30-yard field goal in the second quarter to produce the only points scored by either team in the first half. When the gun sounded after 30 minutes, Michigan held a 3-0 edge as they left the soggy Rose Bowl turf for the locker room.

Stanford egressed from the locker room to start the third period and held the Wolverines inches short of the game's first touchdown with a dramatic goal line stand. The Indians gained control of the ball and marched down the field where soccer-style kicker Rod Garcia added a field goal of his own, this one from 42 yards away. Early in the fourth quarter, Michigan fullback Fritz Seyferth plunged across from the one-yard line, and the Wolverines regained the lead, 10-3.

Facing fourth down on its own 33-yard line, Stanford used a fake punt to spring Brown for a 31-yard gain. Several plays later, Brown again broke free, this time for 24 yards and the score that tied the contest at 10 apiece. Minutes later, when Coin's 42-yard field goal attempt fell short, Indian Jim Ferguson caught and intended to return the ball, but Ed Shuttlesworth dropped him in the end zone to give Michigan two points on the safety and a 12-10 advantage. Following a Michigan punt, the Indians took over on their 22-yard line, and Bunce proceeded to complete five of his next six passes to move his squad down the field. With 16 seconds remaining in the game, Ralston sent Garcia in for one final play. The kick sailed 31 yards straight over the crossbar, and Stanford claimed a narrow victory, 13-12, on the 70th anniversary of their stunning loss to U-M in the first Rose Bowl game.

1976 Orange Bowl

vs. Oklahoma

Miami, Florida
January 1, 1976
Attendance: 80,307

Michigan	0	0	0	6- 6
Oklahoma	0	7	0	7-14

Under pressure from the conference coaches, led by Michigan's Bo Schembechler, the Big Ten finally lifted its long-standing policy of limiting post-season games to only the Rose Bowl. As a consequence, once the Wolverines lost their only regular-season game to top-ranked Ohio State, Michigan accepted an invitation to meet the Oklahoma Sooners in Miami's Orange Bowl.

The fourth-ranked Wolverines left for Miami armed with Gordie Bell, who led the nation's second-leading rushing team with 121.4 yards per game, and under the guidance of freshman field general Rick Leach. Oklahoma came in as defending Associated Press National Champions despite making its first postseason appearance since 1972, due to two years of NCAA and Big Eight probation. The Sooners' 10-1 record placed them second in both wire service polls, and they marked Michigan's first experience against a wishbone offense since meeting UCLA three years earlier.

The first quarter was a defensive battle, with the Wolverines putting together the only substantial drive, starting at the Michigan five-yard line and stalling at the Oklahoma 38. Following Bob Wood's attempted 51-yard field goal, the Sooners opened the scoring with successive passes of 40 yards from Steve Davis to Tinker Owens and a 39-yard reverse by Billy Brooks for the score.

The Wolverines drove as far as the Oklahoma nine-yard line in the third quarter, before being thwarted by a pass interception in the end zone. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Davis ran 10 yards around the left end to increase the Sooner lead to 14-0. Michigan finally got on the scoreboard following an Oklahoma fumble on its own two. Bell carried it over on the next play, but Leach's two-point conversion attempt was stopped. The Wolverines were only able to make it as far as midfield for the duration of the game, and the Sooners went on to a 14-6 victory.

Oklahoma was led by the defensive efforts of Leroy and Dewey Selmon (10 and 13 tackles, respectively) and, following Ohio State's 23-10 loss in the Rose Bowl to UCLA, was named national champion in both polls. Leroy Selmon went on to become the first draft choice in the NFL college draft later that spring.

1977 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1977
Attendance: 106,182

Michigan	0	6	0	0- 6
USC	0	7	0	7-14

By defeating Ohio State, 22-0, in the regular season finale, Michigan posted its largest margin of victory in the series in 30 years and handed the Buckeyes their first shutout in 112 games, a streak that began in 1964. The Wolverines tied OSU for first-place in the Big Ten with a 10-1 record, and earned their first Rose Bowl berth since 1971. At season's end, Michigan led the nation in total offense (448.1 yards per game), scoring offense (38.7 points) and scoring defense (7.2 points).

In Pasadena, the third-ranked Wolverines were slated to face No. 2 Southern California, a team with equally impressive credentials. The Trojans were stocked with players such as quarterback Vince Evans, running backs Ricky Bell and Charles White, linebacker Clay Matthews, and were coached by John Robinson. USC promised to provide Michigan with quite a challenge on New Year's Day.

It took until midway through the second quarter for either team to put points on the scoreboard. The Wolverines scored first when Rob Lytle smashed over the goal line from one yard out. Bob Wood's extra point attempt was blocked, and Southern Cal used the momentum to march 80 yards on the following drive, tying the score with Evans rolling in on a fourth-and-one play with 1:28 left in the quarter. The conversion was good, and USC held a 7-6 advantage at the half.

The game returned to the defenses in the second half. The Wolverines tallied just four first downs, and the Trojans used a relentless ground game to grind their way deep into Michigan territory in the fourth quarter. White scored on a seven-yard run with three minutes to go, but the Wolverines made it close by charging back to the USC 17 before running out on downs in the closing seconds.

Bell, the top pick in the 1977 NFL draft, left the game early in the first quarter with a head injury and was replaced by the freshman White, who went on to win the Heisman Trophy three seasons later. The game also marked Lytle's last in a Wolverine uniform as he led all Michigan rushers with 67 yards to up his then school record to 3,317 yards. USC finished No. 2 in the final football polls behind the Pittsburgh Panthers. The Wolverines finished No. 3 in the rankings, their highest finish under Bo Schembechler to date.

1978 Rose Bowl

vs. Washington

Pasadena, California
January 2, 1978
Attendance: 105,312

Michigan	0	0	7	13-20
Washington	7	10	10	0-27

With a defense featuring Curtis Greer and Chris Godfrey on the line, Mel Owens at outside linebacker, and Dwight Hicks and Mike Harden in the backfield, the Wolverines held all but three of their opponents under 10 points during the 1977 season. Michigan had won 10 of 11 games and outscored its opposition by a three-to-one margin heading into the Rose Bowl to face the University of Washington Huskies.

Michigan failed to get out of the gate quickly enough and even a 20-point second half could not rescue the Wolverines. A first half low center snap resulted in a 13-yard loss on a fourth down punt and gave Washington field position early. Ten plays later, quarterback Warren Moon scored from two yards out. A field goal and Moon's second TD put the Huskies up 17-0 at halftime.

Moon's 28-yard scoring pass to Spider Gaines after Washington had stopped Michigan on the Husky three-yard line appeared to put the game away in the third quarter, but Wolverine quarterback Rick Leach launched one of the finest aerial assaults in the history of this classic contest. First, he fired a Rose Bowl record TD pass of 76 yards to Curt Stephenson. Washington countered with an 18-yard field goal, but Leach completed four straight passes, and Russell Davis scored from the two. Later in the fourth quarter, Leach fired first down passes of 11 and 12 yards to Ralph Clayton, then connected with Stanley Edwards, filling in for the injured Harlan Huckleby, for 32 yards and a TD.

Leach led another dramatic drive to the Washington eight-yard line, but a diving interception by linebacker Michael Jackson stopped Michigan and preserved the 27-20 Washington win.

1979 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California

Michigan	0	3	7	0-10
USC	7	10	0	0-17

After shutting out the Fighting Illini of Illinois in the season opener, the Wolverines won nine of their next 10 games, including their third straight victory over Ohio State, and qualified for their third Rose Bowl in as many years.

Michigan played one of its finest defensive games in years, but a combination of circumstances and a relentless Southern California ground attack lifted the Trojans to a 17-10 victory in the 65th annual Rose Bowl Classic in Pasadena. An intercepted pass returned to the Wolverine 16-yard line set up USC's first touchdown of the game, a Paul McDonald to Hoby Brenner pass covering nine yards.

Michigan later drove to the Trojan 21-yard line, but a dropped pass stalled the Wolverines' progress, and allowed Gregg Willner to put the first "Big Blue" points on the board with a 36-yard field goal in the second quarter. USC extended its lead moments later on one of the more controversial calls in Rose Bowl history. On second down at the Michigan three-yard line, Trojan tailback Charles White dove through the heart of the offensive line in an attempt to score. During the ensuing contact, White lost the ball and Wolverine linebacker Jerry Meter came up with an apparent fumble recovery on the one-yard line. However, the line judge determined that White had crossed the goal line before losing control of the ball and signalled for the touchdown that put USC up by 11. Late in the half, the Trojans intercepted a Rick Leach pass and set up a Frank Jordan field goal from 35 yards away to increase their lead to 17-3 at halftime.

It didn't take long after leaving the locker room for the Wolverines to narrow the score. Midway through the third period, Leach tossed a 44-yard scoring strike to tailback Roosevelt Smith to close within seven points. Michigan held the strong USC offense scoreless for the remainder of the game, but was unable to put more points on the board as the score stayed unchanged for the duration. Playing in his third straight Rose Bowl, Leach set career records for total plays (94), total yards running and passing (523), and most yards passing (452) in the New Year's game. Leach shared Most Valuable Player honors with USC's White.

"Bo Schembechler is looking up into football's valhalla and saying, 'Thank you, Fielding Yost, thank you, Fielding Yost for that one'. . . They aren't even going to try the extra point. Who cares! Who gives a damn! I've never been so happy in all my cotton-pickin' 59 years." So said the Wolverines' all-time No. 1 cheerleader, Bob Ufer, describing the mayhem following "the greatest play in 100 years of Michigan football." Anthony Carter's dramatic, game-winning reception against Indiana was easily the season highlight of the 8-3 Wolverines as they headed to the Gator Bowl to oppose North Carolina's 7-3-1 Tar Heels.

Quarterback John Wangler opened the game with a 47-yard pass completion to Carter, but 20 yards in penalties took Michigan out of field goal range, giving the Wolverines a preview of events to come. Bryan Virgil booted a 20-yard field goal early in the second quarter and Wangler, hitting receivers at will, threw 53 yards to Carter for a 9-0 lead after Michigan missed the extra point. On the next series, Wangler was tackled by UNC linebacker Lawrence Taylor on a sprint out, suffering a severe knee injury, ending his playing time that night. Up to that point, he had accumulated 203 yards through the air. North Carolina finally scored on a one-yard plunge by Doug Paschal late in the quarter, and trailed 9-7 at the half.

Midway through the third quarter, the Tarheels took control of the game, driving 97 yards in 15 plays behind the running of Amos Lawrence, and scoring on a 12-yard pass from Matt Kupec to Phil Farris. North Carolina added a field goal with 7:31 remaining in the game to move ahead 17-9. However, the Wolverines never gave up, and with 1:28 to go, backup quarterback B.J. Dickey, Wangler's replacement, connected with A.C. on a 30-yard bomb to bring the game to within two. In an attempt to tie, Dickey's pass to Carter in the endzone failed, and Michigan fell short. Hindering the Wolverines throughout the game were two lost fumbles, two pass interceptions, the loss of Wangler and 87 yards in penalties.

1981 Rose Bowl

vs. Washington

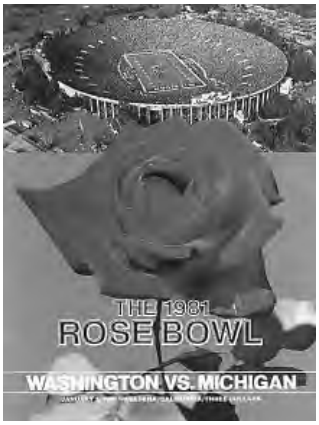
Michigan	0	7	10	6-23
Washington	0	6	0	0- 6



The Wolverines may have started slowly in 1980, but by October, nobody was able to stop them. Beginning with the Illinois game on October 25, Michigan put together a streak of 15 consecutive scoreless quarters, shutout Indiana, Wisconsin, and Purdue, won the Big Ten title outright for the first time since 1971, and took a string of 18 straight quarters without allowing a touchdown into the Rose Bowl to face the Washington Huskies.

The Huskies compiled more total yards against the Michigan defense, 374, than any team had all season, but the Wolverines continued their consecutive no-touchdown string, and Bo Schembechler won his first Rose Bowl in six tries.

Washington dominated the game early, and on its second drive, the Huskies reached the Michigan one-yard line. But the Wolverines then stonewalled tailback Toussiant Tyler on fourth down and took the momentum from Washington. Butch Woolfolk put Michigan in the lead with a six-yard TD burst near halftime, and despite Chuck Nelson's two field goals, the Wolverines remained in command the rest of the way.

Ali Haji-Sheikh's 25-yard field goal capped a six-minute, 83-yard drive to open the second half. John Wangler connected with Anthony Carter for a seven-yard score, widening the Michigan margin to 17-6 with three minutes remaining in the third quarter. From there, the Wolverine defense took over with Keith Bostic forcing an interception and limiting the Huskies to 23 yards in total offense until the game's final minutes. Michigan clinched the victory on Stan Edwards' one-yard TD dive with four minutes remaining in the game to provide the final margin.

Butch Woolfolk's 182 yards rushing earned him game MVP honors, while Don Bracken's 73-yard punt in the first quarter set a Rose Bowl record. The season that had looked so bleak after a 1-2 beginning thus concluded with nine straight 'M' wins.

1981 Bluebonnet Bowl

vs. UCLA

Houston, Texas
December 31, 1981
Attendance: 50,107

Michigan	10	0	3	20-33
UCLA	0	0	7	7-14

In the game billed as a "mini-Rose Bowl," the 8-3 Wolverines came out smelling sweet on New Year's eve. Michigan's defense limited the powerful UCLA attack to 195 total yards and held the Bruins to just 33 yards on the ground. The Wolverines led the entire game, beginning with Ali Haji-Sheikh's 24-yard field goal, set up by Butch Woolfolk's 52-yard run. With one minute remaining in the first quarter, quarterback Steve Smith spotted Anthony Carter behind the Bruin secondary, for a 50-yard scoring bomb that upped the lead to 10-0. Michigan dominated the rest of the half, yielding only 58 total yards to UCLA. But 12 penalties kept the Maize and Blue off the scoreboard the rest of the half.

The Bruins narrowed the gap to 10-7, scoring on their first possession of the third quarter, but the Wolverines responded immediately, marching 52-yards before Haji-Sheikh kicked a 47-yard field goal, the longest of his career. UCLA again drove into Michigan territory, but two penalties and Winfred Carraway's sack of Bruin quarterback Tom Ramsey ended the march, and the Pacific-10 runners-up never again had a chance to take the lead. The Wolverines moved 74 yards ending in Woolfolk's one-yard TD run. After UCLA cut the lead to 19-14, Michigan drove 80 yards in seven plays with Smith scoring from nine yards out on the option play to clinch the victory. Reserve quarterback B.J. Dickey's touchdown run in the final minute iced the triumph.

Woolfolk closed his brilliant career at Michigan by gaining 186 yards rushing, bringing his four-year total to 3,861 and earning game MVP honors. Smith's 152 passing yards gave him Michigan's single-season record with 1,661 yards, and added to his total offense mark. Anthony Carter grabbed six receptions for 127 yards, and the Wolverines left Houston looking forward to the New Year.

1983 Rose Bowl

vs. UCLA

Michigan	0	0	7	7-14
UCLA	7	3	7	7-24

Michigan dominated the Big Ten in 1982, rolling through its conference schedule and winning the title outright in the second-to-last-game against Purdue. Even a loss to Ohio State in the regular season finale could not take the roses from the Wolverines as they prepared to face the UCLA Bruins in Pasadena. The game featured a rematch of the previous season's Bluebonnet Bowl participants, and gave the Maize and Blue an opportunity to avenge the 31-27 loss suffered at the hands of the Bruins earlier in the season. This contest, however, would be played in the Rose Bowl, a stadium UCLA had claimed as its home field for the 1982 regular season.

A one-yard plunge by Tom Ramsey on UCLA's second drive put the Bruins up 7-0 in the first quarter, a lead they never relinquished. In the second quarter, Wolverine quarterback Steve Smith ran an eight-yard option for a first down, but took a vicious hit from Bruin free safety Don Rogers. Smith left the game with a separated shoulder and did not return. Junior Dave Hall, with seven completions in 14 attempts for the season, finished the game in admirable fashion, but his inexperience hurt the Wolverines.

Late in the second quarter, kicker John Lee gave UCLA a 10-0 lead with a 39-yard field goal. However, the Wolverines stormed back after the intermission and drove 55 yards for a touchdown. Hall passed the final yard to fullback Eddie Garrett in the third quarter to bring U-M within three points at 10-7.

On the next drive the Bruins took control with Ramsey leading the way, passing for 33 yards and running for 20 in an 80-yard TD drive. With UCLA up 17-7 and nine minutes left to play, the Wolverines took over deep in their own territory. Here Hall showed his inexperience by lobbing a pass into the hands of Bruin Blanchard Montgomery. The 230-pound linebacker galloped 11 yards into the end zone to seal the Wolverines' fate.

After Hall passed to fullback Dan Rice for a one-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter, the score read 24-14 in UCLA's favor. Michigan could not muster another scoring drive, and UCLA took home the roses.

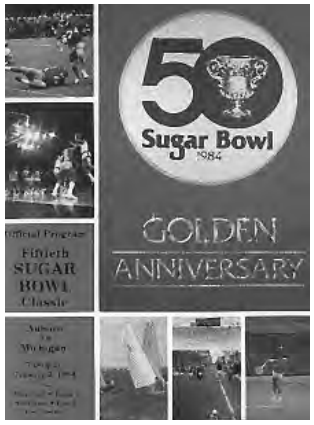
1984 Sugar Bowl

vs. Auburn

New Orleans, Louisiana
January 2, 1984
Attendance: 77,893

Michigan	7	0	0	0- 7
Auburn	0	0	3	6- 9



Buoyed by back-to-back shutouts of Michigan State and Northwestern and a last-second victory over Iowa, the 1983 Wolverines charged to a second-place finish in the Big Ten, suffering its only conference setback to the Illinois squad that went on to play in the Rose Bowl. By holding off a late Ohio State comeback bid in the season finale, the Wolverines raised their record to 9-2 and gained a trip to New Orleans to meet the Auburn Tigers in the Sugar Bowl.

Steve Smith led a powerful offensive attack early in the game during which Michigan held the ball for over nine minutes of the first quarter and gained 116 yards to the Tigers' 61. The Wolverines' second offensive drive in the game was highlighted by a 19-yard Smith to Triando Markray completion and 38 yards on four carries by Rick Rogers. Smith's four-yard keeper midway through the first quarter gave the Wolverines a lead they would keep for 52 minutes of the 60-minute contest.

Each team showed a strong defense for the remainder of the half, and Michigan took its 7-0 lead into the locker room.

Campbell attempted only two passes in the second half and handed off 42 times to backs Lionel James, Bo Jackson, and Tommy Agee, who together collected 306 yards on the ground.

While Michigan's offense was thwarted time and time again, the Tigers ran all over the tiring Wolverine defense, controlling the ball for over 23 minutes of the second half. After a 26-yard Don Bracken punt—one of a season-high eight punts—Auburn marched 68 yards, all on the ground, to set up a 31-yard Al DelGreco field goal.

The Tigers got a break when Smith was hit as he released the ball and Auburn's Gregg Carr grabbed it at the Michigan 41-yard line. Seven plays later, DelGreco chalked up his second three-pointer, a 32-yarder.

After another Michigan punt, Auburn took over on its own 39-yard line. The Tigers ran a ball control offense, using 15 rushing plays and 7:21 off the clock in reaching the Wolverines' one-yard line with 27 seconds to play in the game. Michigan called a timeout, but DelGreco booted the 19-yard field goal to send the Wolverines back to Ann Arbor with a taste of New Orleans but no sugar.

1984 Holiday Bowl

vs. Brigham Young

San Diego, California
December 21, 1984
Attendance: 61,243

Michigan	0	7	7	3-17
BYU	0	10	0	14-24

After upsetting top-ranked Miami in the season opener, Michigan's fortunes looked bright for 1984. But when quarterback Jim Harbaugh broke his arm against Michigan State, it took a great effort for the Wolverines to limp to a 6-5 record. Despite their less-than-spectacular season mark, Michigan found itself paired against No. 1-ranked Brigham Young in the Holiday Bowl. The Wolverines accepted the opportunity, and ended the season just how they had started—facing the nation's top-ranked team.

Aided by six Brigham Young turnovers and a blocked field goal attempt, Michigan held a 17-10 lead early in the fourth quarter. But BYU quarterback Robbie Bosco, hampered by an injured left knee and ankle suffered in the first stanza, led the Cougars to 80- and 83-yard TD drives to give BYU a 24-17 victory.

After a scoreless first quarter, BYU jumped on the scoreboard when Kelly Smith capped an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a five-yard TD run. The Wolverines knotted the score at seven after Rick Rogers scampered in from five yards out with 1:13 left in the half. But Bosco led BYU down the field in the last minute, and Lee Johnson booted a 31-yard field goal giving the Cougars a slim 10-7 halftime lead.

Michigan went ahead late in the third quarter, moving 47 yards after Tim Anderson blocked Johnson's field goal attempt and Chris Zurbrugg threw a 10-yard TD pass to Bob Perryman. Early in the fourth quarter, Bob Bergeron pushed the Michigan lead to 17-10 with a 32-yard field goal. Then Bosco went to work, driving BYU for two late TDs—the last coming with just 1:23 to play—and the win.

In collecting its 24th consecutive victory, BYU put together some impressive offensive figures (483 yards in total offense, 32 first downs) and went on to claim the national championship.

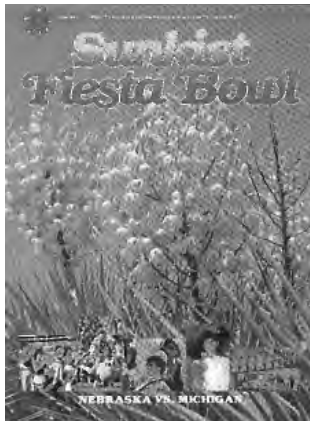
1986 Fiesta Bowl

vs. Nebraska

Tempe, Arizona
January 1, 1986
Attendance: 72,454

Michigan	3	0	24	0-27
Nebraska	0	14	0	9-23



The surprising 9-1-1 Wolverines — equipped with the nation's top scoring defense — found themselves matched against Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl.

After a 21-yard run by Jamie Morris set up a 42-yard field goal by Pat Moons to open the scoring, the Cornhuskers got rolling. Nebraska used 10 plays to move 74 yards for the touchdown that gave Nebraska a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter. McCathorn Clayton hit Doug DuBose in the endzone from five yards out for the score. The Cornhuskers added another tally when a 15-yard run by fullback Tom Rathman set up DuBose's second touchdown of the game, giving Nebraska a 14-3 halftime lead.

In the second half, an inspired Wolverine defense began forcing turnovers to help U-M climb back into contention. On its third play from scrimmage, Nebraska's DuBose fumbled, and Michigan's Jeff Akers recovered. A 19-yard run by Jamie Morris set up Gerald White's one-yard dive for a TD, pulling the Wolverines to within 14-10 early in the third quarter. Another fumble by Nebraska, this one by Clayton, was recovered by Michigan's Mark Messner on the next series, and White's 19-yard run set up a one-yard plunge by Harbaugh to give the Maize and Blue the lead at 17-14. The Wolverine defense forced Nebraska to punt on the next series, and Dave Arnold rushed in untouched to block his third punt of the season to set up a short Moons field goal. The Wolverines scored again on their next possession when a 14-yard run by Morris set up Harbaugh's second TD of the afternoon, giving Michigan a seemingly comfortable 27-14 lead.

The excitement was not quite finished, thanks to an elusive freshman quarterback for Nebraska. Steve Taylor moved the Cornhuskers 77 yards in four minutes to cut the Michigan lead to 27-21. With the Wolverines in a hole late in the game, Schembechler elected to take an intentional safety, and Nebraska was unable to mount a drive on its final possession.

The win gave Schembechler his third bowl victory in six years, and vaulted Michigan to the No. 2 spot (behind Oklahoma) in the final polls.

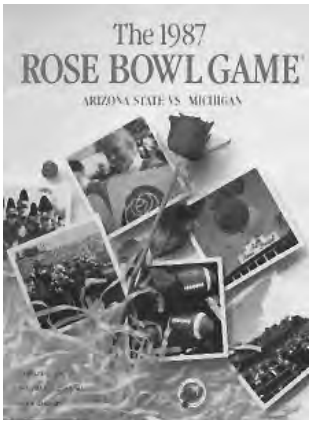
1987 Rose Bowl

vs. Arizona State

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1987
Attendance: 103,168

Michigan	8	7	0	0-15
Arizona St.	0	13	6	3-22



The Maize and Blue returned to the grass of the Rose Bowl after a four-year drought to face seventh-ranked Arizona State. The Sun Devils rolled to the Pac-10 title by running through its schedule unbeaten before slipping in their final game against Arizona.

Michigan made its first drive look easy. After Jim Harbaugh passed 24 yards to Greg McMurtry on the second play from scrimmage, the Wolverines quickly moved into scoring position. Jamie Morris took the handoff at the 18-yard line, broke two tackles, and smashed into the end zone. On the point-after attempt, the Sun Devils were caught when kicker Mike Gillette took the snap and passed to Gerald White in the end zone while the rest of the team remained huddled to the side. As the ecstatic Wolverine contingent cheered, the scoreboard flashed the score: Michigan 8, ASU 0.

Early in the second quarter, the Sun Devils' Kent Bostrom booted a 37-yard field goal. Michigan roared right back by powering the ball to the two-yard line before Harbaugh plunged to paydirt. Gillette kicked the conversion, and Michigan led 15-3. After adding a 27-yard field goal, Arizona State used the last four minutes of the half to mount a 60-yard drive that commenced when Jeff Van Raaphorst passed to Bruce Hill for the Sun Devils' first touchdown. As the teams took to the locker room, the Wolverines held a 15-13 advantage.

Opening the second half, Arizona State launched an 80-yard drive. Van Raaphorst again found Hill in the end zone, and after the two-point conversion failed, Michigan trailed by four. The Wolverines only touched the ball twice in the entire quarter, and netted just 22 yards, all from Harbaugh's pass completion in the third quarter. With 14:16 to go in the game, Bostrom added a 25-yard field goal and Arizona State had all the points needed for the victory.

Despite the disappointment of the final game, the 1986 season was a good one for Michigan Football. Wolverine fans were treated to the 32nd Big Ten title in school history, Bo Schembechler's 200th career victory to pass Fielding H. Yost as the winningest coach in Michigan history.

vs. Alabama

Tampa, Florida
January 2, 1988
Attendance: 60,156

Michigan	0	14	7	7-28
Alabama	3	0	6	15-24

For the second time in his 19-year reign, Bo Schembechler would not be on the sidelines for a Michigan bowl game. Schembechler underwent quadruple heart bypass surgery in early December so offensive coordinator Gary Moeller was given the task of preparing the Wolverines for Alabama.

The Crimson Tide took the opening kickoff and moved the ball to Michigan's 34-yard line, where they had to settle for a 51-yard Philip Doyle field goal. In the second quarter, Jamie Morris broke a tackle for a 25-yard touchdown run, giving the Wolverines their first lead of the game. On Michigan's next possession, Morris again broke a tackle, then ran over a defender for a 14-yard TD run and the Wolverines went into the locker room with a 14-3 half time lead.

Michigan began the second half where it left off as Morris broke loose for a 77-yard TD run, lifting U-M to a comfortable 21-3 margin. Following Morris' run, the Crimson Tide launched a 72-yard drive in just under five minutes that culminated in a 16-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Dunn to Howard Cross.

After a Michigan punt, Alabama marched 85 yards, capped by Bobby Humphrey's one-yard TD run, cutting the Wolverine lead to five points with 13 minutes left in the game. Two more times Michigan's offense was held and Alabama was again able to drive against the Wolverine defense, this time for 79 yards, culminating in a 17-yard scoring run by Humphrey. Alabama's two-point conversion was successful and the Tide took the lead, 24-21, with just under five minutes remaining.

Facing fourth-and-three from the 20-yard line late in the fourth quarter, Brown lofted a 20-yard pass that John Kolesar pulled down in the corner of the end zone for a touchdown and ended Michigan's most exciting scoring drive of the season. In the game's waning moments, Alabama's desperation pass was intercepted by cornerback David Arnold to seal the win.

Jamie Morris' 234 yards rushing set a Hall of Fame Bowl and Michigan bowl record. He also broke the Wolverines' single season rushing record with a total of 1,703 yards and ended his career with 4,393 rushing yards, third-best in Big Ten history.

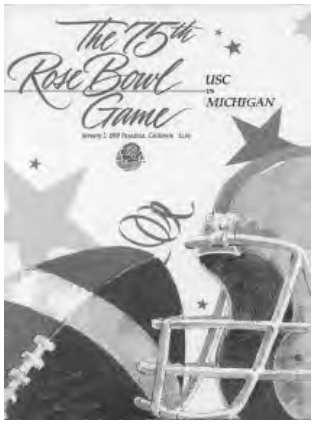
1989 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 2, 1989
Attendance: 101,688

Michigan	3	0	6	13-22
USC	0	14	0	0-14



Coming off one of the toughest Ohio State games in recent history, many questioned whether or not Michigan could withstand a USC team that led the Pac-10 in rushing defense, total defense and was offensively led by Rodney Peete, the 1988 Heisman Trophy runner-up.

Michigan's first possession was highlighted by a 21-yard completion from Demetrius Brown to John Kolesar on the fourth play of the drive. U-M controlled the ball for 7:51 on 13 plays until it was stopped by the Trojan defense. Mike Gillette was called in to cap the drive with a 49-yard field goal with 4:07 remaining in the quarter.

At the beginning of the second quarter, the Trojan offense came to life. USC moved from its own 46-yard line to the Wolverine 22. Each side turned the ball over, however, before the Trojans scored the game's first touchdown on a one-yard run by Peete. USC began its second TD drive with 7:06 remaining in the half, ending with Peete's four-yard scoring run.

The opening minutes of the second half saw Brown's 22-yard scramble to the six, followed by his touchdown toss to Chris Calloway two plays later. U-M was unsuccessful on the two-point conversion, leaving the score at 14-9.

In the final minutes of the third quarter, the Michigan offense, led by running backs Tony Boles and Leroy Hoard, put together the longest drive of the game, amassing 64 of the 92 yards gained by U-M. A 23-yard pass from Brown to Derrick Walker put the Wolverines on the one-yard line, and Hoard took it in for the score. Michigan again failed on the two-point try, leaving the Trojans just one point behind with plenty of time left in the final quarter.

With 5:28 left to play in the game, the Wolverines sensed their third bowl victory in four years. On the very first play, Hoard exploded for a 61-yard run to the Trojan nine-yard line. On fourth-and-goal, Hoard scored to give Michigan a seven-point lead that became eight after Gillette's extra point with 1:57 remaining.

Peete then led the Trojans down the field in an attempt to tie the game, but linebacker John Milligan picked off an errant pass with 50 seconds remaining to secure a Wolverine win.

The victory gave Schembechler his second win in Pasadena and the Wolverines a 9-2-1 season record, finishing with a No. 4 national ranking by the Associated Press.

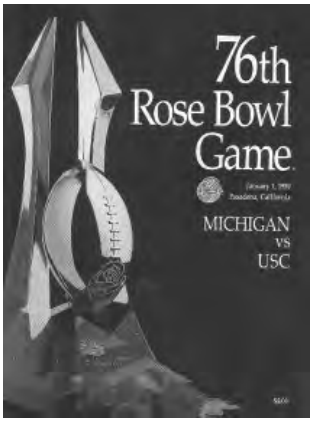
1990 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1990
Attendance: 103,450

Michigan	0	3	7	0-10
USC	0	10	0	7-17



Every Rose Bowl is a grand spectacle of the best college football has to offer, but the 1990 clash between Michigan and Southern California had added luster as it was the last game in Bo Schembechler's 27-year coaching career.

The first quarter was dominated by the defenses, as neither team was able to put any points on the scoreboard. USC opened the scoring in the second quarter on a one-yard touchdown run by quarterback Todd Marinovich. Michigan answered USC's score midway through the second quarter. Leroy Hoard ripped off a 46-yard run and Michael Taylor connected with Greg McMurtry for 20 yards to get down to the Trojan eight-yard line. J.D. Carlson's 19-yard field goal cut USC's lead to 7-3 with 6:28 left. The Trojans closed out the first half scoring on a 34-yard Quin Rodriguez field goal that pushed USC's halftime lead to 10-3.

The Wolverines played an inspired third quarter, limiting the Trojans to just 27 yards while scoring the tying touchdown. Michigan scored on its second drive of the quarter as Allen Jefferson scored from two yards out to tie the game at 10.

The game's pivotal play came on a fourth-and-two from the Michigan 46 with 12:00 left in the contest. On that play, Wolverine punter Chris Stapleton's fake punt gained 24 yards, but a holding penalty and a subsequent unsportsmanlike conduct penalty pushed Michigan back to its own 21 and eliminated the first down. Southern Cal took advantage of Michigan's misfortune, marching 75 yards in 13 plays for the game-winning TD.

Despite the Rose Bowl defeat, the Wolverines had their first 10-win season (10-2) since 1986, and earned their second consecutive outright Big Ten Championship. Bo Schembechler ended his coaching career as the winningest coach in Michigan football history with a 194-48-5 record.

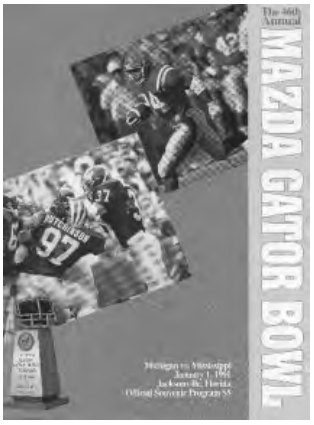
vs. Mississippi

Jacksonville, Florida
January 1, 1991
Attendance: 68,927

Michigan	7	7	21	0-35
Mississippi	0	3	0	0- 3



Gary Moeller's Wolverines gained a share of the Big Ten title in his first season, as U-M met Mississippi in the Gator Bowl.

After both teams exchanged early turnovers, Michigan opened the scoring when Elvis Grbac threw deep down the right side of the field to Desmond Howard, for a career-long 63-yard touchdown reception. J.D. Carlson's extra point gave Michigan a 7-0 lead with 1:04 left in the first quarter.

Mississippi scored its only points of the game in the second quarter when Brian Lee kicked a career-long and Gator Bowl record 51-yard field goal to trim the margin to 7-3.

Following a 32-yard Howard return of the ensuing kickoff, Jon Vaughn sprinted around left end for a gain of 37 yards and a first down at the Rebel 31. Five plays later, Grbac threw seven yards to Jarrod Bunch for a 14-3 halftime lead. Grbac's touchdown pass, his 19th of the season, broke Jim Harbaugh's Michigan single season record for touchdown passes thrown (18 in 1985).

Early in the third quarter, Grbac threw a screen pass to Howard who eluded the Mississippi defense en route to a 50-yard touchdown reception and a 21-3 Michigan lead with 10:53 left in the third quarter.

Later in the quarter, Ole Miss quarterback Tom Luke was intercepted by Todd Plate at the Michigan 37. After a three-yard Ricky Powers run and an 11-yard Grbac-to-Howard completion, the Wolverines had a first down on the Ole Miss 49-yard line. On the next play, Powers blasted up the middle for a gain of 44 yards and a first down at the Rebel five. Bunch pounded into the end zone on the next play, giving Michigan a comfortable 28-3 lead.

As the third stanza was nearing completion, Grbac connected with Derrick Alexander over the middle for a 33-yard touchdown—Grbac's fourth of the game, and a Michigan single bowl record. That closed the scoring, giving Michigan a resounding 35-3 win.

Offensive linemen Dean Dingman, Tom Dohring, Greg Skrepenak, Matt Elliott and Steve Everitt were named the game's Most Valuable Players for leading the offense to a Michigan single game record 715 total yards.

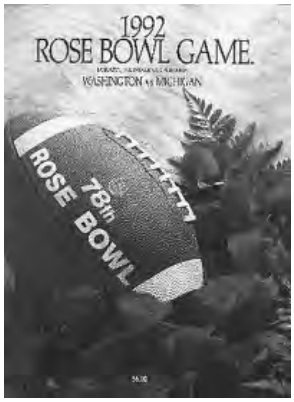
vs. Washington

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1992
Attendance: 103,566

Michigan	0	7	0	7-14
Washington	0	13	8	13-34



With a fourth consecutive Big Ten title locked up, the Michigan Wolverines ventured to Pasadena hoping to add a Rose Bowl title and possible national championship to their already impressive list of accolades. Thus far, the 1991 season had seen Desmond Howard win the Heisman Trophy and Erick Anderson garner the first Butkus Award in school history. However, standing in the way of Gary Moeller's team were the Washington Huskies, a team boasting the nation's top-ranked defense.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Huskies went ahead as Billy Joe Hobert faked to Beno Bryant and ran off left tackle for two yards and the touchdown. Howard, an electrifying player, would then add another clip to his collegiate highlight film on Michigan's ensuing drive as he snared a leaping, 35-yard reception over eventual NFL first round selection Dana Hall. Three plays later, Elvis Grbac connected with Walter Smith on a nine-yard scoring pass. Two Travis Hanson field goals made the score 13-7 Huskies at halftime.

Washington extended its lead in the third quarter on an 80-yard touchdown drive. Hobert completed a five-yard TD toss to Mark Bruener and the two-point conversion to Aaron Pierce.

Facing a 21-7 deficit, the Wolverines were again unable to manage a first down and were forced to punt. Excellent field position awaited the Washington offense again, with the ball resting on the Michigan 48. On the second play of the final quarter, Hobert gave a play-action fake and found Pierce in the back of the endzone for a two-yard touchdown. The Wolverines found themselves trailing 27-7.

Michigan started the next drive at its own 29-yard line, and moved the ball out to the 38-yard line before a Grbac keeper on fourth-and-one was stopped. Washington took only six seconds to find the endzone again, as Mark Brunell hit Mario Bailey streaking down the right side for the Huskies final score of the game.

Tyrone Wheatley, a freshman, capped off an outstanding afternoon (68 yards on nine carries) and closed the scoring on a 53-yard touchdown run, and J.D. Carlson's 126th consecutive PAT.

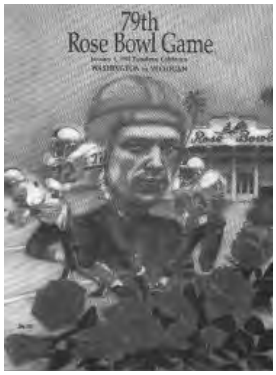
Washington	7	14	10	0-31



For the second consecutive season, the Michigan Wolverines and Washington Huskies celebrated the New Year together at the Rose Bowl. The Huskies were searching for an unprecedented third straight Rose Bowl victory, while the Wolverines were looking to avenge a 34-14 Rose Bowl defeat to Washington in 1992.

Trailing 7-3, the Wolverines energized their fans on a 49-yard touchdown pass from Elvis Grbac to Tony McGee, which capped a six-play, 69-yard drive and provided Michigan the lead after the first quarter. On its next possession, Michigan opened up a 17-7 lead as Tyrone Wheatley, on his way to a 235-yard rushing performance, sprinted untouched 56 yards for a touchdown.

In this offensive showdown, the Huskies responded with two straight touchdowns -- a 64-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jason Shelley, and an 18-yard touchdown strike from Brunell to Mark Bruener. Washington took a 21-17 lead into the halftime intermission.

Wheatley then went to work, taking advantage of a key block by All-American Steve Everitt on an 88-yard touchdown run -- his second long scoring play and a new Rose Bowl record. But the Huskies were far from through. They put together 10 straight points and went ahead 31-24 until Wheatley responded. His third touchdown run of the game -- a 24-yard scamper on a draw play -- tied the game at 31 and swung the momentum back to Michigan.

The Wolverines' game-winning score came on an 80-yard drive, as Grbac, facing third and short from the Huskies' 15-yard line, found McGee at the two. McGee fell into the endzone for the only score of the fourth quarter, the winning points in Michigan's thrilling 38-31 victory.

Tampa, Florida

Attendance: 52,649

Michigan	0	21	21	0-42
N.C. State	0	0	7	0- 7

The 1994 Hall of Fame Bowl opened the New Year's Day bowl festivities with an 11 a.m. kickoff in unusually wet conditions for the Tampa, Fla., site. By the time the rain subsided and the other New Year's Day bowl games were set to begin, Michigan was well on its way to a 42-7 trouncing of North Carolina State. Tyrone Wheatley, in his third consecutive tremendous bowl outing, was named the game's MVP after compiling 124 rushing yards on 18 carries, including touchdown runs of 26 and 18 yards.

Michigan opened the scoring early in the second quarter -- the first points in what would become consecutive 21-point quarters. Wheatley took a pitch from Todd Collins on a sweep to the right and blazed down the sidelines for a 21-yard score. On their subsequent possession, the Wolfpack were forced to punt, and Derrick Alexander made N.C. State pay. He fielded the punt at Michigan's 21-yard line and burst up the middle of the field unchallenged for a 79-yard touchdown -- the longest punt return in Hall of Fame Bowl history.

The Wolverines put away the game late in the half. Closing a 13-play, 85-yard drive, Collins, on fourth-and-10 from the Wolfpack 31, found Amani Toomer in the right corner of the endzone for a score. The conversion gave the Wolverines a 21-0 lead.

The scoring continued for Michigan in the third quarter, as it strung together two more touchdowns—on Clarence Thompson's 43-yard interception return and Wheatley's 18-yard scoring run -- before N.C. State finally broke the shutout with a touchdown of its own. Wheatley's score -- his sixth bowl touchdown over the past three seasons -- was the 35th rushing TD of his career, breaking Rick Leach's school record for career rushing TDs. It was also Wheatley's 40th career touchdown, tying him with Anthony Carter for the most career TDs by a Wolverine. Ricky Powers closed the game's scoring with a 16-yard TD run with 3:13 left in the third.

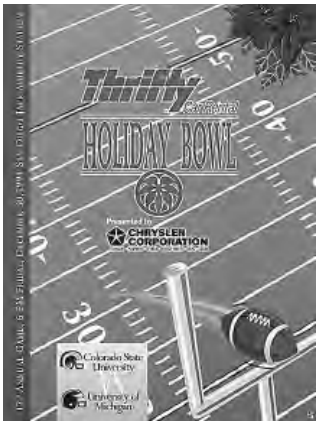
1994 Holiday Bowl

vs. Colorado State

San Diego, California
December 30, 1994
Attendance: 59,453

Michigan	10	7	7	0-24
Colorado St.	7	0	0	7-14



Michigan, who had taken its lumps on the defensive side of the ball during a 7-4 regular season, stuffed Colorado State when it recorded a 24-14 win at Jack Murphy Stadium that helped ease the sting of some painful late-season losses.

CSU nearly mirrored the Wolverines in total yardage (341-340), but gained just 51 yards rushing against a Michigan defense that forced four turnovers and had a key goal-line stand in the second half.

U-M struck first on the game's opening drive on Todd Collins' four-yard TD pass to Amani Toomer with 8:51 left in the opening quarter. The Rams took the ensuing kickoff and turned in a nine-play, 66-yard drive to tie the game, 7-7. The drive was culminated by Paul Turner's 32-yard TD reception.

All-American Remy Hamilton booted a 34-yard field goal with 2:46 remaining in the first quarter to put Michigan ahead 10-7. A blocked punt by freshman Chris Howard gave U-M the ball deep in Rams territory with less than two minutes left before halftime. Collins then connected with Mercury Hayes for a 16-yard TD strike to put U-M ahead 17-7 with 1:28 left in the half.

The Wolverines forced a turnover on CSU's first drive of the second half, taking over on the Rams' 17-yard line. Tyrone Wheatley made short work four plays later with a three-yard plunge into the endzone. That gave U-M a 24-7 lead with 11:58 left in the third quarter.

Midway through the third quarter, a 42-yard pass play helped CSU move the ball from its own 13-yard line to inside the Wolverine 10. A pair of pass interference calls against U-M gave the Rams seven plays to attempt to go eight yards into the endzone.

Four plays from the Michigan two-yard line turned up nothing for Colorado State, as a two-yard loss and incomplete pass on fourth down helped the Wolverines turn away the high-scoring Rams.

Michigan held a 24-7 advantage after three quarters and held that lead until 1:18 remained in the game. CSU finally cracked the stubborn U-M defense with an 18-yard TD pass by Anthony Hill to complete the scoring.

Collins threw for 162 yards (14-for-24) and two touchdowns, earning the game's offensive MVP honors. The Michigan defense tallied 11 tackles for loss, driving the CSU offense back 61 yards.

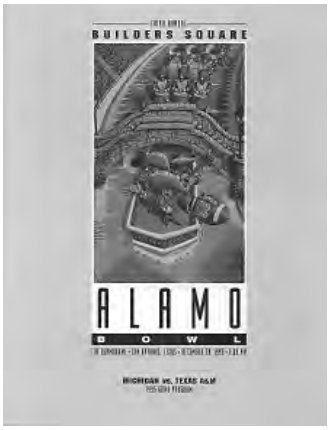
1995 Alamo Bowl

vs. Texas A&M

San Antonio, Texas
December 28, 1995
Attendance: 64,597

Michigan	7	3	3	7-20
Texas A&M	10	3	3	6-22



Aggies placekicker and Alamo Bowl offensive MVP Kyle Bryant booted a Michigan-opponent record five field goals in the game (27, 49, 47, 31 and 37 yards), and a Wolverine rally ran out of time at the third Alamo Bowl game.

Midway through the first quarter, Tshimanga Biakabutuka's fumble was recovered by the Aggies on U-M's five-yard line. Two plays later, Eric Bernard took it in to give Texas A&M a 7-0 lead.

The Wolverines responded quickly. Aided by 35 yards in Aggie penalties, Michigan went 77 yards in two plays to tie the game. The drive was capped off by a 41-yard Brian Griese to Amani Toomer touchdown pass.

After the two teams traded field goals, the two defenses settled in, holding their opposition scoreless on the next four possessions. On its final possession of the half, Texas A&M drove to the Michigan 32-yard line, where Bryant kicked a career-best 49-yard field goal at the gun to give the Aggies a 13-10 halftime lead.

Texas A&M extended the lead with a 47-yard field goal with 5:34 left in the third quarter. Michigan took the kickoff at the 19-yard line and ran the ball down to the Texas A&M four-yard line in 11 plays. The Wolverines had to settle for a Remy Hamilton 26-yard field goal to close the gap to 16-13.

The Aggies again extended their lead to six early in the fourth quarter, then held off an ineffective Wolverine offense. After a 31-yard interception return gave the Aggies possession at the Michigan four-yard line, Bryant kicked a 37-yard field goal to put Texas A&M ahead, 22-13, with 23 seconds remaining.

The Wolverines showed strokes of brilliance in the final seconds, with Griese completing long passes to Mercury Hayes and Toomer, the latter going for 44 yards and a touchdown. The onside kick was unsuccessful, and the Aggies ran out the clock to hand U-M a 22-20 defeat.

For the game, Griese completed nine-of-23 passes for 182 yards. Five of those passes went to Toomer, who tallied 135 yards and two touchdowns. Michigan managed only 129 yards on the ground, an Alamo Bowl-record 94 coming from Biakabutuka and 36 from Clarence Williams.

1997 Outback Bowl

vs. Alabama

Tampa, Florida
January 1, 1997
Attendance: 53,161

Alabama	3	0	0	14-17
Michigan	0	6	0	8-14

The highly-regarded defensive units of Michigan and Alabama were showcased in the New Year's Day Outback Bowl, but it was a Crimson Tide offense that led 'Bama to a 17-14 victory.

Michigan entered the game ranked 18th nationally in total defense while Alabama brought the No. 8 defense into the game. Neither unit disappointed.

The Wolverines held the Crimson Tide to 247 yards of total offense and effectively shut down Alabama for most of the game.

Alabama opened the game's scoring with a 43-yard Jon Brock field goal just 2:07 into the game.

Remy Hamilton knotted the game for Michigan with a 44-yard field goal with 8:03 left in the first half, then gave the Wolverines the lead with a 22-yard field goal 20 seconds before the intermission.

The turning point came as Michigan, already leading 6-3 early in the fourth quarter, worked a drive deep into Alabama territory. On third-and-five, quarterback Brian Griese, who started his first game of the season, attempted a short pass across the middle, but was deflected and intercepted by Alabama linebacker Dwayne Rudd. Rudd turned upfield and raced to an Outback Bowl record 88-yard interception return. The score, which came with 12:13 left in the game, gave the Crimson Tide a 10-6 lead that they never relinquished.

Alabama put the game away two possessions later when running back Shaun Alexander dashed 46 yards to put the Crimson Tide up 17-6 with 2:15 left in the game.

Griese hit receiver Russell Shaw with a nine-yard touchdown pass to end a nine-play, 80-yard drive with 1:16 left. After a pass-interference call, fullback Chris Floyd ran the ball in for a two-point conversion to bring Michigan to within three, 17-14.

The Crimson Tide recovered the onside kick and ran out the clock.

Michigan finished the game with 415 yards in total offense, but it was unable to put the ball in the endzone. Three times the Wolverines failed to score after moving within the Alabama 35-yard line.

Griese completed 21-of-37 passes for 287 yards. He threw one touchdown and one interception.

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1998
Attendance: 101,219

Washington St.	7	0	6	3	-16
Michigan	0	7	7	7	-21

Michigan claimed its 11th national title with a 21-16 victory over Washington State at the Rose Bowl. The Wolverines' No. 1-ranked defense held the high-powered Cougars' offense to their lowest scoring output of the season, while Rose Bowl MVP Brian Griese completed 18-of-30 passes for 251 yards and three TDs.

WSU took a 7-0 first-quarter lead on a 15-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Leaf to wide receiver Kevin McKenzie.

U-M tied the score at seven entering the half as Griese threw a 53-yard touchdown pass to wideout Tai Streets.

After a Michigan punt pinned Washington State at the one-yard line, Leaf led a go-ahead 99-yard third-quarter scoring drive that ended with a 14-yard reverse by wide receiver Michael Tims. James Hall kept the deficit at 13-7 by blocking the extra point attempt.

The Wolverines' offense responded immediately as Griese and Streets connected on a 58-yard TD, their second long scoring play of the game. Kicker Kraig Baker hit the PAT to give Michigan its first lead, 14-13.

After a defensive stop, U-M extended its lead to 21-13 as Griese rolled right and found tight end Jerame Tuman for the game-winning 23-yard touchdown.

WSU scored the games final points with 7:25 remaining as kicker Rian Lindell hit a 48-yard field goal.

Holding a slim 21-16 lead, the Wolverines embarked on their most important drive of the season. U-M's 16-play series consumed 6:56 and saw Griese direct four third-down conversions. After lining up to attempt a potential 47-yard field goal, Jay Feely received the direct snap and proceeded to pooch punt.

Pinned deep at their seven-yard line with 29 seconds left, the Cougars added a little drama to the final moments. Leaf connected with Nian Taylor on a 46-yard pass play on third down to cross into Michigan territory. After a delay of game penalty, Leaf threw to Love Jefferson who lateralled the ball to Jason Clayton for a 36-yard gain to the U-M 16-yard line. WSU was unable to stop the clock as time ran out.

Dhani Jones recorded two sacks and a team-high 10 tackles, while Charles Woodson stopped a WSU drive with an endzone interception and recorded four PBUs. Offensively, Streets caught four passes for 127 yards and two TDs, and Chris Howard gained 70 yards rushing on 19 carries.

Alabama	0	14	14	0	6	34

Michigan erased a pair of 14-point deficits in winning a thrilling 35-34 overtime game against Alabama in the 2000 FedEx Orange Bowl at Pro Player Stadium. The Wolverines played in, and won, their first overtime contest in school history.

With the score knotted at 28 at the end of regulation, Michigan scored on its initial play of overtime when quarterback Tom Brady found tight end Shawn Thompson on a 25-yard TD pass. Kicker Hayden Epstein hit the extra point to give U-M a 35-28 lead, its first of the contest.

On Alabama's first possession of overtime, Andrew Zow hit Antonio Carter with a 21-yard TD pass on the second play of the drive. However, Alabama's Ryan Pflugner pushed the extra point attempt wide right and Michigan claimed the victory.

Sophomore wide receiver David Terrell was named Orange Bowl MVP after setting career bests in receiving yards (150) and receiving touchdowns (three) as well as equaling his career-high in receptions (10). Brady capped his career with a career-best four TD passes on 34-of-46 passing for a UM bowl record 369 yards.

During regulation, Michigan trimmed the deficit to 14-7 with 58 seconds left in the first half when Brady hit Terrell on a 27-yard scoring strike.

Michigan held Alabama on its first offensive possession of the second half and marched 59 yards to even the score at 14. The Crimson Tide responded with back-to-back touchdowns from Shaun Alexander and Freddie Milons.

Michigan closed the gap when Brady and Terrell connected on a 20-yard TD pass with 5:42 left in the third quarter. After holding Alabama on its next possession, Michigan tied the game (28-28) as junior tailback Anthony Thomas scored on a three-yard run.

The Wolverines dominated the fourth quarter, but a fumble heading into the endzone for the go-ahead score and a blocked 36-yard field goal attempt on the final play of regulation, sent the game into overtime.

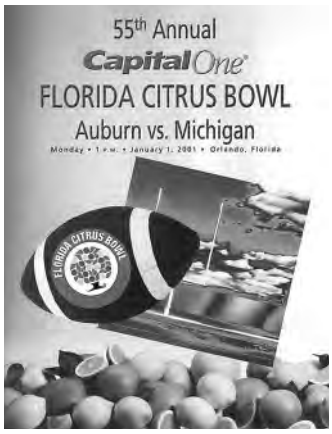
2001 Capital One Florida Citrus Bowl

vs. Auburn

Orlando, Florida
January 1, 2001
Attendance: 66,928

Michigan	7	14	10	0-31
Auburn	0	14	7	7-28



An efficient passing offense and a relentless ground attack led Michigan to a 31-28 victory over Auburn in the 2001 Florida Citrus Bowl. Drew Henson completed 15-of-20 passes for 294 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while tailback Anthony Thomas rushed 32 times for 182 yards and two touchdowns.

On its second possession, Michigan brought a trick out of the bag, using a flea-flicker to fool the Tigers' defense and score a 31-yard touchdown pass from Henson to David Terrell. This 76-yard drive in 70 seconds set Michigan's efficient tempo for the game.

Auburn struck back early in the second quarter when senior quarterback Ben Leard hooked up with wideout Ronney Daniels on a 19-yard touchdown pass. Leard hit Clifton Robinson for a 20-yard touchdown on the Tigers' next drive. Leard threw for 394 yards on the day, mostly in an effort to keep up with the Wolverine offense.

Michigan scored the next three touchdowns of the game due in large part to Thomas' brutish running. He racked up two touchdowns and became U-M's all-time leading rusher and scorer.

In the midst of the Wolverines' offensive explosion, sophomore safety Julius Curry and senior safety DeWayne Patmon each made key interceptions to halt Auburn drives into Michigan territory. Other defensive stars for the Wolverines included junior linebackers Eric Brackins and Larry Foote with 13 and eight tackles, respectively, and senior lineman Eric Wilson with six tackles and a sack.

Though Leard and junior running back Rudi Johnson tried to bring Auburn back, junior kicker Hayden Epstein connected on a 41-yard field goal towards the end of the third-quarter, giving U-M a 31-21 lead. Auburn added another late touchdown, but Michigan recovered an onside kick with 2:22 remaining and held on for the victory.

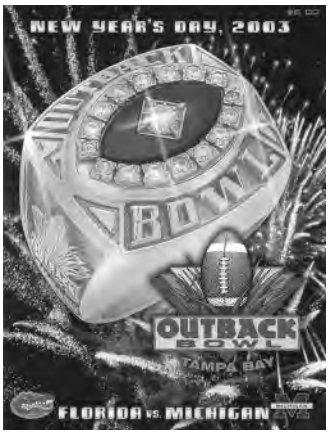
2003 Outback Bowl

vs. Florida

Tampa, Florida
January 1, 2003
Attendance: 65,101

Florida	0	16	7	7-30
Michigan	7	14	14	3-38



Michigan claimed a 38-30 victory in a back-and-forth affair against No. 22 Florida in the 2003 Outback Bowl at Raymond James Stadium.

Tailback Chris Perry earned Outback Bowl MVP honors after setting a bowl game record and a modern era U-M bowl record with four touchdowns. Perry matched his career high with 28 carries for 85 yards and four TDs, and added a career-best six receptions for 108 yards. Quarterback John Navarre completed 21-of-36 passes for a career-high 319 yards and one score.

Victor Hobson tallied a career-best 12 tackles and two tackles for loss, and secured the win with an interception on Florida's final drive.

Michigan took advantage of a Florida turnover as Perry scored on a four-yard touchdown run late in the first quarter. U-M gained possession at the Florida three-yard line after recovering an errant shotgun snap. Florida, however, answered to take a 13-7 lead early in the second quarter on a pair of TD runs by tailback Ernest Graham.

U-M took control of the game on a 12-play scoring drive as Perry leaped over the goal line on a fourth-down play from the one-yard line.

The Gators regained the lead, 16-14, with 1:37 left in the first half as placekicker Matt Leach connected on a 29-yard field goal, but Michigan responded to take a 21-16 halftime advantage as Navarre completed an eight-yard touchdown pass to Bellamy with 27 seconds left.

Florida scored on its opening possession of the second half to gain a 23-21 lead. The Wolverines answered the Gators' TD and took the lead for good, 28-23, on a seven-yard TD run by Perry. U-M extended its lead to 35-23 as Perry scored his fourth TD of the game, a 12-yard run through the middle of the defense.

Florida trimmed the deficit to 35-30 with 8:21 remaining as Grossman fired a three-yard TD pass to tight end Aaron Walker.

On the Gator's next possession, a Hobson sack forced Florida to punt the ball away. U-M got the ball back and extended its lead to 38-30 with 2:20 left as kicker Adam Finley connected on a 33-yard field goal.

The Gators attempted to mount one final drive to tie the game. After reaching the Wolverine 37-yard line, Florida tried a wide receiver reverse pass, but it was intercepted by Hobson to seal Michigan's victory.

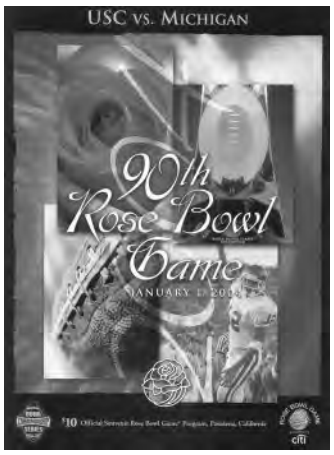
vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 2004
Attendance: 93,849

USC	7	7	14	0-28
Michigan	0	0	7	7-14



Top-ranked Southern California aired it out in a 28-14 win against No. 4 Michigan in the 90th Rose Bowl game, claimed its ninth Associated Press national title.

USC quarterback Matt Leinart, who was voted the game's most valuable player, completed 23 of his 34 pass attempts for 327 yards and three touchdowns. USC managed to score four receiving touchdowns on Michigan's top rated pass defense.

U-M quarterback John Navarre finished his career by completing 27 of his 46 passes for 271 yards and a touchdown. Navarre was sacked a season-high nine times. Tailback Chris Perry carried 23 times for 85 yards and one score. Braylon Edwards added 10 catches for 107 yards.

The Wolverines threatened on their opening possession of the game, as they moved from their own 20 to the Trojans' 21. However freshman kicker Garrett Rivas' 48-yard field goal attempt was blocked by USC Shaun Cody. The Trojans took over and needed just four plays to score. The TD came on a 25-yard strike down the left hashmarks to Keary Colbert.

Michigan began its next-to-last drive of the first half at its own 6. The Wolverines gained a first down, but on third-and-18 from their 9, Navarre's pass bounced off Edwards' heel and into the hands of USC linebacker Lofa Tatupu. On third down from the six, Leinart tossed a soft pass to LenDale White in the left flat and he scrambled into the end zone for a 14-0 lead at the half.

Behind 21-0 early in the third quarter, Michigan answered with a 16-play, 76-yard drive. On second down from the USC five-yard line, Navarre fired a strike to tight end Tim Massaquoi. The touchdown pass was the 72nd of Navarre's career, breaking a tie with Elvis Grbac for the U-M all-time passing TD lead.

The Trojans answered with an eight-play, 72-yard drive to take a 28-7 lead. The Mike Williams took a reverse pitch and fired a 15-yard strike to a wide-open Leinart.

Michigan opened the fourth quarter with an 11-play, 85-yard drive to cut the USC lead to 28-14 with 11:06 remaining. From the two-yard line, Perry took a toss from Navarre and followed his blockers around the right side for the TD.

Leinart then fumbled a snap, which resulted in a turnover. Michigan was unable to take advantage and turned the ball over on downs. The Trojans ran out the clock.

2005 Alamo Bowl

vs. Nebraska

San Antonio, Texas
December 28, 2005
Attendance: 62,016

Michigan	7	7	7	7-28
Nebraska	7	7	3	15-32

The Wolverines were edged by the Nebraska Cornhuskers in a back-and-forth shootout at the 2005 Alamo Bowl. Despite relentless defensive pressure by Michigan (14 tackles for loss), the resilient Husker offense put up enough points for the victory. The San Antonio Alamodome saw two teams with a potent passing attack, and a plethora of self-inflicted wounds. Michigan and Nebraska combined for 15 penalties and five turnovers in the game. The Cornhuskers' Zac Taylor passed for 167 yards and three touchdowns, while Wolverine Chad Henne threw for 270 yards and 3 touchdowns.

Both teams got on the board quickly, with touchdowns on each team's opening drive of the game. Quarterback Zach Taylor hit receiver Terrance Nunn on a slant for a 52-yard score. On the ensuing kickoff, Steve Breaston had an Alamo Bowl record 69-yard return to the Nebraska 30. Shortly thereafter, Michigan capitalized with a 13-yard pass from Henne to tight end Tyler Ecker, knotting the score at 7-7.

Nebraska's next two possessions ended in interceptions on consecutive plays by cornerback Leon Hall, the Alamo Bowl Defensive MVP. Michigan was able to convert on one of those turnovers with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Henne to tight end Mike Massey. The Huskers responded with a seven-play, 70-yard touchdown drive, on a Nate Swift 14-yard touchdown catch. As a result, both teams headed into halftime tied at 14.

With a 21-yard TD pass to Mario Manningham and a seven-yard touchdown scramble, Henne sparked 28-17 Wolverine lead with less than a quarter to play.

Nebraska responded with a 31-yard touchdown run by Cory Ross to pull within three points, 28-25, with 8:08 remaining.

Michigan turned the ball over three times in the final 16 minutes, twice on fumbles with under eight minutes remaining in the regulation and an end zone interception. Terrance Nunn caught his second score on a 13-yard reception for the winning margin following a ruled fumble that gave the Husker's possession at U-M's 17-yard line.

Michigan's remaining two possessions were thwarted, including a desparation lateral play that nearly went the distance as time expired.

Michigan was unable to overcome a pair of turnovers and 16 unanswered points in the third quarter to Southern California, losing 32-18 in the 93rd Rose Bowl Game. The Trojans snapped a 3-3 halftime tie and scored 16 unanswered points in the third quarter following a pair of turnovers by the Wolverines.

After a 26-yard field goal by Trojan kicker Mario Danelo, Michigan answered with one of its own, a 43-yard field goal by Garrett Rivas at 13:35 of the second quarter. Quarterback Chad Henne completed his first five passes of the drive for 50 yards before a pair of incomplete passes ended the series at the Trojans' 26-yard line.

The Trojans threatened on the following drive, but linebacker Shawn Crable stripped the ball from quarterback Josh Booty and defensive tackle Alan Branch recovered at the U-M 21-yard line. Both teams were held scoreless for the remainder of the half, entering halftime with a 3-3 tie.

The Trojans regained the lead in the third quarter, 10-3, on a two-yard touchdown pass from Booty to Chris McFoy. The USC lead was extended to 19-3 with a 22-yard hookup between Dwayne Jarrett and Booty and a 26-yard field goal by Danelo.

Michigan kept hope alive early in the fourth quarter as Henne completed an 11-yard touchdown pass to receiver Adrian Arrington. The scoring drive covered 80 yards in eight plays, with Henne completing all six passes for 62 yards. Tailback Mike Hart rumbled into the end zone on the two-point conversion to trim the deficit to 19-11.

The Trojans answered with a 62-yard touchdown pass on a fly pattern from Booty to Jarrett and a seven-yard touchdown pass from Booty to Steve Smith, increasing the advantage to 32-11. The Wolverines would only respond with a 41-yard scoring pass from Henne to receiver Steve Breaston.

Orlando, Fla.

Attendance: 69,748

Michigan	7	14	7	13-41
Florida	7	7	14	7-35

In Lloyd Carr's final game as Michigan's head coach, the Wolverines battled to an emotional victory over ninth-ranked Florida in the 2008 Capital One Bowl. The game provided the graduating seniors their first post-season victory and improved Carr's 13-year head coaching record to 122-40.

Despite three turnovers inside the opposition's 5-yard line, the Maize and Blue recorded a season-high in points scored with a 41-35 triumph over the Gators. An aggressive Wolverine attack, which finished with 524 yards of total offense, struck on its first possession. After storming down the field 93-yards, Chad Henne collaborated with Mario Manningham on a 21-yard connection, giving the team a 7-0 advantage. Henne completed 25-of-39 attempts for 373 yards and three touchdowns on the day, earning the game's Most Valuable Player award.

After Florida stalled on their first possession, the Gator's answered with two consecutive scores to grasp a 14-7 lead, but Mike Hart evened the scoreboard with a 3-yard run in the second quarter. In his Michigan send-off, Hart carried the ball 32 times for 129 and two trips to the end zone. On the following drive, Terrance Taylor blocked a 35-yard field goal attempt, locking the score until eight seconds remained in the half. Henne hit Adrian Arrington, his favorite target of the game, on a one-yard out to give the squad a 21-14 halftime lead. Arrington finished his career-day collecting 153 yards and a pair of touchdowns on nine receptions.

The Wolverines recovered their own kickoff to begin the second half, setting up Mike Hart's second touchdown and a 28-14 lead. Florida responded with two scores to level the match at 28-28, but Michigan claimed a 31-28 edge with a 37-yard field goal. Florida regained the lead 35-31, but Michigan tallied ten unanswered points to close the contest. Michigan's final touchdown resulted from a four play drive, highlighted by two spectacular Arrington catches for 37-yards and an 18-yard touchdown. Michigan drilled a 41-yard field goal between two Florida four-and-outs, sealing the Wolverine victory.

Jacksonville, Fla.

Attendance: 77,497

Miss. St.	10	21	14	7-52

The University of Michigan football team was unable to climb out from a first-half deficit at the 2011 Gator Bowl on New Year's Day, falling 52-14 to No. 21 Mississippi State at Everbank Field. The Wolverines were unable to even their all-time bowl record and finish the campaign with a 7-6 record.

Michigan took the opening kickoff and marched 78 yards in 10 plays to take a 7-0 lead on a 10-yard pass from Denard Robinson to Roy Roundtree. Robinson had two huge runs during the drive, a run of 24 yards into Bulldogs territory and a 22-yard scamper to the 11-yard line, while completing all three passes for 27 yards.

Mississippi State answered on its opening possession on a four-yard pass from Chris Relf to receiver Arceto Clark on third-and-goal. After holding the Wolverines on their second possession, the Bulldogs grabbed the lead, 10-7, on a 42-yard field goal by Derek Depasquale.

The Wolverines took the ensuing kickoff and regained the lead, 14-10, on a 27-yard touchdown pass to Martavious Odoms with 34 seconds left in the first quarter. The five-play drive covered 72 yards in 100 seconds. Robinson completed all four passes for 72 yards, with each of the four completions coming to a different receiver.

The Bulldogs continued the scoring affair with 21 unanswered points to close out the first half, taking a 31-14 lead into the break.

The Michigan defense forced the Bulldogs into their first punt of the game on the opening series of the second half, and receiver Junior Hemingway gave U-M excellent field position as he returned the punt 33 yards to the Bulldogs' 23-yard line.

However, the Maize and Blue were unable to stage a comeback as MSU continued to score, closing out the game with six unanswered touchdown scores after the early Michigan lead to give the Bulldogs a 52-14 Gator Bowl victory.

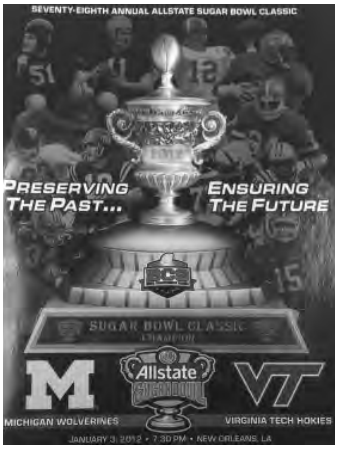
2012 Sugar Bowl

vs. Virginia Tech

New Orleans, La.
January 3, 2012
Attendance: 64,512

Michigan	0	10	7	3	3-23
Virginia Tech	3	3	3	11	0-20



Brendan Gibbons drilled a 37-yard field goal in the first overtime session to give the University of Michigan football team (No. 13 AP/No. 12 USA Today Coaches) a 23-20 victory over Virginia Tech (No. 17 AP/No. 11 USA Today) on Jan. 3, 2012, in the 78th annual Allstate Sugar Bowl at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The triumph is U-M's first at the Sugar Bowl.

Virginia Tech had more than double Michigan's total yards, 377-184, and had 22 first downs to Michigan's 12 but settled for four field goals in regulation by third-string kicker Justin Myer, who tied the game with a 25-yard field goal with two seconds left before missing from 37 yards out in the opening possession of overtime.

Denard Robinson highlighted the offense with a pair of touchdown passes -- from 45 and 18 yards -- to wideout Junior Hemingway, the game MVP. Robinson finished 9-for-21 for 117 yards passing and threw an interception. He rushed 13 times for a season-low 13 yards. Meanwhile on defense, safety Jordan Kovacs, linebacker Desmond Morgan and defensive lineman Mike Martin notched 11, 10 and 10 tackles, respectively.

Virginia Tech quarterback Logan Thomas, who was 19-of-28 for 214 yards with one interception, scored the Hokies' only touchdown on a one-yard keeper, capping a 16-play drive with 10:22 remaining in regulation. Virginia Tech then tied the game at 17-all after a successful two-point conversion.

Hokies receiver Danny Coale had eight catches for 117 yards and nearly made a spectacular diving catch for a touchdown in overtime. Coale held on to the ball for what was initially ruled a score, but the play was overturned on video review, which showed the receiver narrowly landed on the sideline. The result of that third-down play forced Tech to try for Myer's failed field goal.

Michigan then ran three consecutive runs to set up Gibbons in the middle of the field for the game-winner.

2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl

Tempe, Ariz.
December 28, 2013
Attendance: 53,284

Michigan	3	3	0	8-14
Kansas State	14	7	0	10-31

The University of Michigan football team fell to Kansas State, 31-14, on Saturday (Dec. 28) in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl. Freshman quarterback Shane Morris, who made his first career start in place of the injured Devin Gardner, tallied 239 yards total offense for Michigan, while safety Thomas Gordon led the way with nine tackles.

Kansas State's Tyler Lockett accumulated five catches for 63 yards and three touchdowns in the first half after leading the Wildcats with more than 1,100 yards and eight scores during the regular season.

Morris completed 15-of-19 first-half passes for 121 yards, but the Michigan offense was unable to reach the end zone and went into the half down 21-6.

The Wolverines defense stepped up in the third frame, as linebacker Jake Ryan forced a fumble that was recovered by Mario Ojemudia, marking the first turnover of the contest, with less than two minutes remaining in the third.

Kansas State got the ball back and drove down to the U-M five-yard line early in the final quarter, but the Wildcats were stopped there and forced to settle for a 22-yard field goal. This made the score 24-6 with less than 10 minutes remaining in the game.

Later in the quarter, a Morris' pass attempt was intercepted by Dante Barnett and returned 51 yards deep into Michigan territory. Two plays later, the Wildcats extended their lead to 31-6 following a one-yard scoring plunge.

The U-M offense finally found the end zone on its final drive, which featured a 40-yard run by Morris. Running back Fitzgerald Toussaint scored the touchdown in his final game, turning the corner from just three yards out. Following a successful two-point conversion attempt, the score was 31-14 with just a minute and a half remaining.

During the last Michigan drive, fifth-year senior receiver Jeremy Gallon set the single-season program record for receiving yardage. He passed Braylon Edwards, whose 1,330 yards in 2004 marked the previous record. Gallon finished his final season with 89 receptions, 1,373 yards and nine scores.

2016 Citrus Bowl

vs. Florida

Orlando, Florida
January 1, 2016
Attendance: 63,113

Michigan	7	10	14	10-41
Florida	7	0	0	0-7

The Michigan football team defeated Florida, 41-7, on Saturday (Jan.1) in the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl. Graduate student quarterback Jake Rudock, who completed 20-of-30 (64.5%) pass attempts on the day, tallied 307 yards total offense for Michigan. Junior runningback De'Veon Smith led the team in carries, with 25 rush attempts for 111 yards.

Rudock closed his collegiate career with an impressive effort at Citrus Bowl Stadium, the same field where he clinched a state and national championship with St. Thomas Aquinas High School. The game MVP, as voted by the media, Rudock completed 20-of-31 passes for 278 yards and three touchdowns, becoming just the second Michigan quarterback to throw for 3,000 yards in a single season (John Navarre, 2003).

Leading 17-7 at halftime, the Wolverines scored on their first two possessions of the third quarter -- the first on a three-yard slant to receiver Grant Perry (5 receptions, 51 yards) and the second on a two-yard plunge from fullback Sione Houma to claim a 31-7 lead.

Rudock started the fourth quarter where he left off, tossing a seven-yard touchdown to tailback Drake Johnson (58 rushing yards on six carries, two total touchdowns), before kicker Kenny Allen closed the scoring with a 25-yard field goal with 6:42 to play.

In the first half, Florida leaned heavily on QB Treon Harris and a series of trick plays to convert 7-of-9 third downs. Harris' scrambling ability yielded more than five yards per carry, but his inconsistency through the air (8-17-1, 146 yards) and two red-zone interceptions proved ominous.

Harris did not complete a second half pass, finishing the game 8-of-21 with one interception and 55 yards on 11 carries. Michigan held Florida to 28 yards in the second half and 0-for-4 on third downs. Defensive lineman Chris Wormley's 2.5 tackles for a loss led the Michigan defense with the Wolverines recording six TFLs in the game. Linebacker Joe Bolden had a team-high seven total tackles.

Miami Gardens, Florida

Attendance: 67,432

Michigan	3	3	9	17-32
Florida State	17	3	0	13-33

The No. 6-ranked Wolverines and No. 10 Seminoles produced an instant classic, with FSU escaping with the win, 33-32, in the Orange Bowl.

U-M fought valiantly to claim a 30-27 lead with 1:57 left to play after FSU built a 27-15 lead with less than eight minutes remaining in the game. Michigan scored a pair of touchdowns only to see Florida State score the winning TD with 36 seconds left.

Trailing by 14 entering the third quarter, Michigan drove to FSU's 10-yard line before Kenny Allen converted a 37-yard field goal.

Later in the quarter, the defensive pressure broke through as Mike McCray picked off a pass and returned it for a touchdown. U-M was unable to convert the two-point try, making the score 20-15.

On third-and-22, FSU's Dalvin Cook slipped a tackle and rumbled 71 yards to U-M's 16-yard line. Three plays later, Francois ran into the end zone to give FSU a 27-15 lead.

With less than eight minutes to play, Michigan took the ball at FSU's 37 after a targeting penalty on a punt. U-M converted two third downs, the final one as Wilton Speight found Khalid Hill for a TD, cutting the deficit to 27-22 with 5:22 to play.

U-M's defense forced a three-and-out, getting the ball back with 4:14 remaining. Two plays after a third-down run by Speight, Chris Evans broke through the line for a 30-yard score. Speight found Amara Darboh on the two-point attempt, giving U-M a 30-27 lead with 1:57 to play.

On the ensuing kickoff, FSU's Keith Gavin broke a tackle and ran 66 yards to U-M's 34-yard line. On third down, Francois found Nyquan Murray on a fade for the touchdown and a 33-30 lead with 36 seconds left. The extra point was blocked and Josh Metellus returned it for a defensive conversion, making the score 33-32 in favor of the Seminoles.

Michigan was come-from-behind again as a fourth-down pass was intercepted to seal the game.

With Jabrill Peppers unable to play after sustaining an injury the day before the game, FSU raced out to a 17-3 lead after the first quarter.

U-M tallied its first half points on a 19- and 28-yard field gaols by Allen.

Speight finished 21-of-38 for 163 yards and a touchdown. Evans led the ground game with eight carries for 49 yards and one TD.

2018 Outback Bowl

vs. South Carolina

Tampa, Florida
January 1, 2018
Attendance: 45,687

Michigan	6	3	10	0-19
USC	0	3	13	10-26

Five second-half turnovers were costly as South Carolina scored 23 unanswered points in a 26-19 comeback victory over Michigan in the Outback Bowl.

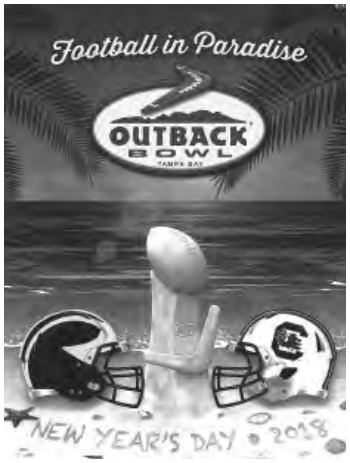
The Wolverines led 19-3 late in the third quarter but the Gamecocks took momentum and responded with touchdowns on three straight drives.

Following a first-half defensive struggle, Michigan marched 66 yards on its first possession of the third quarter, scoring the game's first touchdown when Ben Mason bullied his way into the end zone from one yard out, giving Michigan a 16-3 lead.

Noah Furbush proceeded to intercept Jake Bentley on the next possession and returned the ball to USC's 27-yard line. Michigan couldn't capitalize as Karan Higdon fumbled on the four-yard line. The defense produced another three-and-out and increased its lead to 19-3 as Quinn Nordin buried a 48-yarder.

South Carolina began its rally as Rico Dowdle scampered into the end zone from 17 yards out; the two-point conversion attempt failed to make the score 19-9. Michigan then fumbled on a handoff exchange and South Carolina responded immediately as Bentley found Bryan Edwards for a touchdown on the very first play after the turnover to make the deficit 19-16 entering the fourth quarter.

USC then took its first lead of the game, 23-19, as Bentley found Shi



Smith for a 53-yard scoring strike with 11:33 to play.

Michigan tried to answer and drove deep into South Carolina territory, but the scoring opportunity ended as Brandon Peters' pass was intercepted by JaMarcus King in the end zone. The Wolverines forced a punt following the turnover but Donovan Peoples-Jones fumbled and the Gamecocks recovered on U-M's 14-yard line. The defense held USC to a field goal to keep the deficit within one score, 26-19, with 3:47 to play.

U-M was unable to answer on the final two drives, turning the ball over on downs and throwing an interception.

Both teams' defenses exerted control from the outset but U-M benefited from a trio of USC miscues, converting three field goals from Nordin (35, 26, 45) during the opening 30 minutes into a 9-3 halftime advantage. South Carolina got on the board with 8:45 to play in the second quarter when Parker White connected from 44 yards out.

Atlanta, Georgia
December 29, 2018
Attendance: 74,006

Florida	3	10	14	14-41
Michigan	7	3	0	5-15

The No. 10-ranked Gators ran for 257 yards to spoil No. 7-ranked Michigan's first-ever Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl game in a 41-15 final from Atlanta, Ga. It marked Florida's first victory against the Wolverines in five tries.

Trailing 10-6, Florida scored touchdowns on three of four possessions spanning the second and third quarters to claim a 27-10 lead.

Florida got on the board on its second drive of the game, utilizing a variety of quick passes to get inside the five-yard line before stalling and settling for a 21-yard field goal from Evan McPherson.

On the ensuing series, U-M drove 75 yards on nine plays to claim a 7-3 lead on a nine-yard strike from Shea Patterson to Donovan Peoples-Jones with 2:03 left in the first quarter. The big play came on a 41-yard catch by Nico Collins to Florida's 21 yard line.

Michigan once again held Florida to another field goal, a 26-yarder by McPherson at the start of the second quarter to cut the deficit to 7-6.

J'Marick Woods blocked a punt and Jordan Glasgow recovered the ball on UF's 30-yard line, leading to a Jake Moody 48-yard field goal and a 10-6 lead with 5:56 left in the half.

Florida answered and reclaimed a 13-10 lead thanks to the running of QB Felipe Franks. Franks led an eight-play, 75-yard drive, finishing with a 20-yard keeper for a margin they would take into halftime.

In the third quarter, Florida scored touchdowns on two of its three possessions to gain a 27-10 lead with 2:34 remaining in the stanza.

Michigan got back on the board with a 26-yard field goal from Moody with 12:16 left in regulation.

Florida delivered a dagger, however, on a third-and-20 when Lamical Perine broke through for a 53-yard touchdown for a 34-13 lead with 9:21 remaining.

Khaleke Hudson earned U-M's second blocked punt of the contest with the ball rolling out of the back of the end zone for a safety and a 34-15 score. U-M got the ball back but a deflected pass was returned for a touchdown by Chauncy Gardner-Johnson to cap the scoring.

Patterson completed 22-of-36 passes for 236 yards while Peoples-Jones and Collins led the receivers with eight and five catches, respectively.
